Creation Regained Biblical Basics For A Reformational Worldview:

Creation Regained Albert M. Wolters, 1985 Creation Regained Albert M. Wolters, 1985 Worldview David K. Naugle, 2002-07-16 Conceiving of Christianity as a worldview has been one of the most significant events in the church in the last 150 years In this new book David Naugle provides the best discussion yet of the history and contemporary use of worldview as a totalizing approach to faith and life This informative volume first locates the origin of worldview in the writings of Immanuel Kant and surveys the rapid proliferation of its use throughout the English speaking world Naugle then provides the first study ever undertaken of the insights of major Western philosophers on the subject of worldview and offers an original examination of the role this concept has played in the natural and social sciences Finally Naugle gives the concept biblical and theological grounding exploring the unique ways that worldview has been used in the Evangelical Orthodox and Catholic traditions This clear presentation of the concept of worldview will be valuable to a wide range of readers

Everyday Theology (Cultural Exegesis) Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Charles A. Anderson, Michael J. Sleasman, 2007-03-01 Everyday theology is the reflective and practical task of living each day as faithful disciples of Jesus Christ In other words theology is not just for Sundays and it s not just for professional theologians Everyday Theology teaches all Christians how to get the theological lay of the land It enables them to become more conscious of the culture they inhabit every day so that they can understand how it affects them and how they can affect it If theology is the ministry of the Word to the world everyday theologians need to know something about that world and Everyday Theology shows them how to understand their culture make an impact on it Engaging and full of fresh young voices this book is the first in the new Cultural Exegesis series

Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God s people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit s transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God s people In other words God s people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel Living in the Lamblight Hans Boersma, 2001-01-08 In recent decades many fundamental Christian assumptions about the nature of God and the world have come under attack No longer can one assume even in many church circles that historic Christian beliefs about the Trinity and providence are generally accepted or understood Scientific knowledge and new technologies have also presented challenges for the church How for example should Christians understand the ecological crisis And how should the opening chapters of Genesis be understood in an age of genetic research and evolutionary science This collection of essays attempts to chart a faithful path for postmodern

Christians exploring the foundational ideas and concepts of a Christian worldview and suggesting their implications for Christian living today Contributors Hans Boersma John Cooper Marva J Dawn Michael W Goheen Christopher D Marshall Arnold E Sikkema John G Stackhouse Jr Rikki E Watts John R Wood Whoever Controls the Schools Rules the World Gary DeMar,2007 Abraham Kuyper Richard J. Mouw,2011-06-11 Richard Mouw was first drawn to Abraham Kuyper s writings about public life in the turbulent 1960s As he struggled to find the right Christian stance toward big social issues such as the civil rights movement and the Vietnam War Mouw discovered Kuyper s Lectures on Calvinism and with it a robust vision of active Christian involvement in public life that has guided him ever since In this short and personal introduction Mouw sets forth Kuyper s main ideas on Christian cultural discipleship including his views on sphere sovereignty the antithesis common grace and more Mouw looks at ways to update and in some places even correct Kuyper s thought as he applies it to such twenty first century issues as religious and cultural pluralism technology and the challenge of Islam Education for Hope John E Hull,2023-01-28 This book traces the little known history of an alternative school system erected in Canada by post WWII Dutch Neo Calvinist immigrants In less than four decades this community established a kindergarten to university education system that extended from Ottawa Ontario to Victoria BC This remarkable tradition of education imagines the school as a dissident and transformational social institution While this book offers the narrative of faith based tradition of education the author makes a strong case that educators from diverse ideological backgrounds can learn important lessons from it about the implementation of an alternative educational vision teacher led curriculum reform and a self formative pedagogy To supplement this narrative the author also provides a separate set of theoretical discussions on key issues in school reform as well as his memoir as an educator and curriculum designer within this tradition Engaging Religions and Worldviews in Africa Yusufu Turaki,2020-04-30 In a world of increasing globalization we live amidst a clash of cultures religions and worldviews each battling for the human heart and mind In this in depth study Yusufu Turaki offers a theological framework for engaging this clash of perspectives in Africa where traditional African religions colonialism and exposure to Christianity have each had a lasting impact on contemporary African worldviews Professor Turaki undertakes a systematic analysis of the nature of African Traditional Religion its complex history with Christianity and the need for African Christian theology to address its cultural and historical roots effectively He provides both a conceptual framework and practical guide for engaging African cultures and religions with compassion understanding and a firm foundation rooted in scriptural truth This book is an excellent resource for students of religion and theology as well as those interested in Africa s traditional heritage or drawn to the important work of cross cultural and inter religious dialogue The Pedagogy of Shalom HeeKap Lee,Paul Kaak,2016-11-25 Based on the teachings of Jesus and a biblical foundation this book presents a new framework for education and teaching referred to as the shalom education model that addresses four essential questions in education why teach what to teach how to teach and who are teachers After explaining the theoretical background of shalom the book investigates a range of contemporary educational issues including gender identity bullying disability linguistic and cultural diversity and social justice and presents practical guidelines that can be applied to classroom teaching The book also emphasizes the role of teachers as missional leaders who help students unlock their full potential

