non human others and one that cultivates wisdom Neohumanist education strives for a harmonious balance between spiritual development and critical engagement with the world in the belief that an awakened conscience translates into transcending differences and creating a sense of unity with all beings The book is designed to enhance the spiritual and pedagogical knowledge and skill of teachers parents and school leaders who are seeking more holistic approaches to educating young people Both richly theoretical and eminently practical the book applies the primary commitments of Neohumanist education cultivating love and kinship with humans and non human others freeing the mind from dogma and limitations fostering a balanced approach between inquiry into the outer objective world s and the inner subjective world s and awakening the desire for social and environmental justice to the full spectrum of traditional subject matter It draws upon a wide range of new research and scholarship to illustrate an educational model capable of maximizing human potential and inspiring young people to create a future that is just joyful and sustainable

ENDORSEMENTS What a wonderful book Packed into its pages are decades of experience as a meditator yogi parent educator and Neohumanist This latter is the crux of this text designed to lay out in clear accessible language the fundamentals of this rich and inspiring philosophy and to touch on ways it can find its way into the daily flow of the classroom and school A philosophy worth its salt is one that actually makes a difference in the day to day lives of people In Kathleen Kesson and her comprehensive book we find just this practical pragmatic insights into a philosophy both new and ancient It is a gift to educators and anyone committed to wholesome futures for children society and of course the planet Marcus Bussey University of the Sunshine Coast Australia
