Creating Readers And Writers:

Developing Reading and Writing in Second-Language Learners Diane August, Timothy Shanahan, 2007-10-10 A Co Publication of Lawrence Erlbaum Associates Inc and The International Reading Association This book is a shorter version of the full volume Developing Literacy in Second Language Learners reporting the findings of the National Literacy Panel on Language Minority Children and Youth The Panel a distinguished group of expert researchers in reading language bilingualism research methods and education was appointed to identify assess and synthesize research on the literacy education of language minority children and youth In this book chapters adapted from the original report concisely summarize what is known from empirical research about the development of literacy in language minority children and youth including development environment instruction and assessment

Transforming Literacy: Changing Lives Through Reading and Writing Robert P. Waxler, Maureen P. Hall, 2011-05-11 The book is interdisciplinary in focus and centers on enlarging teachers understanding of how reading and writing can change lives and how the language arts can contribute significantly to and change educational processes in the twenty first century Implicit in its argument is that although the emphasis on science and math is crucial to education in the digital age it remains vitally important to keep reading and writing language and story at the heart of the educational process This is particularly true in a democratic society because shaping stories through human language can enhance the quality of our lives and teach us something important about what it means to be human and vulnerable In this sense stories allow for self reflection and an increased opportunity to enhance and understand emotional intelligence and human community

Reading-Writing Connections Mary F. Heller, 1999-04-01 Reading Writing Connections From Theory to Practice is an extraordinary language arts methods text that enables elementary and middle school teachers to create classroom environments where all students can become lifelong readers and writers Focusing on developmentally appropriate methods and materials this remarkably readable book empowers a new generation of teachers to integrate reading writing listening and speaking in K 8 classrooms Heller s highly accessible writing style makes this book suitable as a primary text for undergraduate and graduate courses in language arts reading writing and literacy Special features of this second edition include a vision of how to transform cutting edge theory and research into classroom practice that utilizes integrated language arts instruction a unique developmental perspective with separate chapters on teaching methods and materials for kindergarten primary 1 3 intermediate 4 6 and middle grades 7 8 instructional guidelines that offer generous detailed suggestions for applying theory to practice plus For You to Try and For Your Journal exercises that encourage critical thinking and reflection and a wealth of classroom vignettes examples of students oral and written language illustrations and figures that accentuate interesting and informative theory research and practice In addition Reading Writing Connections offers expanded content on the impact of sociocultural theory and the whole language movement on the teaching of reading and writing across the curriculum greater emphasis on cultural diversity including new multicultural children's literature booklists that complement the general children's literature bibliographies and current information on alternative assessment emerging technologies the multiage classroom reader response to literature and thematic teaching Targeted Reading Intervention , Creating Strategic Readers: Techniques for Supporting Rigorous Literacy Instruction Valerie Ellery, 2014-04-01 Develop students literacy and active reading skills with this balanced whole child approach to reading for 21st century learners This updated book co published with the International Literacy Association ILA equips educators with numerous rigorous and engaging techniques that promote critical thinking and problem solving while reading The strategies provided concentrate on effective instruction within the five components of reading phonemic awareness phonics fluency vocabulary and comprehension Features include more than 125 enhanced classroom tested techniques in the areas of word study vocabulary fluency and comprehension 18 new techniques to motivate and engage all learners embedded scaffolding and teacher talk within each technique a focus on core literacy strands required by College and Career Readiness Standards and digital resources including an assortment of reproducible student and teacher resource sheets Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction
