Crazy For You The Making Of Womens Madness:

Talking Back bell hooks, 2014-10-10 In childhood bell hooks was taught that talking back meant speaking as an equal to an authority figure and daring to disagree and or have an opinion In this collection of personal and theoretical essays hooks reflects on her signature issues of racism and feminism politics and pedagogy Among her discoveries is that moving from silence into speech is for the oppressed the colonized the exploited and those who stand and struggle side by side a gesture of defiance that heals making new life and new growth possible

Women's Mental Health Sarah E. Romans, Mary Violette Seeman, 2006 Women's Mental Health A Life Cycle Approach brings together the latest research and clinical information on the wide variety of psychiatric problems that affect women in unique ways The book is organized around the female life cycle childhood adolescence adulthood reproduction and aging and addresses specific disorders as they present at each stage Chapters examine the biological hormonal and psychosocial foundations of female psychiatric disorders at each life cycle stage and offer a framework for thinking about clinical problems Expert commentaries are included to expand on key issues and provide an insightful overview of each life cycle stage The international group of contributors ensures complete coverage of cross cultural issues Concluding chapters discuss mental health services for women worldwide

Madness Mary de Young, 2014-01-10 Madness is of course personally experienced but because of its intimate relationship to the sociocultural context it is also socially constructed culturally represented and socially controlled all of which make it a topic ripe for sociological analysis Using a range of historical and contemporary textual material this work exercises the sociological imagination to explore some of the most perplexing questions in the history of madness including why some behaviors thoughts and emotions are labeled mad while others are not why they are labeled mad in one historical period and not another why the label of mad is applied to some types of people and not others by whom the label is applied and with what consequences

Of Suffocated Hearts and Tortured Souls Valérie Orlando, 2003-01-01 A striking number of hysterical or insane female characters populate Francophone women's writing To discover why Orlando reads novels from a variety of cultures teasing out key elements of Francophone identity struggles

Women and Psychiatric Treatment Claire Henderson, Catherine Smith, Shubulade Smith, Angela Stevens, 2013-05-24 Women and Psychiatric Treatment provides a practical guide to the challenge of preserving fairness in access and quality of provision of health care and argues that equity is only achievable through greater recognition of gender differences Taking into account the main variables which influence treatment such as setting age and culture clear suggestions are given for the reform of training research and provision of services according to gender differences Divided into seven sections the book discusses the following subjects the background treatment settings treatment of particular groups specific disorders managing the sequelae of trauma therapies the future implications for training research and service provision This comprehensive and practical text offers a thorough investigation of the issues surrounding the treatment of women with mental health problems It will be welcomed by psychiatrists clinical psychologists and other mental health workers Women's Health in Canada Marina Morrow, Olena Hankivsky, Colleen Varcoe, 2008-05-03 In recent years healthcare professionals have recognized the distinctly different healthcare needs and concerns of men and women Women's health in particular has come into its own in the last two decades In Canada however there has been little available in the way of a general text on women's health This volume works toward filling that gap by providing a resource for teaching and understanding women's health in this country To lay out the methodological and theoretical foundations for their study editors Olena Hankivsky Marina Morrow and Colleen Varcoe bring together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and practitioners from economics anthropology sociology nursing political studies women's studies and psychology Contributors draw on the rich history of the Canadian women's health movement providing analysis of that history and of the emergent theory policy and practice Aimed at undergraduate and graduate students as well as practitioners the collection adopts an intersectional approach looking closely at social factors such as gender race ethnicity class sexuality and gender identity and analysing how they relate both to each other and to women's health Connections between the social economic and cultural contexts of women's lives and their physical spiritual and mental well being are a primary focus Providing a much needed resource for teachers students and practitioners of women's health in Canada this comprehensive volume makes an important contribution to the literature The Wasting Heroine in German Fiction by Women 1770-1914 Anna Richards, 2004 In this broad ranging study of German fiction by women between 1770 1914 the author aims to add a new dimension to existing debates on the association of women and illness in literature She constructs a history of women's self starvation eating behaviour and wasting diseases How to Rethink Mental Illness Bernard Guerin, 2017-03-16 The world of mental illness is typically framed around symptoms and cures where every client is given a label In this challenging new book Professor Bernard Guerin provides a fresh alternative to considering these issues based in interdisciplinary social sciences and discourse analysis rather than medical studies or cognitive metaphors A timely and articulate challenge to mainstream approaches Guerin asks the reader to observe the ecological contexts for behavior rather than diagnose symptoms to find new ways to understand and help those experiencing mental distress This book shows the reader how we attribute mental illness to someone's behavior why we call some forms of suffering mental but not others what Western diagnoses look like when you strip away the theory and categories why psychiatry and psychology appeared for the first time at the start of modernity the relationship between capitalism and modern ideas of mental illness why it seems that women the poor and people of Indigenous and non Western backgrounds have worse mental health how we can rethink the hearing of voices more ecologically how self identity has evolved historically how thinking arises from our social contexts rather than from inside our heads Offering solutions rather than theory to develop a new post internal psychology How to Rethink Mental Illness will be essential reading for every mental health professional as well as anyone who has either experienced a mental illness themselves or helped a friend or family
