Absence Of Doubt When The Search For Enlightenment Stops:

Absence of Doubt Jill Warner, 2004-01 Terror, Insecurity and Liberty Didier Bigo, Anastassia Tsoukala, 2008-05-13

This edited volume questions the widespread resort to illiberal security practices by contemporary liberal regimes since 9 11 and argues that counter terrorism is embedded into the very logic of the fields of politics and security Although recent debate surrounding civil rights and liberties in post 9 11 Europe has focused on the forms provisions and legal consequences of security led policies this volume takes an inter disciplinary approach to explore how these policies have come to generate illiberal practices The book argues that policies implemented in the name of protection and national security have had a strong effect on civil liberties human rights and social cohesion in particular but not only since 9 11 The book undertakes detailed sociological enquiries concerning security agencies and analyses public discourses on the definition of the terrorist threat In doing so it aims to show that the current reframing of civil rights and liberties is in part a result of the very functioning of both the political and the security fields in that it is embedded in a broad array of domestic and transnational political administrative and bureaucratic stakes Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004

Painting the Sidewalk with Water Joan Tollifson, 2010-08-18 These lively talks and dialogues are about seeing through the illusion of separation and waking up to the boundless wholeness that is all there is Joan s approach is open and explorative questioning all attempts to conceptually grasp and frame the movement of life She talks about seeing through the stories and beliefs that create our human suffering and waking up to the simplicity of what is This book beautifully dissolves the apparent dichotomy between the uncompromising this is it just as it is message of radical non duality and the emphasis on being here now that is found in many meditation teachings Joan has an affinity with Buddhism Advaita and radical non duality but she belongs to no tradition In these talks and dialogues she takes on such perennial questions as Is there a way out of personal and global suffering Can we choose to stop addictive and destructive patterns Does being awake take effort vigilance and practice or is it effortlessly and unavoidably always already the case What happens when we die , Is There God? Ricky Firman, 2025-10-13 After centuries of philosophy science and faith the question still lingers Is there God In this deeply reflective and profoundly human work Ricky Firman invites readers on a journey through the landscapes of thought wonder and silence Blending philosophy cosmology and personal reflection he explores how reason reaches its limits and what remains when it does From Aristotle s first cause to the quantum birth of time from Spinoza s divine nature to the quiet awe of modern spirituality this book moves beyond argument into intimacy It is not a book of answers but of awareness a meditation on why the question itself refuses to die and how living with mystery may be the closest we ever come to touching the divine Written in luminous poetic prose Is There God The Search That Never Ends speaks to seekers skeptics and believers alike to anyone who has ever stared into the night sky and felt both the ache of not knowing and the quiet beauty of being here at all Perhaps the question itself is God the eternal pulse that keeps us wondering Philosophy and

Dystopia Gregory Claeys, 2017 Dystopia A Natural History is the first monograph devoted to the concept of dystopia Taking the term to encompass both a literary tradition of satirical works mostly on totalitarianism as well as real despotisms and societies in a state of disastrous collapse this volume redefines the central concepts and the chronology of the genre and offers a paradigm shifting understanding of the subject Part One assesses the theory and prehistory of dystopia By contrast to utopia conceived as promoting an ideal of friendship defined as enhanced sociability dystopia is defined by estrangement fear and the proliferation of enemy categories A natural history of dystopia thus concentrates upon the centrality of the passion or emotion of fear and hatred in modern despotisms The work of Le Bon Freud and others is used to show how dystopian groups use such emotions Utopia and dystopia are portrayed not as opposites but as extremes on a spectrum of sociability defined by a heightened form of group identity The prehistory of the process whereby enemies are demonised is explored from early conceptions of monstrosity through Christian conceptions of the devil and witchcraft and the persecution of heresy Part Two surveys the major dystopian moments in twentieth century despotisms focussing in particular upon Nazi Germany Stalinism the Chinese Cultural Revolution and Cambodia under Pol Pot The concentration here is upon the political religion hypothesis as a key explanation for the chief excesses of communism in particular Part Three examines literary dystopias It commences well before the usual starting point in the secondary literature in anti Jacobin writings of the 1790s Two chapters address the main twentieth century texts usually studied as representative of the genre Aldous Huxley's Brave New World and George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four The remainder of the section examines the evolution of the genre in the second half of the twentieth century down to the present

Pinn, 2016-06-16 We live in a world of social political economic and religious rupture Ideologies polarise to fuel confrontation within communities nations and regions of the world At this point in the twenty first century humanism's focus on reason ethics and justice offers the potential to rethink and re engage in new ways What Is Humanism and Why Does It Matter brings together leading humanist thinkers and activists to examine humanism and how it can work in the world Humanism is often misunderstood The movement includes both atheists and

Buddha's Not Smiling Erik D. Curren, 2008-01-01 Interest in Buddhism has exploded in the last couple of decades and millions of people around the world view Tibetan Buddhism as the religion's most pure and authentic form Yet a political conflict among Tibetan lamas themselves is now poised to tear the Tibetan Buddhist world apart and threaten the integrity of its thousand year old teachings On August 2 1993 Rumtek monastery was attacked Its monks were expelled and the cloister was turned over to supporters of a boy lamas appointed by the Chinese government But Rumtek was not in China and its attackers were not Communist troops Rumtek was in India the refuge for most exiled Tibetans And it was Tibetan lamas and monks themselves who led the siege Yet evidence shows that Chinese agents directly supported Tibetan lamas and monks who attacked Rumtek monastery While a complete picture of this controversy has been blurred by the media's focus on international Buddhist celebrities Buddha's Not Smiling challenges Readers to Judge for themselves the health of Tibetan Buddhism today The Educational Times ,1874
