Accompanying Young People:

Accompanying Young People on Their Spiritual Quest Maxine Green, Chandhu Christian, 1998 This book reveals one of the most vital yet under researched areas of youth ministry how Christian adults can accompany young people in their spiritual quest or journey For young people discovering who they are is an exciting and essential quest Accompanying them in this exploration offers a unique opportunity to enable them to grow in awareness and use their gifts in a creative way for themselves and for the community Based on the Biblical model of Christ meeting with his disciples on the road to Emmaus the authors show how we can be alongside young people and help them to develop their own confidence and maturity in their faith They consider What is accompanying What is achieved by successful accompanying programmes How does peer accompanying work How leaders can develop accompanying programmes The authors have developed their understanding of accompanying through real life stories and offer practical examples and models of good practice Working with Young People Xavier Úcar, Pere Soler-Masó, Anna Planas-Lladó, 2020 It is common to refer to the dynamism and vitality of young people as a source of change creation and innovation but they are often also considered a problem that we do not know how to respond to Young people can make adults feel uncomfortable because they are neither children who can be told what to do nor adults to be treated as equals From the perspective of adults their status is socially and culturally ambiguous Young People, Health And Family Life Brannen, Julia, Dodd, Kathryn, Oakley, Ann, 1994-02-01 How do parents try to minimize risk taking and are they successful The book draws upon a wealth of quantitative survey data and makes extensive use of the rich case material gathered in 64 different households Written from a sociological perspective it will be of interest to social scientists in the field of health family life education and youth culture as well as professionals and policymakers concerned with young people Enhancing Resilience in Youth Christoph Steinebach, Álvaro I. Langer, 2019-08-28 This book shows how to plan refine and implement peer supported mindfulness based interventions to prevent mental disorders in children and youths It focuses on interventions designed to maintain psychosocial health and prevent emotional and behavioral problems in children and youths around the globe By combining a range of research perspectives the book connects mindfulness to pro social behavior and to positive social and physical environments in order to enhance resilience In addition it presents theoretical aspects and practical recommendations on how to promote mental health and healthy lifestyles in adolescents such as school based interventions Gathering contributions by an international network of researchers and practitioners the book offers not only state of the art theoretical descriptions of key concepts and interventions but also best practices for implementing them to strengthen resilience Personalized Support in Youth Labor Market Policy Marie-Luise Assmann, 2023-10-14 In the face of increasing youth unemployment across Europe innovative approaches to youth labor market policy are crucial One such approach is the introduction of one stop shops for young people Here employment offices and other actors such as youth social services cooperate to offer young people coordinated advice from a single source The impact of their introduction upon the young people that use them is thus far under researched This study begins to fill this gap by outlining the support approach of the German youth career agencies that centers on gaining a more complete picture of the young person s life situation in order to offer them a range of possible support programs The study interrogates whether the youth career agencies do offer more personalized advice for young people during their transition to employment than classical job center teams It argues that if the cooperative relationships between the actors involved in the youth career agencies are of good quality more personalized support is likely to be offered there However personalized support in youth career agencies is still limited by the diverse specifications and target figures demanded of job centers by the Federal Employment Agency and also influenced by the professional background of the individual caseworkers

Reconnecting with Confirmation Pete Maidment,Susie Mapledoram,Stephen Lake,2010-10-31 A timely exploration of young people and confirmation in the light of changes in the Church of England that encourage children to receive communion before confirmation Includes practical guidance on creating the best confirmation experience for both the young people and the local church

Youth Drinking Cultures in a Digital World Antonia Lyons,Tim McCreanor,Ian Goodwin,Helen Moewaka Barnes,2017-02-24 Social media has helped boost the culture of intoxication a central aspect of young people s social lives in many Western countries Initial research suggests that these technologies enable highly nuanced targeted marketing and innovations creating new virtual spaces that alter the dynamics and consequences of drinking cultures in significant ways Youth Drinking Cultures in a Digital World focuses on how pervasive social networking technologies contribute to drinking cultures It brings together international contributions from leading researchers in this emerging field to explore how new technologies are reconfiguring the key themes traditional interests practices and concerns of alcohol related research with young people It is particularly concerned with three important areas namely identities social relations and power alcohol marketing and commercialisation public health and regulating alcohol promotion This innovative book includes original research and commentary and is a must read for academics and researchers in the areas of public health psychology sociology media studies youth studies and alcohol studies

