Accelerating Africa's Food Production in Response to Rising Prices: Impacts and Requisite Actions Xinshen Diao, Shenggen Fan, Derek Headey, Michael Johnson, Alejandro Nin Pratt, and Bingxin Yu, Assessing Regional Integration in Africa V, 2012 The fifth of the series ARIA V has come at a time of renewed enthusiasm for shortening the period of the vision of the Abuja Treaty Its overall objective is to provide an analytical research publication that defines frameworks for African Governments the African Union and the Regional Economic Communities towards accelerating the establishment of the African Common Market through the speedy removal of all tariff and non tariff barriers obstacles to free movement of people investments and factors of production in general across Africa and through fast tracking the creation of an African continental Free Trade Area Can Regional Integration Accelerate Development in Africa? CGE Model

Simulations of the Impact of the SADC FTA on the Republic of Madagascar Jean-Jacques Hallaert,2007-03

Madagascar plans to start phasing out its customs tariffs on imports from the Southern African Development Community in 2007 This paper uses a CGE model to evaluate the impact of the SADC FTA on Madagascar economy The results suggest that the SADC FTA would only have a limited impact on Madagascar s real GDP because the liberalization affects only a small share of its total imports However Madagascar s trade and production pattern would change and benefit the textile and clothing sector Removing rigidities in the labor and capital market would increase the gains but they would remain limited Gains from the SADC FTA become substantial only when the regional liberalization is accompanied by a multilateral liberalization

Accelerated Economic Growth in West Africa Diery Seck,2015-07-07 The book provides a detailed analysis of the causes of West Africa s current economic high growth episode and proposes ways to extend it sustainably It examines the potential role of regional integration through the establishment of a common currency union and of other policy options that can enhance economic growth The authors suggest appropriate methods of coordination between macroeconomic policy and industrialization to achieve higher economic growth and also examine why pro poor strategies have not been successful The book underscores the challenges and opportunities that will arise from the structural change to the region s economies resulting from the necessary investment in manufacturing exports ICT and infrastructure which are key vehicles for extended growth Readers will learn how the region can better reach its developmental goals by securing and perpetuating political liberty and transactional freedom for all its citizens

Africa and the Global Financial Crisis Reuben Adeolu Alabi,2011 In this volume of the African Development Perspectives Yearbook series the Research Group on African Development Perspectives investigates the impact of the Global Financial Crisis GFC on economic reform processes in Africa The analysis is structured in such a way so as to reflect the opportunities and dangers of policy reversals in the face of the GFC The impact of the crisis on different types and forms of governance in the region is considered The first question is therefore which macro economic policy instruments have to be applied in order to overcome the crisis and to continue with sustainable development The second question is how the GFC has affected Africa s external economic relations and if the path of opening up to the world markets is to be continued The third question raised is how the crisis has affected social cohesion impacted poverty alleviation strategies and the achievement of Millennium Development Goals MDGs All these questions are discussed in the various contributions which comprise general studies and country case studies The book also looks into the role of international financial institutions during and after the crisis Series African Development Perspectives Yearbook Vol 15

The EU, Promoting Regional Integration, and Conflict Resolution Thomas Diez,Nathalie Tocci,2017-02-16 This book provides a comprehensive study into the promotion of regional integration as a central pillar of European Union EU relations with the rest of the world It is a strategy to deal with a core security challenge the transformation of conflicts and in particular regional conflicts Yet to what extent has the promotion of regional integration

been successful in transforming conflicts What can we regard as the core mechanisms of such an impact This volume offers a comprehensive assessment of the nexus between promoting integration and conflict transformation The authors systematically compare the consequences of EU involvement in eight conflicts in four world regions within a common framework In doing so they focus on the promotion of integration as a preventative strategy to avoid conflicts turning violent and as a long term strategy to transform violent conflicts by placing them in a broader institutional context The book will be of use to students and scholars interested in European foreign policy comparative regionalism and conflict resolution

Regional Economic Integration in West Africa Diery Seck, 2013-11-18 This book presents a number of key studies pertaining to the most pressing challenges of economic regional integration in West Africa The issues of monetary coordination foreign exchange volatility taxation savings and macroeconomic convergence are investigated from a regional perspective The characteristics of West Africa's trade policy are reviewed and assessed in comparison to that of the Southern African Development Community SADC The extent to which regional integration can tackle the challenge of unemployment is the focus of studies on labour markets Development of the private sector and coordination of regional cross border transportation are examined through the lens of economic collaboration between Arab and African countries The book provides fresh new answers to persistent development questions and sheds new light on long held views that are either incomplete or no longer true It also opens new perspectives on the search for sustainable avenues for Africa's development In this regard it may contribute to the emergence of a new paradigm on Africa's development process and its science based policy oriented implementation
