Crazy Time:

Crazy Time Kate Wilhelm, 2013-08-29 Why is Lauren Steele being followed around by a mysterious red haired ghost Why is the Pentagon after her And why doesn't anyone believe her As a psychologist at the Waycross Clinic in Seattle she has enough problems Her clients never seem to listen to anything she says and her co workers could use extensive counseling themselves The last thing she needs is an obnoxious figment of her own imagination showing up at the least opportune moments But Daniel Corky Corcoran is actually the victim of a faulty experimental laser having been accidentally dispersed when the device misfired during a demonstration He has literally gathered his wits about him by focusing on the last person he saw Lauren The trouble is Corky's attempts at communication only convince Lauren that she is going crazy Add to this one paranoid colonel from the Pentagon who is convinced that both Corky and Lauren are Soviet spies and you have a mix of zany and colourful characters caught up in a plot that is quintessential Wilhelm Crazy Time L. Cooper, 2022-01-07 Crazy Time A Bizarre Battle with Darkness and the Divine is a literary horror novel a dark surreal contemporary supernatural fantasy that offers scares and suspense but seeks to terrify more on the level of concept filling your head with thoughts and images that don't fit right and perhaps shouldn't even be Bright independent Lily Henshaw rides home with her friends Kris Eric and Mia after an evening of celebration and ends up in a nightmare Two men in a pickup truck stalk them on the road reminding them of urban legends in ways that only amplify the growing tension The truck sideswipes them and they pull over where the two men subdue them with a gun and a tire iron One of the men announces that it's crazy time and a game of violence and murder begins Lily barely escapes with her life Months later she is still traumatized and her religious coworker Vince's attempt to comfort her with claims that everything happens for a reason only leads to a panic attack Her boss and the owner of the printing company where they work Burt who has always had feelings for her but has never acted on them offers more solace but he also shows her posters ordered by MFS a corporation with offices at the nearby 1500 Spring Street skyscraper posters that feature disturbing apocalyptic Biblical images coupled with bizarre motivational taglines Lily is agnostic Burt is an atheist and they're both amused and a little creeped out The small levity Lily finds vanishes when her family calls to tell her that her brother David has killed himself apparently part of a cluster suicide phenomenon that she and David had heard about on the news at a recent family gathering While she mourns Lily can't get the apocalyptic posters out of her head Soon she gets a new much larger dose of religious creepiness when a swarm of locusts invades her apartment Unsure about whether the affliction is real she calls Burt for help and waits for him outside During the wait a man attacks her She fights him off but is on the ground bleeding when Burt and other witnesses arrive The other witnesses seeing Burt a black man and Lily an injured white woman assume Burt is to blame and have him arrested Lily testifies to Burt's innocence but he nevertheless spends a night in jail where a cellmate kills himself part of another suicide cluster Meanwhile Lily has a vision of Kris Eric and Mia sounding less like themselves than like Biblical prophets warning her about opposing God The experience sparks an idea Lily begins to believe that she might be cursed and in high Biblical fashion the curse is affecting people around her too especially Burt whose business is destroyed by a break in leaving Lily and Burt jobless Lily adopts curse logic and looks for answers Burt though skeptical joins her They visit an extreme psychic Lily has an interview with a Satanist While searching for answers tragedies and traumas keep piling up Lily s family suffers more losses Lily and Burt witness a murder in Lily s bedroom as well as a suicide on the street and Lily experiences further financial catastrophe Lily concludes that her curse is reminiscent of the Book of Job God if He exists is out to get her and unlike the pious Job she decides that she s out to get God too Her Satanist advisor points her toward a freelancer in the world of dark deeds Tobias Centurion who performs a ritual that indicates Lily and Burt will find answers at 1500 Spring Street in the MFS corporation Armed with nothing but portents and vague advice Lily and Burt approach the skyscraper intending to face off with God s corporate cronies and possibly God Himself