Doctrine in Shades of Green Andrew J. Spencer, 2022-01-13 How we come to our conclusions about ethical issues matters as much as the specific policies or practices we commend This book argues that four key doctrines form a theological perspective for environmental ethics They are the key ideas upon which people build their ethics of the environment By looking at the doctrines of revelation creation anthropology and eschatology we can find points of contact to work together more effectively for the common good and have more meaningful debates when our positions differ This book uses examples from four different theological positions ecotheology theological liberalism fundamentalism and evangelicalism to show that a creation positive ethic is possible from all of these positions and it explores why people who stand within various theological streams may engage in environmental issues in diverse ways

The Futures of Evangelicalism Craig G. Bartholomew, Robin Parry, Andrew West, 2004 An insightful assessment of the current state of evangelical affairs and the varied directions evangelicalism is poised to take Contributors include Alister McGrath Eugene Peterson I Howard Marshall Gregory J Laughery Stephen Lazarus Robin Parry and Andrew West

The Drama of Scripture Craig G. Bartholomew, Michael W. Goheen, 2024-05-07 The story of the Bible and its account of God's action in the world give meaning to our lives and provide us with the foundation for our actions In this bestselling textbook Craig Bartholomew and Michael Goheen survey the grand narrative of the Bible demonstrating how the biblical story forms the foundation of a Christian worldview In considering the biblical story the authors emphasize the unity of the whole viewing the Bible as a drama in six acts creation sin Israel Christ church and new creation Two overarching themes covenant in the Old Testament and kingdom in the New Testament tie the biblical story together Throughout the authors suggest God is revealed through the story and calls us to participate in his drama The third edition has been updated and revised throughout Additional resources for students and professors are available through Textbook eSources

We Shall See God Randy Alcorn, Charles Haddon Spurgeon, 2011 No author in history has more material in print than Charles Spurgeon In what is sure to become an instant classic bestselling author Alcorn has compiled the most profound spiritual insights on the topic of eternity from Spurgeon's sermons and arranged them into an easily accessible highly inspirational devotional format

Christian Mind in the Emerging World Peter Tze Ming Ng, Wing Tai Leung, Vaughan King Tong Mak, 2018-10-31 In response to challenges from the emerging world this book brings together essays that discuss and exemplify various related approaches to academic faith integration and explore how Christian faith should underpin scaffold and frame our understanding of academic disciplines leading to practical implications for work or action in modern society and culture Written by Christian scholars and practitioners from diverse backgrounds including the USA the UK Australia China Hong Kong South Korea and the Philippines the contributions here all contribute a global perspective while addressing some specific issue or case in the context of Asia They represent ingenious endeavors that illustrate the workings of a faith integrated approach in domains as wide as higher education business science psychology and counseling politics environment media social services leadership research and technology This volume will inform and inspire the reader into cross cultural and inter disciplinary studies particularly of religion education culture society and worldview Charismata Ken Snodgrass,2024-06-14 So what do you really want to do Most people spend more time thinking about how to get what they want rather than determining exactly what they should want during their life journey Modern dictionaries define vocation as a regular occupation or profession but its roots are found in Scripture as positively responding to a call from God that leads to a comprehensive Christian life This book traces the history of vocation from its scriptural roots to our present postmodern age usage then guides the reader through charismata the Greek word for gifts It explores individual giftedness responsibilities within community and vocational choices A hexagonal charismata portfolio model is presented with practical applications for establishing habits and balancing life aspects for Christians of all ages This book will help you rediscover the biblical meaning of vocation regardless of where you are along the journey of faith Reformational Theology Gordon J. Spykman,1992 Following the Biblical story line of creation fall redemption consummation Spykman s new paradigm systematics represents a notable revision of the traditional loci method Spykman has reordered the basic Christian dogmas in a bold attempt to overcome the rationalist scholastic influences inherent in the older method Living in God's Two Kingdoms David VanDrunen,2010 VanDrunen uses the two kingdoms theory to demonstrate how God s response to the civil and spiritual kingdoms inform an active yet critical Christian engagement with culture The Challenges of Cultural Discipleship Richard J. Mouw,2011-11-21 Richard J Mouw is well known for his incisive views on the intersection of culture and Christianity and for his efforts to make the thought of major Dutch theologian Abraham Kuyper accessible to average Christians In this volume Mouw provides the scholarly backstory to his popular books as he interprets applies expands on and at times even corrects Kuyper s remarkable vision for faith and public life In thirteen essays Mouw explores and develops the Kuyperian perspective on key topics in Christian cultural discipleship including public theology sphere sovereignty education creation and more He deftly articulates an ecumenically enriched neo Calvinist or neo Kuyperian perspective that appropriates and contextualizes the ideas and insights of this important theologian and statesman for new challenges in Christian thought and service
