A Little History of Poetry John Carey, 2020-04-21 A vital engaging and hugely enjoyable guide to poetry from ancient times to the present by one of our greatest champions of literature The Times and Sunday Times Best Books of 2020 A fizzing exhilarating book Sebastian Faulks Sunday Times What is poetry If music is sound organized in a particular way poetry is a way of organizing language It is language made special so that it will be remembered and valued It does not always work over the centuries countless thousands of poems have been forgotten But this Little History is about some that have not John Carey tells the stories behind the world's greatest poems from the oldest surviving one written nearly four thousand years ago to those being written today Carey looks at poets whose works shape our views of the world such as Dante Chaucer Shakespeare Whitman and Yeats He also looks at more recent poets like Derek Walcott Marianne Moore and Maya Angelou who have started to question what makes a poem great in the first place For readers both young and old this little history shines a light for readers on the richness of the world's poems and the elusive quality that makes them all the more enticing

Contestatory and Creative Poetics for a Time of Climate Catastrophe John Kinsella, Russell West-Pavlov, 2025-10-14 Contestatory and Creative Poetics for a Time of Climate Catastrophe Volume 1 Per Se is an extended narrative meditation upon the meaning of per se which generally denotes the thing in itself for its own sake but that upon closer examination transpires to be a high tensile composite of the thing se and a relationship per that always links it to something else and indeed in relations of internal complexity to itself Per se in the book's multiple parsings of the term is a moniker for the infinite relationality of the world and the relationality of each thing in itself Per se also denotes the endless fractal embedding of bundles of relationality at the successive levels of thing-ness from the infinitesimally minute nano scale to the unimaginably distant outer reaches of the sidereal Per se becomes an exploration of the way commodities cut loose from their context of production and floating on sea of oscillating exchange values never cease to morph back into artefacts defined by the socially intensive use values their fellow actants discover in them The book thus focalises a politicised effort to revision the rampant multiscale individualism solipsism and apartheid like segregation of our age Instead it searches for possibilities or community in every aspect of the world we have learnt to see through a relentlessly atomising and hypostatizing filter The volume claims that every act of perception is political reestablishing obfuscated connections thereby seeking to repair the shredded fabric of the ecosphere below the threshold of myopic common sense Yet it also celebrates the myriad acts of citizen defiance visible and invisible that constitute activist agendas around the world sending signals both practical and exemplary symbolic and literary that shore up communities of resistance everywhere The book does not hesitate to interrogate the fractal responsiveness to its own nature meditating repeatedly on the political character of writing and more significantly of the teaching of writing Central to its concerns are various avatars of trees from the pirogue that hangs above a bar in Lille and one that is crafted as part of an Italian artist's global collaboration on the periphery of this volume's emergence via the jacarandas of post apartheid South Africa to a wood chipped pine forest that has become a memorial library in Oslo to name only a few of the topics taken up by the book's many silvan micro fictions Looming over all these concerns are two contemporary silvan catastrophes the megablazes that destroyed forests in Amazonia Australia California Siberia and the Mediterranean during the period when the book was being written and the deforestation that has allowed zoonotic diseases to jump from once secluded animal species to the humans that would never have been their neighbours if naturally occurring forest barriers had been left intact

Christina Rossetti Emma Mason, 2018-06-10 Christina Rossetti 1830-94 is regarded as one of the greatest Christian poets to write in English While Rossetti has firmly secured her place in the canon her religious poetry was for a long time either overlooked or considered evidence of a melancholic disposition burdened by faith Recent scholarship has redressed reductive readings of Christian theology as repressive by rethinking it as a form of compassionate politics This shift has enabled new readings of Rossetti's work not simply as a body of significant nineteenth century devotional literature but also as a marker of religion's relevance to modern concerns through its reflections on science and materialism as well as spirituality and mysticism Emma Mason offers a compelling study of Christina Rossetti arguing that her poetry diaries letters and devotional commentaries are engaged with both contemporary theological debate and an emergent ecological agenda In chapters on the Catholic Revival Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood contemporary debates on plant and animal being and the relationship between grace and apocalypse Mason reads Rossetti's theology as an argument for spiritual materialism and ecological transformation She ultimately suggests that Rossetti's life and work captures the experience of faith as one of loving intimacy with the minutiae of creation a divine body in which all things material and immaterial human and nonhuman divine and embodied are interconnected
