Claude Steiner, Paul Perry

Achieving Emotional Literacy:

Achieving Emotional Literacy Claude Steiner, Paul Perry, 1999-01 Emotional literacy is the ability to understand one's own feelings and to empathise with others in a way that enhances living. In this work Steiner shows how emotional intelligence can be developed by following his three stage training programme. Practical exercises and questionnaires are included. First he shows how to open the heart with techniques to break down the barriers which separate us from our feelings. Next he teaches how feelings can be recognised and expressed productively and how to listen with empathy as others express their emotions. Finally he shows how to take the responsibility by means of defining problems in relationships, accepting our role in them and making meaningful changes. Practical exercises to nurture emotional literacy skills and questionnaires which allow the reader to evaluate their EQ appear throughout whilst real life examples are also given.

Emotional Literacy Claude Steiner, 2003 This step by step program opens the door to achieving emotional power. Instructions are given on how emotional literacy intelligence with a heart can be learned through practising specific exercises that foster the awareness of emotion in oneself and others by increasing capacities to love others and oneself while developing honesty and by taking responsibility for one's actions. Provided are instructions on how to reverse the dangerous self destructive emotional patterns that can rule a person's life. This program shows individuals how to open their hearts and minds to honest and effective communication, how to survey the emotional landscape and ultimately how to take responsibility for their emotional lives.
