Contested Spaces of Early America Juliana Barr, Edward Countryman, 2014-04-21 Colonial America stretched from Quebec to Buenos Aires and from the Atlantic littoral to the Pacific coast Although European settlers laid claim to territories they called New Spain New England and New France the reality of living in those spaces had little to do with European kingdoms Instead the New World's holdings took their form and shape from the Indian territories they inhabited These contested spaces throughout the western hemisphere were not unclaimed lands waiting to be conquered and populated but a single vast space occupied by native communities and defined by the meeting mingling and clashing of peoples creating societies unlike any that the world had seen before Contested Spaces of Early America brings together some of the most distinguished historians in the field to view colonial America on the largest possible scale Lavishly illustrated with maps Native art and color plates the twelve chapters span the southern reaches of New Spain through Mexico and Navajo Country to the Dakotas and Upper Canada and the early Indian civilizations to the ruins of the nineteenth century West At the heart of this volume is a search for a human geography of colonial relations Contested Spaces of Early America aims to rid the historical landscape of imperial cores frontier peripheries and modern national borders to redefine the way scholars imagine colonial America Contributors Matthew Babcock Ned Blackhawk Chantal Cramaussel Brian DeLay Elizabeth Fenn Allan Greer Pekka Hämäläinen Raï Jos Mandrini Cynthia Radding Birgit Brander Rasmussen Alan Taylor and Samuel Truett
