Drive Time:

Drivetime Anthony Ziegler, 2003-11 It's the light in our bedroom that answers the question It's not whether she's awake that matters really It's whether the light is on If the light is off she chose to turn it off If it's on she intended to see me That's all that I'm concerned with When I pull in our driveway and the light is on I know She's folding clothes reading her book taking a shower brushing her hair into pony tails or has fallen asleep waiting I know she intended to wait up The knowing is all that matters Change is good or so they say They being everyone but me that is Everyone who isn't going through a change or has been through one in the past Not those of us who are facing the uncertainty of change in the present None of us would agree The fear of what could happen when the road turns keeps us set on our path We are familiar with our surroundings and there is little reason to venture very far away from what we know I have no choice in the matter My life is changing and I'm going along for the ride
