Achieving Consensus On Water Policy In California:

Achieving Consensus on Water Policy in California ,1992 The Future of Water Development in California
United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs. Subcommittee on Water and Power Resources,1986 California Water Law & Policy Reporter ,2002 California Water Myths , California Water Law and Policy Scott S. Slater,2010 The Use of Collaborative Processes in the Making of California Water Policy Sarah Connick,2003 Competition for California Water Ernest A. Engelbert,2024-03-29 California s water is at the center of an intense economic and political struggle A balance between supply and demand must be reached but it is far from certain that all Californians will get as much water as they want at a price they feel is right Competition for California Water presents essential information on key issues including Costs What would be the yields and what would be the costs in dollars as well as less tangible values of developing new sources of water Cost sharing How much of the cost of water development and distribution should be borne by the general public and how much by water users and other beneficiaries Environmental protection To what extent should environmental values be protected Conservation To what extent can the need for new water development be offset by conservation and more efficient use of water Institutional reform Can changes in the laws and institutions of California produce a more efficient system of water supply and management Agriculture How much increase in cost and or loss of water can California agriculture bear and still remain competitive Thirty one experts on all aspects of this topic project alternative futures for California s water supply Written in nontechnical language Competition for California Water is an invaluable source of information for Californians concerned with the future of their state This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982 California Politics & Policy ,1997 Water Policy Positions in California Marcia Kreith,1987 Oversight Hearing on the Future Water Needs of California Under CALFED, CALFED Financing, the Monitoring and Performance Standards of CALFED, and CALFED Public Participation United States. Congress. House. Committee on Resources.
Subcommittee on Water and Power,United States. Congress. House. Committee on Resources. Subcommittee on Water and Power Resources,1998 Agriculture, trade, and environment : achieving complementary policies ,1995 Times have changed No where is that more evident than in U S agriculture Increasing global integration expanding world agricultural markets and broadening environmental priorities both at home and abroad are defining new policy challenges for the United States This report provides information that can help align agricultural legislation with emerging needs and trends Current policies do not ameliorate conflicts between agriculture production and environmental quality between trade and the environment and between agriculture and competitive trade Lessons Learned from the California Drought (1987-1992)

Benedykt Dziegielewski, Hari P. Garbharran, John F. Langowski, Jr., 1997-04 Describes the lessons learned of the six year California drought 1987 1992 This report will improve the mgmt of water resources during future droughts in California other states These lessons capture the views of some 100 interviewed participants representing 57 organizations in California that manage or influence the mgmt of water The participating organizations represented Fed state regional local water supply agencies as well as environmental private governmental entities that influence water management in the state

California Courts and Judges, 2006 The Journal of the Assembly During the ... Session of the Legislature of the State of California California. Legislature. Assembly, 1991 Governance and Complexity in Water Management Hans Bressers, Kris Lulofs, 2010-01-01 The premise of this book is that careful reconsideration of strategies to achieve water management ambitions together with more in depth knowledge on the theories and practices of boundary spanning could bring solutions for contemporary water problems within reach The book integrates boundary work approaches new forms of governance and water resource management to explore frameworks for spanning sector scale and time boundaries Structured case studies reflect the experiences and lessons of cooperation and exchange with professional water managers and their projects Recommendations for boundary spanning in practice are presented and important contemporary water management themes including flooding and flood policy water depletion and water restoration are discussed in depth Incorporating conceptual theoretical and practical foci to address complexity and conflict in adaptive water management this book will strongly appeal to academics researchers and practitioners in the areas of water management planning and sustainability California Ecosystem, Water Supply, and Water Quality Enhancement Act of 2001 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Energy and Natural Resources. Subcommittee on Water and Power, 2002 The Promise and Performance of Environmental Conflict Resolution Rosemary O'Leary, Lisa B. Bingham, 2003 Environmental conflict resolution ECR is a process of negotiation that allows stakeholders in a dispute to reach a mutually satisfactory agreement on their own terms The tools of ECR such as facilitation mediation and conflict assessment suggest that it fits well with other ideas for reforming environmental policy First used in 1974 ECR has been an official part of policymaking since the mid 1990s This is the first book to evaluate systematically the results of these efforts The contributions to this book critically investigate the record and potential of ECR drawing on perspectives from political science public administration regional planning philosophy psychology anthropology and law Readings of the Workshop on Government Policy Reform for Forestry Conservation and Development in Latin America Hernán Cortés-Salas, Ronnie de Camino, Arnoldo H. Contreras, 1995 Reforming Institutions in Water Resource Management Lin Crase, Vasant P. Gandhi, 2009-09-02 As water scarcities increase nations throughout the world are in search of better institutions to manage water resources India has been making substantial efforts to develop its water management systems since independence and significant increases in irrigated agriculture have taken place through both public and private initiatives However scarcities are increasing and major problems presently confront the management of water resources and irrigated agriculture Resolving these problems is crucial for the future The main purpose of this book is to provide a new approach for the analysis and design of water institutions that govern the use and development of water resources particularly for agriculture which is the largest user Drawing on the theory of New Institutional Economics and comparisons with Australia as a developed country and other less developed nations in Africa and Asia the authors present original empirical data from three Indian states Detailed analysis of these data is used to identify and recommend attributes and features of water management institutions that are conducive to effective resource management its long term success and its best contribution to development
