Men have unique needs and psychological issues that many clinicians may not recognize or know how to address. This volume presents chapters by the leading practitioners associated with current therapeutic models including Emotionally Focused Couple Therapy, Imago Relationship Therapy, Integrated Behavioral Couple Therapy, and more. Using in-depth case examples, they demonstrate how their approaches can be adapted to be male sensitive and respond to the ambivalence so many men experience about couples work. Special topics are also addressed, including infidelity, cultural diversity, working with veterans, and fathering issues. This book will enrich therapists' work with couples, making treatment a welcoming experience for both partners and the treatment process more gratifying for the therapist.

Encyclopedia of Counseling Frederick T. Leong, 2008-04-25 Selected as an Outstanding Academic Title by Choice Magazine, January 2010. From the depressed and lonely college student to the business executive at midlife experiencing decreasing levels of career satisfaction, to the couple where one partner has been unfaithful in the relationship, counselling is the intervention that numerous individuals turn to each year as the challenges and stress of daily living exceed their normal coping abilities. Counselling is practised by counsellors, social workers, psychiatric nurses, psychologists, and psychiatrists. Counselling is to be differentiated from psychotherapy in that the latter deals more with mental illnesses and psychological disorders, while the former is more concerned with normative stresses, adjustment difficulties, and life transitions, e.g. adjusting to unemployment or going through a divorce. The Encyclopedia of Counseling will be the definitive resource for members of the public who are interested in learning about the science and practice of counselling. It will also be a useful resource for undergraduate and graduate students, as well as professionals from other specialties.