Tackling Youth Unemployment Francesca Fazio,Anthony Forsyth,2014-03-17 Youth have always had higher unemployment rates about twice or more than the average as they are usually the last to be hired in an expansion and the first to be let go in a recession In addition young people engage in extensive job searching in their early years and this can imply considerable job churning as both youth and employers look for a good match This highlights the importance of facilitating the school to work transition and having early interventions to assist such youth before negative conditions set in It also highlights the potential importance of determining those young people most at risk of long term unemployment and of targeting or streaming them into programmes that will yield the largest incremental net benefits given their characteristics Unemployed youth without previous work experience often are not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits when they first enter the labour market

When they do receive job search assistance they often face a bewildering array of programmes that are available to assist them often with little guidance to help them select the programs that best meet their needs Consequently ensuring that today's youth do not become a lost generation is an urgent matter George Bernard Shaw once said that it is too bad that youth is wasted on the young implying that youth do not realize the opportunities they have as youth and only see them as they get older There is a danger however that many of today's youth may be never have those opportunities and hence not even see them with hindsight This book and others in the ADAPT Labour Studies Book Series are intended to deal with these challenges to make sure that youth is not wasted on the young

Co-ordinating Services for Children and Youth at Risk A World View OECD,1998-07-17 With 15 30% of our children and youth at risk of failing in school increasing the co ordination of education health and social services is seen as part of the solution This book shows how it is being done in Australia Canada Finland Germany the Netherlands Portugal and the United States

Principles and Practice of Informal Education Linda Deer Richardson,Mary Wolfe,2004-11-23 This new and exciting text is aimed at informal educators involved in youth work community work and adult education and health promotion The contributors explore the principles and practice of informal education and focus in particular on the notion of working with which is central to practice in this sector The book argues for an approach which is relevant to a number of professional fields and which focuses on a way of working rather than upon a specific target group The book looks at the role of an educator in informal education and youth work settings Comprehensive and analytical it looks at social cultural and political contexts of education The authors discuss the practical side of teaching from the setting programme planning and communication to activity based work one to one case work formal group work and managing the work load Finally the book analyses developing professional practice the use of line management and supervision and evaluation of work

Foundations for Youth Justice Anne Robinson,2014-02-28 How can youth justice refocus its attentions on the rights and perspectives of young people in transition This exciting new book outlines the state of practice now in flux within structures created by New Labour but moving in a different direction under the Coalition Government With a loosening of rules and prescription it explores opportunities for a fresh orientation that places young people at the centre and works collaboratively to nurture strengths competences and capital The chapters build a picture of the risks and problems that modern society creates for young people while acknowledging that society must respond when their behaviours legitimately cause risks and problems for others The burning question is how we do so and this book proposes a critical perspective that leads into a bold but realistic remodelling of practice It will be ideal for students of youth justice and criminal justice on foundation post qualifying or professional CPD courses

