Absence In The Palm Of My Hands:

Where Buddhism Meets Neuroscience H.H. the Fourteenth Dalai Lama, 2018-10-30 Designed as a conversation between the Dalai Lama and Western neuroscientists this book takes readers on a journey through opposing fields of thought showing that they may not be so opposing after all Is the mind an ephemeral side effect of the brain's physical processes Are there forms of consciousness so subtle that science has not yet identified them How does consciousness happen Organized by the Mind and Life Institute this discussion addresses some of the most troublesome questions that have driven a wedge between Western science and religion Edited by Zara Houshmand Robert B Livingston and B Alan Wallace Where Buddhism Meets Neuroscience is the culmination of meetings between the Dalai Lama and a group of eminent neuroscientists and psychiatrists The Dalai Lama's incisive open minded approach both challenges and offers inspiration to Western scientists This book was previously published under the title Consciousness at the Crossroads The Insult Rupert

Thomson, 2012-08-01 One of David Bowie's 100 Must Read Books of All Time It is a Thursday evening After work Martin Blom drives to the supermarket to buy some groceries As he walks back to his car a shot rings out When he wakes up he is blind His neurosurgeon Bruno Visser tells him that his loss of sight is permanent and that he must expect to experience shock depression self pity even suicidal thoughts before his rehabilitation is complete But it doesn't work out quite like that One spring evening while Martin is practising in the clinic gardens with his new white cane something miraculous happens

One of Those Sometimes Is Now J. Proudfoot, 2005-05 The Ladies' Repository, 1871 Nonverbal Communication Across Disciplines: Paralanguage, kinesics, silence, personal and environmental interaction Fernando Poyatos, 2002-01-01 Part of a three volume set which takes a cross cultural approach to the subject of nonverbal communication The Zoist

, 1850 Solarities Cymene Howe, Jeff Diamanti, Amelia Moore, 2023 Solarities Elemental Encounters and Refractions is a transdisciplinary essay collection that explores the physical conceptual and political possibilities materialized by solarity a form of relation to the sun and its elemental force upon planetary life The authors propose that a different set of questions becomes possible when the material specificities of solar become the compass for thought prompting us to uncover our relationship to the sun How does solarity materialize in the bodies and lives of humans and non humans now and in the future What can we learn if we no longer take the sun for granted How do we continue to persist on a planet that is so intimately bound up in a state of love fear and dependence on this primary source of all living energy Each of the essays in Solarities take solar radiation as an interpretive lens that takes multiple forms often transforming as it does so Solarities draws inspiration from Black ecologies Indigenous philosophy feminist science technology studies and more than human discussions in the human sciences recognizing the phenomenological and ontological openings they make available The authors understand solarity as an energy source channeled through photovoltaic cells for example but the essays gathered here focus on the lives that solarity creates or impedes The experimental task is to find how solarities work their way into

materials and processes across our work seeking out the particular influences of solarly in making being s These relations are core to thinking the elemental conditions of solarly since it is through particular forms of focalizing the sun that life is sustained or made to wither across the planet In these ways the elemental condition of solarly is at once hyper particular and also shared across organic and inorganic bodies conditioned by physical form and material composition Throughout the collection the authors explore how solarly appears or recedes from view when we concentrate our attentions on it surfacing the existential omnipresence of the sun to open new thought possibilities inspire new actions and refract new dimensions of socionatural encounter

Temple Bar George Augustus Sala, Edmund Yates, 1896 Meaning Michael Polanyi, Harry Prosch, 2024-05-31 Published very shortly before his death in February 1976 Meaning is the culmination of Michael Polanyi s philosophic endeavors With the assistance of Harry Prosch Polanyi goes beyond his earlier critique of scientific objectivity to investigate meaning as founded upon the imaginative and creative faculties Establishing that science is an inherently normative form of knowledge and that society gives meaning to science instead of being given the truth by science Polanyi contends here that the foundation of meaning is the creative imagination Largely through metaphorical expression in poetry art myth and religion the imagination is used to synthesize the otherwise chaotic and disparate elements of life To Polanyi these integrations stand with those of science as equally valid modes of knowledge He hopes this view of the foundation of meaning will restore validity to the traditional ideas that were undercut by modern science Polanyi also outlines the general conditions of a free society that encourage varied approaches to truth and includes an illuminating discussion of how to restore to modern minds the possibility for the acceptance of religion

Ethics and Aesthetics in Toni Morrison's Fiction Mariangela Palladino, 2018-01-22 Ethics and Aesthetics in Toni Morrison s Fiction investigates Morrison s aesthetics in terms of narrative s ethical import Morrison s writing is concerned with ethically debatable issues and it offers a problematic representation of human experiences in African American history Whilst previous critical studies consider ethics in relation to events in the story Palladino explores its intersection with aesthetics Narrativizing the moral law Morrison s imperative is to relate the past and to find ways to tell what is often unspeakable The quest for ways to narrate horrific facts is a quest for an aesthetics which includes an appeal to the reader and thus necessarily engages with the ethical This study foregrounds the equivocal as a key feature of narrative ethics
