Natures of Colonial Change Jacob A. Tropp, 2006-10-01

In this groundbreaking study Jacob A Tropp explores the interconnections between negotiations over the environment and an emerging colonial relationship in a particular South African context the Transkei subsequently the largest of the notorious homelands under apartheid In the late nineteenth century South Africa s Cape Colony completed its incorporation of the area beyond the Kei River known as the Transkei and began transforming the region into a labor reserve It simultaneously restructured popular access to local forests reserving those resources for the benefit of the white settler economy This placed new constraints on local Africans in accessing resources for agriculture livestock management hunting building materials fuel medicine and ritual practices Drawing from a diverse array of oral and written sources Tropp reveals how bargaining over resources between and among colonial officials chiefs and headmen and local African men and women was interwoven with major changes in local political authority gendered economic relations and cultural practices as well as with intense struggles over the very meaning and scope of colonial rule itself Natures of Colonial Change sheds new light on the colonial era in the Transkei by looking at significant yet neglected dimensions of this history how both colonizing and colonized groups negotiated environmental access and how such negotiations helped shape the broader making and meaning of life in the new colonial order Violence in a Time of Liberation Donald L. Donham, 2011-07-21 This ethnographic analysis of violence that broke out in a South African gold mine soon after apartheid ended in 1994 shows how violence comes to be blamed on ethnic differences retrospectively and often wrongly The Politics of Evil Clifton Crais, 2002-10-17 In The Politics of Evil Clifton Crais provides a unique interpretation of South African history power culture and resistance Witchcraft, Violence, and Democracy in South Africa Adam Ashforth, 2005-01-15 Large numbers of people in Soweto other parts of South Africa live in fear of witchcraft presenting complex unique problems for the government Adam Ashforth explores the challenge of occult violence the spiritual insecurity that it engenders to democratic rule in South Africa Rural Resistance in South Africa Thembele Kepe, Lungisile Ntsebeza, 2011-11-04 Much has been written about anti apartheid resistance by the marginalized people of South Africa as well as its violent repression by security forces in urban areas e.g Sharpeville massacre Soweto riots Very little attention has been paid to resistance by rural people The Mpondo Revolts which began in the 1950s and reached a climax in 1960 rank among the most significant rural resistances in South Africa Here Mpondo villagers emphatically rejected the introduction of Bantu Authorities and unpopular rural land use planning that meant loss of land The volume presents a fresh understanding of the uprising as well as its meaning and significance then and now particularly relating to land rural governance party politics and the agency of the marginalized Covid and Custom in Rural South Africa Leslie Bank, Nelly Sharpley, 2022-07-15 This book explores the impact of Covid 19 and the associated state lockdown on rural lives in a former homeland in South Africa The 2020 Disaster Management Act saw the state sweep through rural areas targeting funerals and other customary practices as potential super spreader events This unprecedented clampdown produced widespread disruption fear and anxiety The authors build on path breaking work concerning local responses to West Africa's Ebola epidemic and examine the HIV AIDS pandemic to understand the impact of the Covid crisis on these communities and on rural Africa more broadly To shed light on the role of custom and ritual in rural social change during the pandemic Covid and Custom in Rural South Africa applies long term historical and ethnographic research theories of people's science local knowledge and the human economy and fieldwork conducted in ten rural South African communities during lockdown The volume highlights differences between developments in Southern Africa and elsewhere on the continent while exploring how the former apartheid homelands commonly yet problematically represented as former labor reserves have since been reconstituted as new home spaces In short it explains why rural people have been so angered by the state's assault on their cultural practices and institutions in the time of Covid Belief, Law and Politics Marie-Claire Foblets, Katayoun Alidadi, Zeynep Yanasmayan, 2016-04-15 This edited collection gathers together the principal findings of the three year RELIGARE project which dealt with the question of religious and philosophical diversity in European law Specifically it covers four spheres of public policy and legislation where the pressure to accommodate religious diversity has been most strongly felt in Europe employment family life use of public space and state support mechanisms Embracing a forward looking approach the final RELIGARE report provides recommendations to governance units at the local national and European levels regarding issues of religious pluralism and secularism This volume adds context and critique to those recommendations and more generally opens an intellectual discussion on the topic of religion in the European Union The book consists of two main parts the first includes the principal findings of the RELIGARE research project while the second is a compilation of 28 short contributions from influential scholars legal practitioners policy makers and activists who respond to the report and offer their views on the sensitive issue of religious diversity and the law in Europe Ethnology ,2004