Spaces for Young Children, Second Edition Mark Dudek,2012-09-24 Good architecture combines the practical with a sense of delight in the spaces that make up a building If designed skilfully a building can inspire and help to make children's experience of their early years care a secure yet varied one Many childcare professionals understand the importance of architecture in ensuring good provision for young children and their families Whether making minor modifications to an existing facility embarking on major term improvements or a new construction this book will empower early years professionals to work with building professionals to create the best space for young children It looks at the big things but more importantly suggests the smaller features that can provide an educationally stimulating environment Drawing on experience in the UK and Europe this new edition aims to ensure that advances in children s architecture will be wellinformed It has been revised throughout and includes an overview of recent developments legal compliance consulting with children building for communities local involvement and achieving high quality builds with small budgets Sexual Crime and Circles of Support and Accountability Helen Elliott,Kerensa Hocken,Rebecca Lievesley,Nicholas Blagden,Belinda Winder,Phil Banyard,2018-05-31 This book offers a collection of original contributions to current research available on Circles of Support and Accountability CoSA by engaging with current literature and unpublished research in the field The book explores the role of narrative identity in desistance from sexual crime and how CoSA maps onto this as well as a history of CoSA across the world The text then moves into an empirical section reporting on some unpublished findings including an evaluation of a new prison based CoSA in the UK Lastly the experiences of service users and the influence of media perceptions are explored offering a space for the unheard voices as well as consideration of future directions for practitioners The book is relevant not just to psychologists criminologists social workers and students but to practitioners and the general public with an interest in learning about CoSA The editors of this volume have all been involved in the setting up of the Safer Living Foundation a charity formed in 2014 to reduce and prevent sexual offending Walking with Ignatius Arturo Sosa,2022-01-03 Walking with Ignatius is a celebration of 500 years of the Society of Jesus as seen through the eyes of its first Latin American Father General Arturo Sosa Comprised of interviews with Father General conducted over a period of two years by Dario Menor Walking with Ignatius retraces the inner tension both personal and communal that defines the quest for meaning over the ages from the time when St Ignatius begged for alms to sustain his studies to a world transformed by globalisation Menor s questions reflect the spirit of the Ignatian practice of discernment unafraid to ask questions and to face up to the challenges of the present Menor and Sosa engage in a spiritual conversation that covers such topics as the life of Ignatius the life story of Sosa the challenge of the unsettling twenty first century and the future of the Church With great care Sosa sifts through the past present and future of the Society of Jesus and of the Church The reader is invited in the Ignatian spirit into a conversation about the future direction of the Church in which the question of being a Catholic is replaced with the question of how we become Catholics Included is a section by section guide complete with bible references pointers for prayer and tips for spiritual conversation that encourages the reader to embark on a spiritual journey of their own Intended for those within and outside the Ignatian family Walking with Ignatius is both an exemplar of spiritual conversation in action and a response to Pope Francis s call for Jesuits to bring the practice of discernment to the world

Youth Beyond the Developmental Lens Wesley W. Ellis, 2024-01-23 What happens when we stop thinking of young people as projects and recognize them for who they are here and now Wesley Ellis exposes the insidious impact of developmental psychology upon youth ministry and practice arguing instead for a theological anthropology of youth that can help us see all people including adolescents as uniquely created in the image of God Propelled by the conviction that ministry requires us to see youth as beings rather than becomings Ellis demonstrates how we can reorient our vision toward ministry that prioritizes relationship and inclusion over rigid developmental frameworks A veteran youth minister across multiple denominations Ellis knows his subject deeply as both practitioner and theologian Youth beyond the Developmental Lens mines personal accounts the biblical narrative and a vast array of theological expertise to release readers from restrictive assumptions that have long bound youth ministry Ellis's finely tuned pastoral sensibilities bring all these elements into focus helping us understand ministry as relational and all humans as part of God's story Rostered ministers lay leaders and others engaged with youth will find an antidote to anxiety about the future of the church Ellis reminds us that God is here already Our call is simply to be

Youth and democracy in the climate crisis Jamie Gorman, Tomi Kiilakoski, Lana Pasic, Esther Vallado, 2024-09-01 This Youth Knowledge Book invites the readers young people activists youth workers educators researchers and policy makers to find a way forward to a more sustainable and just society This publication explores young people's experiences of the climate crisis and their actions It comprises seven chapters containing contributions from different authors divided into two parts The first section explores how young people are engaging in environmental politics while the second considers how the youth sector could respond to the climate crisis and support young people in their environmental activism across Europe and beyond The publication also highlights some of the emerging issues related to the climate crisis such as recognising the unequal impact of climate change on different groups of young people questions of intergenerational solidarity links between climate denialism and populism the rise of eco anxiety and other emotions and finally the blurring of the dichotomy between humans and nature
