Sara Jones, Roger Woods

Country Of My Skull:

Country Of My Skull Antjie Krog, 2010-03-30 The first free elections in South Africa's history were held in 1994. Within a year legislation was drafted to create a Truth and Reconciliation Commission to establish a picture of the gross human rights violations committed between 1960 and 1993. It was to seek the truth and make it known to the public and to prevent these brutal events ever happening again. From 1996 and over the following two years South Africans were exposed almost daily to revelations about their traumatic past. Antjie Krog's full account of the Commission's work using the testimonies of the oppressed and oppressors alike is a harrowing and haunting book in which the voices of ordinary people shape the course of history. WINNER OF SOUTH AFRICA'S SUNDAY TIMES ALAN PATON AWARD Country of My Skull Antjie Krog, 2002

Country of My Skull Antjie Krog, 2013 Under Construction Dirk de Geest, 2000 The Impossible Machine Adam Sitze, 2013-07-30 A fresh though counterintuitive understanding of South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission's legal, political and cultural heritage Performing South Africa's Truth Commission Catherine M. Cole, 2010 Spectacles of legality, performance, transitional justice and the law. Justice in transition, political trials 1956-1964. Witnessing and interpreting testimony, live present, public and speaking in many tongues. Eyes and ears of the nation, television and the implicated witness. Dragons in the living room, truth and reconciliation in repertoire. 2006 Conclusion. Afterword: what truth meant to the TRC. Mandela and Truth and Reconciliation Cath Senker, 2014-06-05 How did Nelson Mandela help to heal a divided nation by supporting South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission? What choices did he have? What support and advice did he receive and how did his decisions affect history and his legacy? This book looks at a momentous event from recent times showing how one of the world's most charismatic leaders chose to follow a courageous and groundbreaking course of action. The Palgrave Handbook of Testimony and Culture Sara Jones, Roger Woods, 2023-04-19 This Palgrave Handbook examines the ways in which researchers and practitioners theorise, analyse, produce and make use of testimony. It explores the full range of testimony in the public sphere including perpetrator testimony, testimony presented through social media and virtual reality. A growing body of research shows how complex and multi-layered testimony can be, how much this complexity adds to our understanding of our past and how creators and users of testimony have their own complex purposes. These advances indicate that many of our existing assumptions about testimony and models for working with it need to be revisited. The purpose of this Palgrave Handbook is to do just that by bringing together a wide range of disciplinary, theoretical, methodological and practice-based perspectives. Understanding African Philosophy Jan Farnback, 2015 A critical guide to some of the most important issues in modern African philosophy. Topics include the legacy of colonialism, the challenges of post-independence Africa and African oral and written philosophical traditions. Trauma, Resistance, Reconstruction in Post-1994 South African Writing Jaspal Kaur Singh, Rajendra Chetty, 2010 The re-conceptualization of South Africa as a democracy in 1994 has influenced the production and reception of texts in this nation and around the globe.

The literature emerging after 1994 provides a vision for reconciling the fragmented past produced by the brutality of apartheid policies and consequently shifting social relations from a traumatized past to a reconstructed future. The purpose of the essays in this anthology is to explore within the literary imagination and cultural production of a post apartheid nation and its people how the trauma and violence of the past are reconciled through textual strategies. What role does memory play for the remembering subject working through the trauma of a violent past?

South African Literary Studies Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-09-22. The collection delves into crucial themes and debates in South African literature addressing the innovative aesthetics of Black poetry, the political complexities of white writing, non-fiction's significance, and the role of geography in South Africa's regional fiction. It particularly examines how literary works have engaged with the country's evolving post apartheid identity and its place in global contexts. South African Literary Studies: A Safundi Reader on Genre, Method, and Ideas 1999-2024 marks the culminating volume in a series celebrating Safundi's twenty-fifth anniversary. This comprehensive collection showcases the journal's evolution from its initial focus on US South African comparative histories to its embrace of a wider range of interdisciplinary and literary studies. Divided into seven sections, this volume explores a diverse set of literary approaches including transnational comparisons featuring influential figures like Maya Angelou, Alan Paton, Zora Neale Hurston, and Bessie Head. It further addresses the works of poets and novelists who have shaped South African literature, including Lesego Rampolokeng, Keorapetse Kgositsile, and J. M. Coetzee, while also offering illuminating interviews with writers such as Chris Abani, C. A. Davids, and Mark Behr. Through its exploration of various genres, methods, and ideas, this volume retains Safundi's founding spirit of examining comparative and transnational connections while also demonstrating how literary criticism has become indispensable in defining South African culture and identity after apartheid.

Region, Nature, Frontiers Donna L. Potts, Amy D. Unsworth, 2009-05-27. The book is a collection of sixteen essays on issues of regional and national identities and perceptions in literature ranging from South Africa to the United States. Discussions include the American frontier, the relationship between non-fiction and place, linguistic and postcolonial boundaries.

A History of South Africa Leonard Thompson, 2014-04-29. A magisterial history of South Africa from the earliest known human inhabitation of the region to the present. Lynn Berat updates this classic text with a new chapter chronicling the first presidential term of Mbeki and ending with the celebrations of the centenary of South Africa's ruling African National Congress in January 2012. A history that is both accurate and authentic, written in a delightful literary style. Archbishop Desmond Tutu: Should become the standard general text for South African history. Recommended for college classes and anyone interested in obtaining a historical framework in which to place events occurring in South Africa today. Roger B. Beck, History Reviews of New Books.

Race, Decolonization, and Global Citizenship in South Africa Chielozone Eze, 2018. Examines the importance of South Africa's peaceful transition to democracy, especially in light of Nelson Mandela's belief that cosmopolitan dreams are not only desirable but a binding duty.
