Road Accidents in Namibia, 2007 Caprivi Crash Duncan Watt, John Tedman, Alison Tedman, 1970-01-01 Pale Native Max du Preez, 2011-02-08 Max du Preez has one hell of a story to tell In his career as a renegade reporter he s survived three dismissals seven libel suits thirteen criminal cases four aeroplane crashes a bombing two assassination attempts and was a regular on right wing hit lists He was in Soweto on 16 June 1976 witnessed the debauched parties of apartheid cabinet ministers and stepped over dead bodies in a bombed Angolan village He looked into apartheid killer Dirk Coetzee s eyes and published his story of police death squads and when he visited Vlakplaas himself he was lucky to get out alive Max is best known as founder and editor of the Afrikaans newspaper Vrye Weekblad and for his weekly television report on the Truth Commission and the programme Special Assignment His story takes you on a remarkable journey from the contradictions of history to the triumphs and troubles of the present from the halls of parliament to the desert of Namibia from burning townships to the headquarters of covert operations You ll meet generals and guerrillas presidents and hit men And its all reported with the straight shooting uncompromising outspoken frankness that has won him admiration and got him into trouble with the new government as well as the old Pale Native is a story filled with drama about the risks of investigative journalism in the front line It s controversial because Max as always is not afraid to expose what others want hidden from view It s insightful giving a fascinating analysis of southern African politics from a skilled reporter who has seen it first hand Namibia National Bibliography, 1993 Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Olivier, 2004-08-26 This book is a comparative study of the evolution of the German navy in the second half of the nineteenth century It examines the development of strategy especially commerce raiding in comparison to what other navies were doing in this era of rapid technological change It is not an insular history merely listing ship rosters or specific events it is a history of the German navy in relation to its potential foes It is also a look at a new military institution involved in an inter service rivalry for funds technology and manpower with the prestigious and well established army Oversight Hearings on CITES Meetings United States. Köhler, Petrus Angula Mbenzi, Coletta M. Kandemiri, Werner Hillebrecht, Bruno Arich-Gerz, Martin Kuhn, Jan Bürger,2025-03-10 The project Narrating Africa began with an international symposium at the Deutsches Literaturarchiv in Marbach in September 2019 discussing the project and how to narrate Africa from academic perspectives Scholars from Germany Switzerland and Namibia engaged in intense discussions on a wide range of texts genres and research methodologies for two days This book contains some of the papers presented at the 2019 symposium as well as further presentations on narrating Africa Like the open space project this publication does not presume to give an answer to the difficult question of how to narrate Africa but rather it seeks to offer further insights into the field with a special focus on Namibian narrations This book is divided into four different sections The first part aims to provide an introductory overview to and reflections of the project s main theme narrating Africa In part two identity is explored and re considered along various literary texts and with a particular focus on questions of gender The third part focuses on oral literature and questions of time and memory Finally the last chapters are dedicated to the archive and colonialism exploring a variety of archive materials in Marbach and in Windhoek and how they take up and shape facts and fantasies of Namibia and Africa African Chronicle ,2007 A Cultural History of Firearms in the Age of Empire Dr Giacomo Macola, Dr Karen Jones, Professor David Welch,2013-09-28 Firearms have been studied by imperial historians mainly as means of human destruction and material production Yet firearms have always been invested with a whole array of additional social and symbolical meanings By placing these meanings at the centre of analysis the essays presented in this volume extend the study of the gun beyond the confines of military history and the examination of its impact on specific colonial encounters By bringing cultural perspectives to bear on this most pervasive of technological artefacts the contributors explore the densely interwoven relationships between firearms and broad processes of social change In so doing they contribute to a fuller understanding of some of the most significant consequences of British and American imperial expansions Not the least original feature of the book is its global frame of reference Bringing together historians of different periods and regions A Cultural History of Firearms in the Age of Empire overcomes traditional compartmentalisations of historical knowledge and encourages the drawing of novel and illuminating comparisons across time and space War of Intervention in Angola Adrien Fontanellaz, Tom Cooper, José Augusto Matos, 2023-06-30 Through late 1987 and early 1988 the battlefields of southern Angola moved ever further away from the border with South West Africa Namibia until the showdown between the Soviet and Cuban supported government in Luanda and South African supported insurgency of UNITA culminated in the controversial and still much disputed Battle of Cuito Cuanavale During this period Angolan and Cuban airpower slowly grew to a point where it outmatched the SAAF in turn limiting the freedom of movement of the SADF and UNITA ground forces and reducing their operations to attritional battles with little chance of achieving major victories on terms acceptable to the government in Pretoria As the changing political climate between East and West and in Africa began to bring about an end to the South African intervention in Angola and the occupation of South West Africa Namibia the government of Angola was able to switch its attentions to dealing with UNITA Volume 5 of War of Intervention in Angola examines in detail this final period of Cuban involvement in the long and tragic civil war that ruined Angola between 1975 and 1992 While the emphasis is upon the operations of the Angolan and Cuban air forces it also details how these impacted upon the ground operations of all parties This volume is richly illustrated with original photographs of the forces involved specially commissioned maps of the ground operations and a range of full color artworks A Field Marshal's Memoirs Count Alfred von Waldersee, 2019-07-23 The present volume is the 1924 English translation of Field Marshal Alfred Count von Waldersee's memoirs by Frederic Whyte Field Marshal Alfred Count von Waldersee's Denkwürdigkeiten are in three volumes in the German edition The two first covering the years 1832-1900 were issued at the end of 1922 the third covering the period August 1900-March 1904 appeared late in 1923 The entire work was edited by Herr Heinrich Otto Meisner with the approval and assistance of the Field Marshal's nephew Lieut General George Count von Waldersee who contributed a brief Preface to Volume I The nephew acclaims the uncle as Christian Nobleman Prussian German Soldier and Servant of his Sovereigns There is a second Preface by Herr Meisner who abstains from panegyrics and merely explains how the work has been pieced together The Field Marshal it seems had intended eventually to prepare a book of Reminiscences for the press but only a very few pages of the Denkwürdigkeiten as printed were written with a view to publication They have been compiled almost altogether from private diaries correspondence and memoranda Hence the impression which they give of absolute genuineness hence also much of their value as a trustworthy historical document As the well known critic Richard Bahr remarked in the M nchener Zeitung the work presents in this respect a welcome contrast with many of the autobiographical volumes which have recently appeared in Germany self justification screeds as he calls them The Reminiscences which the Field Marshal contemplated writing might indeed have had to be placed in the same category but here we have the author almost un retouched and almost as natural and as ingenuous as Pepys Frederic Whyte The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1994
