Polikoff, 2008 Part of the Queer Ideas series edited by Michael Bronski QUEER IDEAS a new series of LGBT hardcovers that address important intellectual questions facing the movement The debate over marriage equality for same sex couples rages across the country Beyond Straight and Gay Marriage boldly moves the discussion forward by focusing on the larger more fundamental issue of marriage and the law The root problem asserts law professor and LGBT rights activist Nancy Polikoff is that marriage is a bright dividing line between those relationships that legally matter and those that don't A woman married to a man for nine months is entitled to Social Security survivor's benefits when he dies a woman living for nineteen years with a man or woman to whom she is not married receives nothing Polikoff reframes the debate by arguing that all family relationships and households need the economic stability and emotional peace of mind that now extend only to married

Divorced from Reality Jane C. Murphy, Jana B. Singer, 2015-06-26 Over the past thirty years there has been a dramatic shift in the way the legal system approaches family disputes Traditionally family disputes were resolved through an adversary system opposing parties appealed to a judge who determined which party was at fault and how the marital assets including the children should be divided Now many family courts are opting for a problem solving model in which courts attempt to restructure families by resolving both legal and nonlegal issues At the same time American families have changed dramatically Divorce rates have slowed while the number of children born and raised outside of marriage has increased sharply Grandparents and same sex partners care for children and more fathers seek an active role in their children s lives As a result families in today s court system have become more diverse and their legal situations more complex In Divorced from Reality Jane C Murphy and Jana B Singer argue that the current problem solving model fails to address the realities of today s families While today s dispute resolution regime may represent an improvement over its more adversary predecessor it is built largely around the model of a divorcing nuclear family with lawyers representing all parties a model that fits poorly with the realities of today s disputing families And courts may no longer be the best place for families in conflict To serve the families it is meant to help the legal system must adapt and reshape itself
