Terrie M. Rooney

Access To The Sacraments Of Initiation And Reconciliation For Developmentally Disabled Persons:

Developmental Disabilities and Sacramental Access Edward Foley, 2020-08-31 Is a developmental disability an appropriate reason to bar a baptized person from the sacraments This is the disturbing question that generated this book The pastoral reality is that Roman Catholics with developmental disabilities are often barred from sacraments Sometimes they are subject to discrimination or face unusual obstacles in the sacramental life of the Church This volume collaboratively written by pastoral theologians from Catholic Theological Union and the Special Religious Education Office of the Archdiocese of Chicago addresses these issues Punctuated with true stories of shame and triumph this volume grapples with real issues that daily confront Catholics with developmental disabilities With a breadth of scholarship that ranges from biblical perspectives to ethical and canonical issues the authors demonstrate how people with developmental disabilities need to be embraced by the Church and its sacraments for they teach us something central about sacramental encounters

Engraved Upon the Heart Hwarang Moon, 2015-07-17 How does liturgy impact the formation of faith The Protestant Church has traditionally emphasized human reason and doctrinal knowledge But there is another method with great formative power participation in liturgy Human beings gain important knowledge not only through traditional cognitively focused learning but also through practice and participation And because knowledge is wholistic an inability to express an idea in language does not necessarily signify an absence of knowledge This book shows how liturgy transmits knowledge that transcends human reason We repeat the liturgy in weekly public worship and its contents are inscribed on our minds and bodies Contrary to common belief this is also true for children and cognitively challenged individuals They may be unable to verbally express the contents of their faith in a way that satisfies normal adult expectations but these two groups of people are capable of rich religious experiences This book explores how welcoming them into experience and practice of worship and sacrament can benefit children cognitively challenged church members their families and the church community as a whole and makes us all a more inclusive community in Christ Guidelines for the Building and Renovation of Churches Archdiocese of Chicago,2004 The Diocesan Commission on Church Art and Architecture for the Archdiocese of Chicago has prepared this set of guidelines to be used with those outlined in Built of Living Stones They will be useful for all those involved in any building or renovation project of a church or chapel

Evangelical Calvinism Myk Habets,Bobby Grow,2012-06-08 In this exciting volume new and emerging voices join senior Reformed scholars in presenting a coherent and impassioned articulation of Calvinism for today s world Evangelical Calvinism represents a mood within current Reformed theology The various contributors are in different ways articulating that mood of which their very diversity is a significant element In attempting to outline features of an Evangelical Calvinism a number of the contributors compare and contrast this approach with that of Federal Calvinism currently dominant in North American Reformed theology challenging the assumption that Federal Calvinism is the only possible expression of orthodox Reformed theology This book does not however represent the arrival of a new Calvinism or even a neo Calvinism if by those terms are meant a novel reading of the Reformed faith An Evangelical Calvinism highlights a Calvinistic tradition that has developed particularly within Scotland but is not unique to the Scots The editors have picked up the baton passed on by John Calvin Karl Barth Thomas Torrance and others in order to offer the family of Reformed theologies a reinvigorated theological and spiritual ethos This volume promises to set the agenda for Reformed Calvinist discussion for some time to come

Theology and the Experience of Disability Andrew Picard,Myk Habets,2016-04-28 The Christian gospel compels humanity to embrace deeper ways of being human together that will overcome false divisions and exclusions in search of flourishing and graced communities Presenting both short narratives emerging out of theological reflection on experience and analytical essays arising from engagement in scholarly conversations Theology and the Experience of Disability is a conscious attempt to develop theology by and with people with disabilities instead of theology about people with disabilities A mixture of academic professional practical and or lived experience is brought to the topic in search of constructive multi disciplinary proposals for church and society The result is an interdisciplinary engagement with the constructive possibilities
