Effros, 2019-07-24 Creating Community with Food and Drink in Merovingian Gaul exposes the manner in which feasting and fasting in other words ritualized actions not performed solely for the purpose of nourishment were central to social interaction in Gaul both prior and subsequent to Christianization of the mixed population of Franks and Gallo Romans In exploring these issues using a multidisciplinary methodology Effros suggests that scholars may assess historical manifestations of the use of food and drink to create and reinforce the social hierarchy Effros addresses the tensions between monastic and lay communities and focuses on patronage through food and drink as a source of informal power a subject too often overlooked in favour of institutional structures more familiar to twentieth century historians Community Relational Soul Care Dr. Julie A. Larsen, 2023-03-27 This transformational model Matt 22 37 39 is focused on Community

Relational Soul Care that has been lived out through generations of relational soul caregivers since 1910 This book will bring spiritual vitality full circle for today to heal hurting people Scripture reveals Jesus Christ is the Helper Advocate and Counselor to help His children gain wisdom for spiritual vitality Dr Larsen observed hurting people did not get fully healed after counseling They fell back into old ways of living because they did not know their identity had a relationship with Jesus Christ experienced God and were nurtured by His people Relational soul caregivers mentor careseekers in and out of community Matt 18 20 to restore God s children in spiritual wisdom for the fulfillment of His plan Relational soul caregivers are mentors who study God s Word and have a relationship with Him Some mentors have professional degrees but they all share a collective focus on Jesus Christ love one another and help nurture others to spiritual vitality Using this biblical model with acrostics RELATE relational soul caregivers that nurture others spiritually mentally and emotionally and RESTORE restoring God s children through the basic study of His Word in the Epistles 1 2 3 John reveal examples of God s people helping each other to spiritual vitality Healing emerges in relationships with God others and God centered self in Community Relational Soul Care Building a Church of Small Groups Bill Donahue, Russ Robinson, 2001 This book provides pastors and church leaders with the vision values and initial steps necessary to begin building a church where small groups are integrated throughout the entire ministry Christian Initiation of Children 2009 - 2010: Weekly Resources for Ages 5 - 14 - Celebrating the Lectionary , Without Absolutes, God Is Not God Ronald A Train, 2013-01-12 Absolutes As a Christian it is foundational I believe to hold to absolutes For example a Christian should have absolutes about Gods ontology the principle of being absolutes about theology the study of God absolutes about Christology the study of Christ and absolutes about pneumatology the study of the Holy Spirit Each of the foregoing absolutes I believe impact upon how one constructs a world view and how one considers the wider implications of Gods kingdom work hence why I have titled this collection of essays Without absolutes God is not God I guess the reader will be asking him or herself why is there a requirement to hold to absolutes The need for absolutes is not complex In reality the argument determines whether one is a believer or non believer in the triune God A believer will weigh whether God revelationally speaks into this world generally and specifically A non believer will object to such a proposition and as a consequence leave him or herself open to other belief systems To perhaps put it another way a non believer is faced with the choice of deciding whether God is a reality or whether God is a creation of human imagination Decision making then is crucial when accepting the triune God and his work Does one make a decision to believe in God empirically or does one make a decision to believe in God from a position of faith It is my view that God cannot be known empirically i e by trial or experience but rather he can only be known by faith However it depends on how we define faith Those who accept other belief systems would argue that they too have a faith or a belief in some god or person In the Christian context however faith is an action based on the accepted evidence In other words if one accepts that the written word of God is substantially true 2 Peter 1 20 21 and that the Word of God Jesus of Nazareth is who he is recorded as being or is who he claims to be John 1 1 5 14 6 7 then faith is given substance But I would go further and argue that authentic faith is derived from a spiritual encounter with God which then enables the recipients faith response to be one which is prompted or ignited by God My argument is supported from Scripture 1 Corinthians 12 9 Ephesians 2 8 9 and from personal experience Both of the foregoing references I suggest argue that faith is a gift which has its origin in God Hence faith is not only prompted by God but also sustained by him The analysis of such faith is that it is revelatory and constitutes an utter reliance on who God is and why he exists Revelatory Faith Evangelicals argue that faith is a gift from God However this argument is treated with caution by others Existentialism suggests that faith is made possible and so granted by the gracious approach and self disclosure of being Interestingly at this point there is no great variance between the latter perspective and Martin Luther who argued that faith originates with or is at least aroused by God Contemplating the third article of the Apostles Creed he wrote I believe that I cannot of my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord or come to him But the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel enlightened me with His gifts sanctified and kept me in the true faith Modernists also argue that faith constitutes a persons response but only after having been drawn to Gods work of salvation This argument suggests faith to be an a priori act of God an act that prompts recognition that in the Christ God is endeavouring to share his own life This arousal of faith then affects worship praise and prayer and the practise of Christian discipleship The same argument suggests further that the prior love of God and the response of love that it generates are what shape a persons Christian faith Biblical support for these theological reflections is found in Ephesians

Christian Ethics Hak Joon Lee, 2021-11-09 In this capacious and accessible introduction to Christian ethics Hak Joon Lee advances a renewed vision of Christian life that is liberative grace centered and justice and peace oriented in nature Responding to key ethical questions of today Lee applies the moral meaning and implications of the New Covenant in Jesus Christ to twenty first century life characterized by fluidity fragmentation division and violence Christian Ethics begins by introducing covenant as the central drama and storyline of Scripture that culminates in the New Covenant of Jesus It presents shalom the wholeness and flourishing of creation as God's ultimate purpose and God's covenant as God's organizing mechanism of community that mediates God's work of liberation and restoration Lee proposes a creative model of Christian ethics based on the New Covenant of Jesus and its organizing patterns reconstructing the key categories of ethics agency norms authority of Scripture ethical discernment etc and drawing out four practices communicative engagement just peacemaking grassroots organizing and nonviolence The result is a new model of Christian ethics that is inclusive egalitarian ecological and justice and peace oriented which overcomes the limitations of traditional covenantal ethics In the second part of the book Lee systematically applies New Covenant ethics to the most urgent and controversial social issues of our time democratic politics economic ethics creation care criminal justice race sex and marriage medicine and war and peace Through his deep pastoral and irenic inquiries into these difficult topics Lee demonstrates a pattern of covenantal moral reasoning that undercuts the dominant neoliberal ethos of individualism and transactional relationship that more and more influences Christian moral decisions His conclusion is that as covenant has been at the heart of modern democracy human rights civil society and civic formation a renewed understanding of covenant centered in Jesus can help to heal our broken society and imperiled planet and to reorganize the fragmented human life in the era of globalization and digitization
