Dreaming With Teresa:

Coleridge on Dreaming Jennifer Ford, 1998 This book is the first in depth investigation of Coleridge's responses to his dreams and to contemporary debates on the nature of dreaming a subject of perennial interest to poets philosophers and scientists throughout the Romantic period Coleridge wrote and read extensively on the subject but his richly diverse and original ideas have hitherto received little attention scattered as they are throughout his notebooks letters and marginalia Jennifer Ford's emphasis is on analysing the ways in which dreaming processes were construed by Coleridge in his dream readings and by his contemporaries in a range of poetic and medical works This historical exploration of dreams and dreaming allows Ford to explore previously neglected contemporary debates on the medical imagination By avoiding purely biographical or psychoanalytic approaches she reveals instead a rich historical context for the ways in which the most mysterious workings of the Romantic imagination were explored and understood Outlined Teresa's Story Teresa search for a shared practice of storytelling around which a popular study of cognitive narratology might form need look no further than our nightly experience of dreams Dreams and memories are inseparable complicating and building upon one another reminding us that knowledge of ourselves based on our memories relies upon fictionalized narratives we create for ourselves Psychologists refer to confabulation the creation of false or distorted memories about oneself and the world we inhabit albeit without any conscious intention to deceive This process and narrative inherent in the dreamlife of all people is at odds with the daily menu of cultural myths and politicized fictions fed to the Western world through print and social media and for which there is constant divisiveness and disagreement Cognitive Narratology and the Shared Identity of Myth uses insights gained from the scientific study of dreaming to explain how the shared experience of dreamlife can work in service to the common good Primary texts and literary works chosen for their influence on contemporary thinking provide a rationale and historical background From Artemidorus a professional diviner and Aristotle to the Church fathers Tertullian St Augustine Gregory of Nyssa Sinesius of Cyrene to The Wanderer Old English poem and Chaucers Book of the Duchess to Coleridges writings and R L Stevensons A Chapter on Dreams and to twentieth century dream theory and dream use in film The purpose is to enable readers through subjective self analysis to recognize what they share with their fellow dreamers shared identity in formation of a shared act of dreaming creation is a universal across centuries and throughout Western culture albeit currently misrepresented and rarely acted upon Dreaming with Teresa Boyd Rahier,2003 Dreams,
