The Research-Practice Gap on Accounting in the Public Services Laurence Ferry,Iris Saliterer,Ileana Steccolini,Basil Tucker,2018-11-11 This book considers how the practical and public policy relevance of research might be increased and academics and practitioners can better engage to define research agendas and deliver findings relevant to accounting and accountability in the public services To do so an international comparative analysis of the research practice gap in public sector accounting has been undertaken This involved academic perspectives from over twenty countries and practitioner perspectives from leading international professional accounting bodies actively involved in the public services arena It was found that research is valued for informing practice but engaging at a high level of policy engagement has been primarily by a small group of experienced researchers For other researchers the impact accomplished may not always be valued highly in the academic community relative to other more scholarly activities The book therefore looks at how engagement and impact between academics and practitioners can be increased

Researching Accounting Education Richard M.S. Wilson,2016-04-14 There is no doubt that accounting education scholarship and research in Australia is not only thriving but is amongst the best in the world Nor is there any doubt that Australian scholars in this field punch well above their weight within the international arena This book is not derived from a conventional special issue i e one focussing on a specific theme such as audit education communication in accounting education or the interface between accounting education and professional training Instead it presents a collection of leading edge contributions to accounting education research from Australian scholars on topics which have international relevance These topics reflect the typical breadth of research in this field being undertaken in Australia including coverage of students conceptions of accounting work the impact of entry mode on accounting students approaches to learning listening skills in accounting practice and student s performance in online accounting courses Taken together the contents of this book will help to enhance the educational base of accounting practice by providing guidance to educators in improving their pedagogic practice This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education an international journal

The Interface of Accounting Education and Professional Training Elaine Evans,Roger Juchau,Richard M.S. Wilson,2014-07-16 Over many decades the global development of professional accounting education programmes has been undertaken by higher education institutions professional accounting bodies and employers These institutions have sometimes co operated and sometimes been in conflict over the education and or training of future accounting professionals These ongoing problems of linkage and closure between academic accounting education and professional training have new currency because of pressures from students and employers to move accounting preparation onto a more efficient economic and practical basis The Interface of Accounting Education and Professional Training explores current elements of the interface between the academic education and professional training of accountants in Australia New Zealand South Africa and the UK It argues for a reassessment of the considerations and requirements for developing professional accounting programs which can make a student capable of being an accountant the academy ready to be an accountant the workplace and professional in being an accountant the professional bodies This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education An International Journal
