Michael Feener, Patrick Daly, Anthony Reed, 2011-01-01 Aceh has become best known in our times for its twin disasters the worst earthquake and tsunami of modern times in December 2004 and a long running separatist conflict that rent Indonesia for most of its independent history Although this book emerged from the process of recovery from those traumas it turns the spotlight on a more positive and neglected claim Aceh has on our attention as the Southeast Asian maritime state that most successfully and creatively maintained its independent place in the world until 1874 Like Burma Siam and Vietnam all better protected by geography Aceh has its own story to tell of a unique culture struggling for survival through the European colonial era Unfortunately the sources for this story are scattered since Aceh's own records have not well survived the ravages of climate civil war and eventual foreign conquest To recover its cosmopolitan history an unparalleled range of sources and skills had to be brought together Aceh's central role in the creation of Malay literature out of Arabic Persian Indian and Indonesian elements had to be explored with reference to texts surviving in a dozen world libraries Teuku Iskandar Amirul Hadi The rich archeological record neglected through the long years of conflict had again to be brought into play Daniel Perret and the extensive relations of the Aceh sultanate with the Ottoman Empire Ismail G ksoy and Ismail Kad Andrew Peacock Annabel Gallop Portugal Jorge Alves England Annabel Gallop and the Netherlands Sher Banu and Jean Taylor had to be explored chiefly in European archives by experts in these respective fields The result of this combined work in this volume is the most comprehensive picture so far of sources for the history of Aceh Indonesia Today, 1979 Art, Culture and International Development John Clammer, 2014-11-13 Culture is not simply an explanation of last resort but is itself a rich multifaceted and contested concept and set of practices that needs to be expanded appreciated and applied in fresh ways if it is to be both valued in itself and to be of use in practical development This innovative book places culture specifically in the form of the arts back at the centre of debates in development studies by introducing new ways of conceptualizing art in relation to development The book shows how the arts and development are related in very practical ways as means to achieve development goals through visual dramatic filmic and craft inspired ways It advocates not so much culture and development but rather for the development of culture Without a cultural content to economic and social transformation the problems found in much development up rooting of cultures loss of art forms languages and modes of expression and performance may only accelerate Paying attention to the development of the arts as the content of development helps to amend this culturally destructive process Finally the book argues for the value of the arts in attaining sustainable cultures promoting poverty alleviation encouraging self empowerment stimulating creativity and the social imagination which in turn flow back into wider processes of social transformation Discussion questions at the end of each chapter make this book ideal to help foster further thinking and debate This book is an inspiring read for postgraduate students and researchers in the fields of development studies cultural studies and sociology of development Constructing Destruction Trinidad Rico,2016-04-14 Large scale disasters mobilize heritage professionals to a narrative of heritage at risk and a standardized set of processes to counter that risk Trinidad Rico s critical ethnography analyses heritage practices in the aftermath of the tsunami that swamped Banda Aceh Indonesia in 2004 and the post destruction narratives that accompanied it showing the sociocultural historical and political agendas these discourses raise Countering the typical Western ideology and practice of ameliorating heritage at risk were local post colonial trajectories that permitted the community to construct its own meaning of heritage This book documents the emergence of local heritage places practices and debates countering the globalized versions embraced by the heritage professions offering a critical paradigm for post destruction planning and practice that incorporates alternative models of heritage Constructing Deconstruction will be of value to scholars professionals and advanced students in Heritage Studies Anthropology Geography and Disaster Studies Musical Journeys in Sumatra Margaret Kartomi,2012-06-30 Although Sumatra is the sixth largest island in the world and home to an estimated 44 million Indonesians its musical arts and cultures have not been the subject of a book length study until now Documenting and explaining the ethnographic cultural and historical contexts of Sumatra s performing arts Musical Journeys in Sumatra also traces the changes in their style content and reception from the early 1970s onward Having dedicated almost forty years of scholarship to exploring the rich and varied music of Sumatran provinces Margaret Kartomi provides a fascinating ethnographic record of vanishing musical genres traditions and practices that have become deeply compromised by the pressures of urbanization rural poverty and government policy This deeply informed collection showcases the complex diversity of Indonesian music and includes field observations from six different provinces Aceh North Sumatra Riau West Sumatra South Sumatra and Bangka Belitung Featuring photographs and original drawings from Kartomi s field observations of instruments and performances Musical Journeys in Sumatra provides a comprehensive musical introduction to this neglected very large island with its hundreds of ethno linguistic musical groups ABIA South and Southeast Asian Art and Archaeology Index Ellen M. State is a critical history of cultural policy in one of the world's most diverse nations across the tumultuous twentieth century. It charts the influence of momentous political changes on the cultural policies of successive states including colonial government, Japanese occupation, the killing and repression of the left and their affiliates, and the return of representative government, and examines broader social changes like nationalism and consumer culture. The book uses the concept of authoritarian cultural policy or cultural policy that was premised on increased state control, tracing its presence from the colonial era until today. Tod Jones' use of historical and case study chapters captures the central state's changing cultural policies and its diverse outcomes across Indonesia.

Photography, Modernity and the Governed in Late-colonial

Indonesia Susie Protschky, 2025-10-01 The essays in this volume examine from a historical perspective how contested notions of modernity, civilization, and being governed were envisioned through photography in early twentieth-century Indonesia, a period when the Dutch colonial regime was implementing a liberal reform program known as the Ethical Policy. The contributors reveal how the camera evoked diverse, often contradictory, modes of envisioning an ethically governed colony, one in which the very concepts of modernity and civilization were subject to dispute.
