INSIDE YOUR HEAD is more important than what color your hair is and whether it's been blow dried curled and hair sprayed I mean who has the time to waste on coordinating your clothes and accessories with your nails every morning not to mention the money it costs Not me I can think of at least ten better things to do Or make it a thousand And even if I had loads of money to spare I'd donate it to a farm sanctuary or animal shelter rather than waste it on products that are superfluous and superficial and just plain silly It's only when I realize that participating in the show may actually give my friends and me a chance to get back at the mean fashionistas that I decide to join the circus but do it on my terms There is only one problem signing up is easy but what will we present With the show's big date getting closer there's little time to figure out our revenge As we go on that journey we get close and personal with the contents of our closets and face our dorkiness self consciousness and other demons We also discover that we are not just smart and caring individuals with an important message to share with the world and our school mates but have a distinct personal style as well This book will almost definitely change the way you think about fashion And you'll never look at the contents of your closet the same way again
