The Grown-Ups Wouldn't Like It Delia Despair, 2014-09-01 For the first five years of my life I was brought up by someone my mother happened to meet on the beach I'm going back to Nigeria next week to re join my husband she mentioned to this woman but I've got a baby of six months and I don't know what to do with her Delia Despair as she is now known to her many blog fans survived a turbulent if privileged childhood as the daughter of a globe trotting diplomat and was blessed or cursed with a confusion of mummies and a string of convents and smart schools before attending a Swiss business school pursued by suitors of several nationalities and managing to become an extremely junior journalist on the Daily Telegraph After that came a nightmare experience with a tyrannical millionairess boss followed by encounters with terrorists in Cyprus and finally a loving marriage to a man dismissed by her parents as beneath her Delia has penned a fascinating warm and very funny memoir replete with encounters with the great and good and some not so good from Somerset Maugham Noel Coward and John Gielgud to Fanny Cradock and gifts for the sick or dispirited Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,1972-03 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics Human Documents of the Lloyd George Era E. Royston Pike,2023-11-06 First published in 1972 Human Documents of the Lloyd George Era presents the years when Lloyd George was in his prime and his career in peace and war may be seen as the frame in which the documents find their proper place but the book s real subject is not Lloyd George it is the People with whom he identified himself and spent his long life trying to serve For the purpose of this book Lloyd George Era is taken as the period from 1905 The early documents enable us to reconstruct a vivid picture of life as it was lived before the war by such people as London artisans Middlesbrough ironworkers Lancashire factory hands Northumbrian pit folk and farm labourers while extracts from reports of the first Lady Factory Inspectors and of the great Royal Commission on the Poor Law highlight the grim situation of the Pauper Host With the outbreak of war the mood changes as Lloyd George leads the People in a massive war effort on the home front producing munitions and trying to maintain normal industrial output A glimpse is given of the various contributions made by women Out of a vast mass of tiny details a picture emerges of an essentially peace loving people joining forces to achieve what Lloyd George called the bloodstained stagger to victory This is an essential read for students of British history
