Footprints In My Heart Joanna Walls, 2010-04-15 When doors are opened during our life s journey God has a plan for each one of us When your life s journey is finished you will have experienced a full circle from childhood to many years later Everyone you meet during your life s circle is a learning experience for you and them Be aware and be ready when to move on to an opening that God has planned for you to use your skills These experiences are for your own personal growth with more knowledge for your next experience The stories that are in this book are my doors being opened and closed as God was sending me to care for these patients who were being mistreated I gave my patients the commitment of honesty integrity and my skills until God decided to move them on to be with Him When a door is closed it is time to move on to a door that God has opened for me to protect and care for another patient These patients that I am sharing with you were instrumental in my life for a period of thirty years I was not able to have conversations with the senility or traumatized patients from strokes Our communications consisted of one word of response such as a yes or no if I could hear it I learned to be perceptive of their needs and with our own form of communication The stories that are in this book are my doors being opened and closed as God was sending me to care for another patients who were being neglected I was to protect and care for another patient Should you recognize any of these stories or experiences that I have described or they appear to be a familiar scenario the names have been changed to protect the patients the families the care givers and any others that were involved God sent me on these journeys for all of us to benefit and know He is in control at all times This book is dedicated to my patients who were victimized by selfish greedy uncaring family members and friends The comradery I had with these patients who appreciated my protection and care have left their footprints in my heart forever Drug Abuse in Nursing Keith Kirkwood,2005-04 As an investigator for the Oregon Nursing Board the author found 10% of all nurses were addicted to drugs most in the top ten percent of the profession This book is written accounts of real life cases It explains what causes nurses to reach for drugs and how to stop them This book is written as a teaching handbook to educate nurses of the problem and the dos and don ts of spotting and handling it If every nurse were to read this account on drug abuse every year abuses would drop by 60% Nursing schools have little time to address this problem This book does it for them Three states have given continuing education hours for lectures by the author along with boards of pharmacy also in those states Early detections find the habit is less and there is less healing with returning to the job sooner This honorable profession deserves attention to this problem

White Drug Cultures and Regulation in London, 1916-1960 Christopher Hallam, 2018-08-09 This book traces the history of the London white drugs opiate and cocaine subculture from the First World War to the end of the classic British System of drug prescribing in the 1960s It also examines the regulatory forces that tried to suppress non medical drug use in both their medical and juridical forms Drugs subcultures were previously thought to have begun as part of the post war youth culture but in fact they existed from at least the 1930s In this book two networks of drug users are explored one emerging from the disaffected youth of the aristocracy the other from the night time economy of London's West End Their drug use was caught up in a kind of dance whose steps represented cultural conflicts over identity and the modernism and Victorianism that coexisted in interwar

Britain Thirty Days Then Life C.J. Jones, 2008-12-08 I was addicted to crack cocaine for twelve years before I hit my rock bottom I became desperate to get off drugs I didn't know what to do or how to get the help I needed to get my life back on track I was afraid to change because I didn't think I could live my life without using drugs So I depended upon the people who were put in my life during my addiction Which led me to Genesis House in Detroit MI A Christian based treatment center for drug rehabilitation In this book I tell how I got where I am today I lived with nine other women with addictions from alcohol to heroine who were seeking the same thing I was life without drugs I will never forget the nine women I lived with for thirty days or their testimonies They were the best thing that ever happened to me We became a family I've been clean for eleven years and no longer have a craving for drugs and as time passed I felt that God saved my life for a reason And that reason was to share what I had To help the ones that are still suffering from their addictions and to let them know it's alright to be afraid but through our testimonies they will learn that there is life after drugs and to help them find their way to a better life for themselves There are families who has family member on drugs who don't know how to help them I hope through this book that I can help them save at least one person from drug addiction and lead them to a better way to live Without God I wouldn't be here and I thank him every day for giving me a second chance to live my life drug free
