Creating Poetry:

Making Poetry Matter Sue Dymoke, Andrew Lambirth, Anthony Wilson, 2015-03-26 Making Poetry Matter draws together contributions from leading scholars in the field to offer a variety of perspectives on poetry pedagogy. A wide range of topics are covered including teacher attitudes to teaching poetry in the urban primary classroom, digital poetry and multimodality, resistance to poetry in Post 16 English. The internationally recognised contributors draw on data collected through a variety of research methods including case studies to ensure that theory on poetry pedagogy is clearly linked to practice. They consider teaching and learning poetry in classrooms across the 5-19 age range from different perspectives looking at reading, writing, speaking and listening and transformative poetry cultures. Academic Vocabulary Level 3--Understanding and Creating Poetry Christine Dugan, 2014-02-01 This lesson integrates academic vocabulary instruction into content area lessons. Two easy to implement strategies for teaching academic vocabulary are integrated within the step by step standards based writing lesson. Creating Critical Research Poetry Maria K. E. Lahman, 2025-04-28 Creating Critical Research Poetry critically engages with the ways in which researchers can poetically approach textual representations that narrate the unnarratable and contest the uncontested. This text provides a rich path for early research poets to engage with and bloom and established research poets to dig deeper and flourish. Connections to literary poetry and critical social science theories are detailed. First person poetic accounts where poets describe early fruitful engagement with poetic forms are highlighted. Free verse, formed poetry and dimensional poems e.g. concrete poetry are covered in depth with guidance for developing a poetic sensibility and honing research poetry craft. Poetic experiences are integrated throughout the book which may be engaged with individually as a group and in virtual or face to face courses. Each chapter provides reflexive questions for the reader to engage with in their own journal writings, a poem creation exercise and further poetic resources. Set within critical theories, Creating Critical Research Poetry provides a context for early research poets and thought provoking possibilities for seasoned research poets. This is the perfect entry point to this burgeoning field of critical inquiry and qualitative research.

The White Lotus: Talks on the Zen Master Bodhidharma Osho, 2023-11-20

THE WHITE LOTUS IS A BEAUTIFUL SYMBOL White represents multidimensionality because white contains all the colors of the spectrum That is the most strange unbelievable quality about white it contains all the colors yet it seems to be colorless But it contains all those colors in such synthesis in such harmony that they all disappear They dissolve into oneness and that oneness is white White represents the ultimate synthesis and harmony And the lotus also is a great symbol particularly in the East The lotus represents the essential meaning of sannyas The lotus lives in the lake and yet the water cannot touch it It lives in the water and yet remains untouched by the water The lotus represents the witnessing quality of your being You live in the world but you remain a witness You remain in the world and yet you are not part of it You participate and yet you are not part of it You are in the world but the world is not in you When you become a calm and cool observer of life you are going to laugh not ordinary laughter but a belly laughter like a lion's roar And white lotuses will start showering on you
