Shakespeare, Trauma and Contemporary Performance Catherine Silverstone, 2012-02-06 Shakespeare Trauma and Contemporary Performance examines how contemporary performances of Shakespeare's texts on stage and screen engage with violent events and histories The book attempts to account for but not to rationalize the ongoing and pernicious effects of various forms of violence as they have emerged in selected contemporary performances of Shakespeare's texts especially as that violence relates to apartheid colonization racism homophobia and war Through a series of wide ranging case studies which are informed by debates in Shakespeare trauma and performance studies and developed from extensive archival research the book examines how performances and their documentary traces work variously to memorialize remember and witness violent events and histories In the process Silverstone considers the ethical and political implications of attempts to represent trauma in performance especially in relation to performing spectatorship and community formation Ranging from the mainstream to the fringe key performances discussed include Gregory Doran's Titus Andronicus 1995 for Johannesburg's Market Theatre Don C Selwyn's New Zealand made film The Maori Merchant of Venice 2001 Philip Osment's appropriation of The Tempest in