The Navy Chaplain ,1989 Menace From the Past James Alan Anderson,2023-07-18 Is it possible to ever truly escape one s past For thirteen year old Matthew and his girlfriend Melissa who are finally free from the dominance of a repressive religious cult the Philadelphia Brethren the answer seems to be no Even though they are now members of loving adoptive families the teens still have to deal with some troublesome lingering issues from their past lives Melissa harbours a deep resentment towards her fanatically religious former parents for depriving her of a happy and carefree childhood They had subjected her to years of mental and physical abuse social isolation and denial of personal freedoms Matthew struggles with anxious thoughts about the safety of his loved ones and is having frightful nightmares about his demented ex stepmother Vivian To make matters worse their otherwise idyllic 1960s Saskatchewan community is put on edge following attempts on both Melissa s life and another innocent young person Matthew s graphic nightmares begin to overwhelm him as they resurrect painful memories of his troubled past a past that he is desperately trying to forget Matthew also believes that a few of those nightmares could actually be real life excursions into horrific alternate realities where the familiar concepts of time and space become disjointed and incomprehensible Menace From the Past is the fifth book in the Threefold Cord series that follows the story of the adopted sons in the Adamson family who are all religious cult refugees and it is the first in the series to be narrated by Matthew A bonus supplement is also featured Camp Purgatory where Matthew recounts the last few weeks of his former life in the Philadelphia Brethren church when he and his best friend Danny were subjected to intensive religious indoctrination at a summer youth camp i, immigrant Nana S. Gino Patrick Johnston,Peter Leech,2025-10-07 From veteran hockey reporter Patrick Johnston and Gino s longtime friend Peter Leech comes the authorized biography of Gino Odjick In the 1980s and 90s National Hockey League games were very different from the nimble skill focused displays we see today One of the greatest differences and one of the sport s more popular facets at the time was the widespread presence of enforcers hulking battle scarred players whose main task was to police the sport by chasing down and brawling with opponents who had broken unwritten codes determining which aspects of violence counted as dishonorable or unjustified When hard hitting Vancouver Canucks player Gino Odjick emerged in the early 1990s he quickly became one of the game s most feared enforcers and revered teammates a sign of a new era for the team racking up 296 penalty minutes in the 45 games he played in his rookie season Hailing from Kitigan Zibi an Algonquin community near Maniwaki Quebec Gino was one of the few Indigenous players in the NHL at the time But it was Gino s ferocious play contrasted by his genuinely affable and openhearted personality off the ice that won him a special place in the hearts of Canucks supporters Yet legends often obscure the human stories behind them Patrick Johnston and Peter Leech look beyond Gino s legendary persona drawing on insights from family members friends and teammates to recount Gino s early years in a loving household that was always ready to welcome foster children Gino s father Joe had suffered the lonely traumas of the residential school system and the experience had instilled a commitment in the family to those who were less fortunate. The book also details Gino's eventual struggles with alcohol abuse and how he responded by taking on the role of empathetic mentor to young Indigenous people travelling from community to community to hear their stories and offer hope. He never wavered in this role even as he confronted serious illnesses including chronic traumatic encephalopathy (CTE) and the rare blood disorder that he survived for years longer than expected but that eventually led to his death at age fifty-two. Gino is a moving tribute to a beloved hockey legend.

Greetings from Cancerland Alysa Cummings, 2012-04. Shortly after Alysa Cummings was diagnosed with breast cancer, she sat down at her laptop computer and began keeping a journal. Over the two years of her cancer treatment, Alysa continued writing as she moved through the healthcare delivery system. I fantasized that I could somehow use my computer to craft a story with an upbeat next chapter or fairy tale happily ever after ending. Looking back, that's the only explanation I can come up with why I felt so compelled to create a record of my day-to-day experiences as a cancer patient. The one thing I could control were these words that crowded each other as they quickly appeared on my computer screen: these stories that flowed through my fingertips in such a manic rush, these traumatic adventures that happened to me in a place I began to call CancerLand. CancerLand, it's this parallel universe I swear separate and apart from the rest of life as I once knew it. How did I end up in this wacky Bizarro World filled with freaky language and even stranger rituals? Gradually, her daily journal entries became vignettes and poems that were published on the OncoLink website. Greetings from CancerLand, a collection of Alysa's writing from 2002-2012, charts one breast cancer survivor's journey as she discovers the power of writing to move her recovery forward.

Mother Lode Cade McQueen, 2012-02. His name was Daniel Alexander Jacobi, but his friends just called him Jac. He was the quintessential underachiever, a likeable ne'er-do-well who just couldn't seem to get his life together. After a lifetime of financial mismanagement, he'd wound broke and living pay cheque to pay cheque on a salary that never seemed to stretch far enough, a situation he found increasingly frustrating but one he couldn't find his way out of until one day on a back road everything changed dramatically. With 40 million in 100 00 bills literally dropped in front of him and the mob and the police searching for him, he fought desperately to hide the money. Fear of having been seen by someone gripped his heart like an icy hand as he struggled to try to come to grips with his new found wealth. This is the story of an unremarkable individual suddenly thrust into a terrifying situation which forced him to draw on a hidden reserve of courage and resolve in order to protect those he loved and the Mother Lode. Unwilling to defend himself, he discovered a will to kill if necessary to protect the money and the future of his loved ones.
