Trothen,2006-01-01 Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women Tracy J Trothen looks at the United Church as a uniquely Canadian institution and explores how it has approached gender and sexuality issues She argues that how the Church deals with these issues influences its ability to name violence against women In examining the Church s early approaches to gender and sexuality Tracy J Trothen discovered that the United Church had tended to see certain structures or roles as sacred and others as demonic For example while sex outside marriage was bad or improper sexual expression within marriage was largely deemed as proper or good no matter what manifestation it took This assumption allowed much violence within families and marriages to go unchallenged Trothen uncovers significant shifts in this approach through the examination of such issues as redemptive homes marriage pornography abortion the ordination of women and family Then analyzing three recent case studies she demonstrates the value of women s voices in challenging dominant world views Finally she suggests how the Church s approach to human sexuality and gender has facilitated or obstructed the move to address violence against women The findings in Linking Sexuality and Gender can be applied to faiths outside the United Church and will be important to anyone interested in church and society sexuality gender or the causal dynamics behind one Canadian institution s response to violence against women Tracy J Trothen is an assistant professor of systematic theology and ethics and director of field education at Queen s Theological College Queen s University Canada She was ordained in the United Church of Canada Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women

New Birth Pius Ojara,2010-01-01 new birth uses the metaphor of Church as Family of God as a countervailing and transforming imagery in its various considerations Inspired by the sense of life s itinerary together with its triumphs and startling reversals and its unexpected twists and turns new birth sees hope amidst social darkness and an ethos of selfishness as interior to God s purposes for human wellbeing Within this perspective new birth further recognizes that the risks always remain that believers can distort true hope in this world and fail to love according to the spirit of the Gospel Admittedly when we as Christians love one another we can be together and encourage each other And as we support each other we strengthen one another Furthermore when we protect love from aberration we protect the best in ourselves and build up a future for humanity In light of this understanding it then becomes very important for us to see and identify Christian discipleship as a way of making us become effective agents of love in this world This also means however that in the Church we have the imperative to hold each person tenderly trustingly and deeply Moreover this consciousness demands the strength of continual and active faith which holds assurances and wellsprings of significance and growth in courage human vibrancy and interpersonal goodness Accordingly the community called Church as the family of God constantly needs the powerful and positive force of continual renewal which conversion brings as an increasingly sublime value And the dynamic impulse of such renewal introduces and enlarges the wellspring of hope in our world It further provides a good starting point to challenge Christian believers to invest huge importance and prestige in playing constructive roles in giving shape to their positive relations and destiny new birth is a brilliant and a clear sighted work Written with intellectual vigor this work is a powerful and practical way of bringing faith into day to day life of the people and into the culture at large It invites challenges and inspires I find the handling of some of the biblical passages very insightful And people growing in their relationships have much to attach importance to Once again Pius Ojara has demonstrated himself to be a first class intellectual and an outstanding thinker christopher a brooks Professor of Anthropology School of World Studies Virginia Commonwealth University I like the way Pius Ojara writes about family and culture and Church in this book I can t Wait to read his next book fr uwem akpan sj Author of Say that You re One of There God's Priorities for Your Life for Men Hendrickson Publishers,2006-08 Topics include Hope Peace Thanksgiving Encouragement Contentment Energy Service and Renewal Back cover Embracing Soul Care Stephen W.
