Dual Autobiography

Daniel J. Flynn

Dual Autobiography:

A Dual Autobiography Will Durant, Ariel Durant, 1977 In this magnificently readable autobiography by the authors of The Story of Civilization Will and Ariel Durant celebrate and examine a lifetime of ideas friendships triumphs and love The story of their life together rich in brilliant anecdotes and with the names of the countless famous people they knew is a passionate record of their shared experience as lovers as husband and wife as world travelers and as the authors of one of the most famous and successful works of scholarship in American literary history Ariel and Will Durant met and fell in love in 1912 He was a teacher at the anarchist Ferrer Center in New York a young man already in love with the world of ideas who had quit the seminary to his family's chagrin in search of freedom She was fourteen years old so young that she roller skated on her way to City Hall for her marriage the daughter of penniless immigrants struggling to survive in the New World inheritor of all the rebellious traditions and the determination to survive of the Russian ghetto from which her family came Together they shared not only a burning love for each other but a passionate hunger for ideas Their book takes us with them on their incredible and fascinating intellectual journey beginning with their interest in anarchism which brought them close to Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman and going on through a long shared lifetime that brought them honors fame and the acquaintanceship of almost every major literary and intellectual personality in Europe and the United States Their book is remarkably frank and deeply moving at once a star studded history of the decades through which they lived and worked and a passionate intimate and powerful tribute to a great and enduring love Dust jacket

Blue Collar Intellectuals Daniel J. Flynn, 2023-09-26 Stupid is the new smart but it wasn't always so Popular culture has divorced itself from the life of the mind Who has time for great books or deep thought when there is Jersey Shore to watch a txt 2 respond 2 and World of Warcraft to play At the same time those who pursue the life of the mind have insulated themselves from popular culture Speaking in insider jargon and writing unread books intellectuals have locked themselves away in a ghetto of their own creation It wasn't always so Blue Collar Intellectuals vividly captures a time in the twentieth century when the everyman aspired to high culture and when intellectuals descended from the ivory tower to speak to the everyman Author Daniel J. Flynn profiles thinkers from working class backgrounds who played a prominent role in American life by addressing their intellectual work to a mass audience Blue Collar Intellectuals tells the fascinating story of the unschooled hobo who migrated from skid row anonymity to White House chats with the president and prime time TV specials Blue Collar Intellectuals tells the fascinating story of The scandalous teacher student romance that spawned a half century labor of love in writing the history of the world The Ivy League Ph D who held neither a high school nor college degree and fittingly launched a renaissance in reading the great books outside of formal schools The scholarship student who experienced the free market firsthand waiting tables and peddling socks and who became one of capitalism's most influential exponents The impoverished outcast who became the poet of the pulps elevating millions of readers along with heretofore marginal genres Guiding us through a world now vanished Flynn causes us to look anew at our own digital age and its nostrums Video gaming is just a new form of literacy Reality shows Challenge our emotional intelligence and Who cares if Johnny can't read The value of books is overstated Blue Collar Intellectuals shows us how much everyone intellectual and everyman alike has suffered from mass culture's crowding out of higher things and the elite's failure to engage the masses Catastrophe and Higher Education Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2020-12-11 This book asks what it means to live in a higher educational world continuously tempered by catastrophe Many of the resources for response and resistance to catastrophe have long been identified by thinkers ranging from Ralph Waldo Emerson and William James to H. G. Wells and Emanuel Haldeman-Julius Di Leo posits that hope and resistance are possible if we are willing to resist a form of pessimism that already appears to be drawing us into its arms Catastrophe and Higher Education argues that the future of the humanities is tied to the fate of theory as a form of resistance to neoliberalism in higher education It also offers that the fate of the academy may very well be in the hands of humanities scholars who are tasked with either rejecting theory and philosophy in times of catastrophe or embracing it British Autobiographies William Matthews, 2023-04-28 British Autobiographies: An Annotated Bibliography of British Autobiographies Published or Written Before 1951 compiled by William Matthews is an essential resource for scholars, researchers, and anyone interested in personal narratives Spanning four centuries, this extensive bibliography catalogs a wide range of autobiographical works capturing the voices of individuals from all walks of life From statesmen and soldiers to artists, explorers, and even everyday people, these entries offer a window into the diverse experiences that shaped British history and culture Matthews and his team meticulously gathered these works from major libraries across the United States, the United Kingdom, and other locations, ensuring a comprehensive collection that sheds light on both famous and lesser-known autobiographical voices This bibliography is not only a valuable tool for literary scholars studying the evolution of autobiographical writing but also for historians, psychologists, and social scientists interested in understanding personal accounts of significant historical events and societal shifts Matthews' work opens up new possibilities for exploring the autobiographical genre as a reflection of both individual lives and broader cultural trends With its rich diversity of subjects and detailed annotations, British Autobiographies serves as a vital reference for anyone researching the personal dimensions of British history This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology This title was originally published in 1955 Life-Writing Donald J. Winslow, 1995-01-01 This text presents an introduction and a reference source of terms in the writing of biographies, autobiographies, and related literature History, Historians, and Autobiography Jeremy D. Popkin, 2005-05-09 Though history and autobiography both claim to tell true stories about the past, historians have traditionally rejected first-person accounts as subjective and therefore unreliable What, then, asks Jeremy D. Popkin in History

