"What a pilgrimage is Dreamtime Alice, with its wonderful strangeness, its vivacity, its energy, and its narrative power to charm. This is wonderful storytelling from a novelist Australians already know but who deserves a host of U.S. readers as well."

Dreamtime Alice A Memoir:

Dreamtime Alice Mandy Sayer, 1998 When her siblings failed him by rejecting the bohemian performing life Mandy saw her chance to become a character in his stories part of the only life he really loved So she learned to tap dance and they set off together to satisfy their grand ambitions on the toughest stage in the world New York Misfits & Me Mandy Sayer, 2018-10-01 I fell in love with my first misfit at the age of three He was a disabled man in a wheelchair who sold newspapers every afternoon outside the Empire Hotel in Annandale Whenever I glimpsed him in the distance I would break into a run jump onto his lap and smother him with kisses Misfits Me represents a selection of Mandy Sayer's non fiction writing from the past twenty years Each essay has been chosen to reflect a different aspect of Mandy's attraction to Australia's misfits and outsiders from child gangs and hoarders to pensioner drug dealers Sayer also writes with her inimitable frankness about her unconventional family her unusual marriage to playwright and author Louis Nowra and her writing process Mandy Sayer's Misfits Me is warm and generous deadly serious and very funny Sayer is a terrific storyteller and the stories that she is telling us here are vital surprising and necessary Christos Tsiolkas Sayer deftly draws parallels between her own experiences of trauma and those of her interview subjects will appeal to fans of Sayer's previous work over the last two decades as well as readers of investigative journalism Sonia Nair Books Publishing The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans Susan Larson, 1999 The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans is Susan Larson's delightfully informative response to questions most frequently asked her as book editor of the Times Picayune Tourists and locals alike want to know what to read where authors lived which bookstores to browse and when literary festivals are scheduled Now all the answers can be found in this one convenient volume the only complete directory of New Orleans's write life available Whether you are passing through the Big Easy residing there or longing to visit these pages will heighten your experience of one of the most intoxicating places on the planet taking you into countless nooks and crannies along its storied streets Book jacket No Dancing in the Lift Mandy Sayer, 2025-09-01 the sky detonated into chandeliers of light and the Harbour Bridge was illuminated with Eternity but the dawning of the new millennium was for me an anticlimax Nothing had really changed you were still dying and no amount of pretty sequined light floating from the heavens was going to reverse your fate When Mandy Sayer learns of her father Gerry's diagnosis of terminal cancer she faces a reckoning with past and future as she learns to navigate a precarious present This is the joyous and nuanced account of her father's later life his illness and the beautiful moments music and memories of earlier times they share yet it is also a fearless exploration of inescapable grief And an unfurling story of new love Most of us will face the death of a cherished parent and we all know the euphoria of falling in love But few of us will experience both at the same time Mandy's clear eyed memoir is an unforgettable love letter from a daughter to her father and a wife to her husband No Dancing in the Lift is rich in intimate anecdotes begging to be shared Evocative funny uplifting and heartbreaking Mandy Sayer writes with a vivacious and lyrical grace Mandy Sayer's wartime experiences their voices have been distinctively silenced Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend calls for a re definition of war literature to include the numerous voices of women writers and further recommends a re reading of Australian national literatures with women s war writing foregrounded to break the hold of a male dominated literary tradition and pass on a vital but unexplored women s tradition Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend examines the rich body of World Wars I and II and Vietnam War literature by Australian women providing the critical attention and treatment that they deserve Donna Coates records the reaction of Australian women writers to these conflicts illuminating the complex role of gender in the interpretation of war and in the cultural history of twentieth century Australia By visiting an astonishing number of unfamiliar non canonical texts Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend profoundly alters our understanding of how Australian women writers have interpreted war especially in a nation where the experience of colonising a frontier has spawned enduring myths of identity and statehood
