your grief and live with meaning in each moment      A Tale of Two Funerals Dr. Alan Wolfelt,2016-08-01 Meet the Williams family Grandma Williams has died and her children call Night Day Funeral Home to make arrangements Courtesy of a Twilight Zonesque space time anomaly the Williams family ends up concurrently planning and holding two funerals for Grandma one arranged by funeral director Sam Standard and the other by funeral director Garrett Gatekeeper How will the two funerals turn out Will the Williams family even be able to tell the difference Find out in this riveting and revealing Tale of Two Funerals      Creating Meaning in Funerals William G. Hoy,2024-08-01

Creating Meaning in Funerals is a book about the ways in which bereaved families and communities create meaningful ceremonies against a backdrop of what is culturally appropriate even when their choices might make little economic sense to those outside the culture The culmination of these customs and practices this book maintains is how bereaved individuals families and communities are drawn into significant meaning making in early bereavement Readers will be repeatedly challenged to suspend their own biases observe the customs and beliefs of others thoughtfully and provide counseling support and encouragement to bereaved individuals for whom funerals were or were not effective means of coping with their loss Discussion questions at the end of each chapter make the book useful for educational settings such as funeral service classroom instruction thanatology classes and grief counseling courses Each chapter is also accompanied by its own reference list to make chapters more useful individually

Death and Dying John F. Szabo,2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill      Pastoral Care for Survivors of a Traumatic Death Jeonghyun Park,2017-11-07 Modern life has led to an increase in traumatic deaths such as accidents murders suicide and other types of unanticipated violent death Family members and friends grieving a traumatic death face enormous shock numbness and despair as well as the need to find hope and God's mercy and grace in the midst of chaos, difficult questions, and confusion. The Christian church and faith community often do not provide appropriate pastoral care to help the bereaved overcome their despair. Jeonghyun Park explores the unique characteristics and dynamics of traumatic grief or grief in response to traumatic death and presents several approaches to pastoral care. The survivors of a traumatic death are likely to ask pastors spiritually despairing and tough questions such as: Where is God in this tragic death? If we have to accept this new reality, where can we find God's grace and mercy, power, and justice? Pastors and other spiritual leaders can provide comfort to the loved ones of victims of traumatic death by assisting them with their questions concerning a helpless God and a cruel God. This book offers new insights through specific pastoral care models and guidance for families needing healing, recovery, and meaningful rituals.

Grief Day by Day by Alan D. Wolfelt, 2018-10-01

When we are grieving the death of someone loved, we may struggle with making it through each day. How are we supposed to cope with our gut-wrenching grief and live our daily lives at the same time? What should we do with our chaotic, painful, and intrusive thoughts and feelings? How do we survive? And is it possible to both grieve and live with meaning and hope? If you've been asking yourself such questions, this book by one of the world's most beloved grief counselors provides affirmation and answers. Rituals give us something to do with our grief. Simple everyday practices can give structure to our grief and hold us up when we're feeling like we might collapse. In fact, when we're in grief, rituals are essentially effective beelines to healing. Learn what makes a ritual a ritual. Spoiler alert: Rituals can be easy and fast. Try some of the many solo rituals gathered here, such as letter writing, meditating, intentional emoting, grief walks, and the 10-minute grief encounter. And reach out to friends and loved ones who might like to get together for one of the simple group ceremonies. By incorporating the healing power of ritual into your days, you'll be not only surviving your grief, you'll be building in meaning and hope so that you can go on to thrive.
