Thinking with an Accent brings together leading and emerging scholars of media literature education law linguistics sound and politics to theorize accent as an understudied lynchpin of the global cultural economy. It reframes accent as a powerfully coded and yet unexplored mode of perception one that properly harnessed can yield transformative modalities of knowledge action and care. Accent this anthology shows does more than denote geographic ethnic or social identity. Accent emerges through listening mobilizes negotiations of power and enacts desiring relations. To think with an accent is to practice a dialogical and multimodal inquiry that unfolds the tensions of address within mediated utterances.