Historians and Autobiography are we to make of the ever increasing number of professional historians who are publishing stories of their own lives And how is this recent development changing the nature of history writing the historical profession and the genre of autobiography Drawing on the theoretical work of contemporary critics of autobiography and the philosophy of Paul Ricoeur Popkin reads the autobiographical classics of Edward Gibbon and Henry Adams and the memoirs of contemporary historians such as Emmanuel Le Roy Ladurie Peter Gay Jill Ker Conway and many others he reveals the contributions historians life stories make to our understanding of the human experience Historians autobiographies he shows reveal how scholars arrive at their vocations the difficulties of writing about modern professional life and the ways in which personal stories can add to our understanding of historical events such as war political movements and the traumas of the Holocaust An engrossing overview of the way historians view themselves and their profession this work will be of interest to readers concerned with the ways in which we understand the past as well as anyone interested in the art of life writing

Underlined While Reading-3 Sezai ARLI, I was born in December 1954 or January 1955 when the first snow fell as the third child of a Kurdish family living in a remote village of Eastern Turkey My father died of tuberculosis at the age of 31 when I was six years old My mother was 34 never married again dedicated her life to her children From the moment I learned how to read and write I became a passionate reader of the books books of literature books of history books of travel books of philosophy books of memoirs books of biographies books of politics This book contains some of the excerpts that I noted while reading Excerpts of wisdom and reflection from Barack Obama to Haji Ali Nurmadhar of Korphe Village in Karakoram from Edward Gibbon to Abdul Sattar Edhi Pakistani Philanthropist Excerpts on life on love on humanity on civilization on courage on art on ideas on faith on democracy on freedom on nations on education on war on peace Just a few short examples For only in death are we alone Rabindranath Tagore Sir that all who are happy are equally happy is not true A peasant and a philosopher may be equally satisfied but not equally happy Happiness consists in the multiplicity of agreeable consciousness Samuel Jonson Serious literature is no less of a life preserver even if the society is all but oblivious of it Philip Roth It bothers me a little that at 99 you re going to die any minute because I have a lot of other things I want to do Delmer Berg Sezai Arli Doha November 2020 Home Is Somewhere Else Desider Furst,Lilian R. Furst,2012-02-01 Following the Nazi annexation of Austria in March of 1938 Desider Furst his wife and his daughter suddenly found themselves hunted outlaws holders of a German passport branded with a red J for Jewish They escaped from Vienna and eventually settled in England where they spent the war years as enemy aliens In 1971 they emigrated once more this time voluntarily to the United States Home is Somewhere Else is a dual voice autobiographical narration by father and daughter recounting the family s displacements obstacles and repeated reversals The experiences documented here are typical of many Central Europeans whose lives were radically and painfully affected by the Nazis This book s originality lies in its narrative format and its revelation of what befell the lucky ones merely on the margins of the Holocaust The Pursuit of

Knowledge Under Difficulties ,1995-12 This first history of nontraditional education in America covers the span from Benjamin Franklin s Junto to community colleges It aims to unravel the knotted connections between education and society by focusing on the voluntary pursuit of knowledge by those who were both older and more likely to be gainfully employed than the school age population

A Farewell to Heroes Frank Graham,2003 As the younger Frank tells more of the story we watch Lou Gehrig take Babe Ruth s place as the Yankee s star and then trace his glorious career to its tragic conclusion We see firsthand the legendary Branch Rickey and Jackie Robinson and boxing s brief but golden age on television in the 1950s Aided by sixteen photographs and preserving the most masterful of his father s writing while adding to it the best of his own Frank Graham Jr has given the sports fan A Farewell to Heroes perhaps the ultimate sports reminiscence of a time when the romance of sport gave life a golden hue when heroes still roamed the earth Jacket

Good and Evil

Perspectives to Know D. G. Reagle,2025-04-11 In writing this book I set out with two main goals to create an accessible resource for anyone curious about life s big questions and to satisfy my own quest for answers While I often find the answers I seek they frequently lead to more questions especially on the nature of good and evil This concept has long intrigued me and for many it s a central question about God Over the past forty years I ve explored these questions across the globe and contemplating the universe s mysteries While my conclusions may not resonate with everyone I hope to guide readers in finding answers that bring them peace Understanding good and evil can be deeply personal and I believe there s no single right answer what matters is discovering a perspective that aligns with your beliefs Various perspectives on good and evil emerge from religion philosophy and influential thinkers each offering unique insights Some overlap while others diverge significantly I invite you to consider questions like What defines good and evil for you Are they universal or culturally specific Is there a moral foundation and if so whose morals are they These reflections can encourage deeper exploration and build empathy

