Cover Me:

Cover Me Sonya Huber, 2010-10-01 Growing up in middle class middle America Sonya Huber viewed health care as did most of her peers as an inconvenience or not at all There were braces and cavities medications and stitches the family doctor and the local dentist Finding herself without health insurance after college graduation she didn't worry It was a temporary problem Thirteen years and twenty three jobs later her view of the matter was quite different Huber's irreverent and affecting memoir of navigating the nation's health care system brings an awful and necessary dose of reality to the political debates and propaganda surrounding health care reform I look like any other upwardly mobile hipster Huber says I carry a messenger bag a few master's degrees and a toddler raised on organic milk What's not evident however is that she is a veteran of Medicaid and WIC the federal government's supplemental nutrition program for women infants and children In Cover Me Huber tells a story that is at once all too familiar and rarely told of being pushed to the edge by worry of the adamant belief that better care was out there of taking one mind numbing job after another in pursuit of health insurance only to find herself scrounging through the trash heap of our nation's health care system for tips and tricks that might mean the difference between life and death

Christian Poetry for Today Mary E. Piacenti, 2009-07 This book of poetry is about life's spiritual journey and encounter with God How we know God through the Holy Spirit and how we react to His presence It's about how we see life's different seasons and inner reflections regarding our spiritual insights It answers some of life's questions Mary Ellen Boyd Piacenti was born in Greene County Indiana in 1944 Her ancestors came from Scotland in the 1700s During her elementary years she attended a one room school and also a one room country church which is still in use today She met and married a military man and moved to Illinois in 1964 where she presently resides She was a homemaker there for many years and it was during this time that she wrote most of her poetry She worked as a teacher's assistant for five years and also a Sunday school teacher Mary Ellen and her husband Del are the parents of two sons two daughters six grandchildren and one great granddaughter