Geo-Narratives of a Filial Son Elizabeth Kindall,2020-05-11 Huang Xiangjian a mid seventeenth century member of the Suzhou local elite journeyed on foot to southwest China and recorded its sublime scenery in site specific paintings Elizabeth Kindall s innovative analysis of the visual experiences and social functions Huang conveyed through his oeuvre reveals an unrecognized tradition of site paintings here labeled geo narratives that recount specific journeys and create meaning in the paintings Kindall shows how Huang created these geo narratives by drawing upon the Suzhou place painting tradition as well as the encoded experiences of southwestern sites discussed in historical gazetteers and personal travel records and the geography of the sites themselves Ultimately these works were intended to create personas and fulfill specific social purposes among the educated class during the Ming Qing transition Some of Huang's paintings of the southwest together with his travel records became part of a campaign to attain the socially generated title of Filial Son whereas others served private functions This definitive study elucidates the context for Huang Xiangjian's painting and identifies geo narrative as a distinct landscape painting tradition lauded for its naturalistic immediacy experiential topography and dramatic narratives of moral persuasion class identification and biographical commemoration

The Modern School Movement Paul Avrich, 2014-07-14 In this comprehensive study of the Modern School movement Paul Avrich narrates its history analyzes its successes and failures and assesses its place in American life In doing so he shows how the radical experimentation in art and communal living as well as in education during this period set the precedent for much of the artistic social and educational ferment of the 1960s and 1970s Originally published in 1980 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

A Companion to Custer and the Little Bighorn Campaign Brad D. Lookingbill, 2015-11-23 An accessible and authoritative overview of the scholarship that has shaped our understanding of one of the most iconic battles in the history of the American West Combines contributions from an array of respected scholars historians and battlefield scientists Outlines the political and cultural conditions that laid the foundation for the Centennial Campaign and examines how George Armstrong Custer became its figurehead Provides a detailed analysis of the battle maneuverings at Little Bighorn paying special attention to Indian testimony from the battlefield Concludes with a section examining how the Battle of Little Bighorn has been mythologized and its pervading influence on American culture

Facing It Leigh Ross Chambers, 2023-06-20 For a generation or more literary theorists have used the metaphor of the death of the author in considering the observation that to write is to abdicate control over the meanings one's text is capable of generating But in the case of AIDS diaries the metaphor can be literal Facing It examines the genre not in classificatory terms but pragmatically as the site of a social interaction Through a detailed study of three such diaries originating respectively in France the United States and Australia Ross Chambers demonstrates that issues concerning the politics of AIDS writing and the ethics of reading are linked by a common concern with the problematics of survivorhood Two of the diaries chosen for special attention in this light are video diaries La Pudeur ou l'impudeur by Herv Guibert author of To the Friend Who Did Not Save My Life and Silverlake Life by the American videomaker Tom Joslin aided by his lover and friends notably Peter

Friedman The third is a defiant but anxious text Unbecoming by an American anthropologist Eric Michaels who died in Brisbane Australia in 1988 Other authors more briefly examined include Pascal de Duve Bertrand Duqu nelle Alain Emmanuel Dreuilhe David Wojnarowicz Gary Fisher and the filmmaker not a diarist Laurie Lynd Finally Facing It takes on the issue of its own relevance asking what contributions literary criticism can make in the midst of an epidemic Groundbreaking in its approach and potentially wide in its appeal The rigor of the ideas their dramatic nature and the political drive of the rhetoric all should win Facing It a large readership that could extend far beyond students of narrative or queer theory David Bergman Towson University editor of Camp Grounds Style and Homosexuality Ross Chambers is Distinguished University Professor of French and Comparative Literature University of Michigan and author of Room for Maneuver Reading the Oppositional in Narrative and Story and Situation Narrative Seduction and the Power of Fiction

Recovering History through Fact and Fiction Dallas John Baker, Donna Lee Brien, Nike Sulway, 2018-04-18 This edited collection brings together research that focuses on historic figures who have been largely neglected by history or forgotten over time The question of how to recover reclaim or retell the histories and stories of those obscured by the passage of time is one of growing public and scholarly interest The volume includes chapters on a diverse array of topics including semi biographical fiction digital and visual biographies autobiographies and memoirs among others Apart from the largely forgotten the book provides fresh perspectives on historical figures whose biographies are distorted by their fame or limited by public perception The subjects explored here include among others a child author a Finnish grandmother a cold war migr an Elizabethan era playwright a castaway a celebrated female artist and the lauded personalities Mary Shelley Judy Garland and J R R Tolkien Altogether the chapters included in this collection offer a much needed snapshot of new research on biography and its many variations and hybrids which will be of interest to academics and students of biography and life writing in general The Art of Seeing Things Charlotte Zoë Walker, 2001-01-01 A collection of essays by noted naturalist John Burroughs in which he contemplates a wide array of topics including farming religion and conservation A departure from previous John Burroughs anthologies this volume celebrates the surprising range of his writing to include religion philosophy conservation and farming In doing so it emphasizes the process of the literary naturalist specifically the lively connection the author makes between perceiving nature and how perception permeates all aspects of life experiences
