Language Teachers' Stories from their Professional Knowledge Landscapes Lesley Harbon, Robyn Moloney, 2017-06-23 Language Teachers' Professional Knowledge Landscapes is a collection of fourteen narratives from teachers of different languages at different school levels in different contexts across Australia This volume brings together not simply language teacher stories but also more political stories of the problems associated with school programs and contexts Highlighted through these stories are some of the major political issues in schools that impact language teachers' work and their students' success in sustained language study The book is conceptually framed by the work of Clandinin and Connelly 1996 and their notion of levels of stories told by teachers about their classrooms the secret the sacred and the cover stories The term professional knowledge landscape is used to indicate how teachers can critically situate their work and thereby understand it better The collection includes the stories of two outstanding primary language educators and a story of mixed success in a rural program in teaching the local Aboriginal language Ngarrabul There are stories of frustration with policy failures particularly in supporting the learning of Asian languages Many of the teacher narrators ask the confronting question What blocks language learning in Australia They offer the strategies which they have developed that they see making a difference Other narratives offer autoethnographic tracking of careers for example as a teacher of Latin and Classics Japanese French Spanish Russian and of teachers ongoing vigour and creativity in advocacy A number of teachers examine their own identity story for the intercultural learning which they then offer and extend in student learning Consistently expressed there is the need for teachers to take up individual responsibility while still being strongly supported by their professional community It is us who make the difference one teacher concludes Supported by a strong Foreword by Canadian scholar F Michael Connelly this ground breaking collection of narratives represents a form of social research in providing critical illustrations of the issues needing attention for national language education enhancement It is the only extended inquiry into language teaching in the context of an active policy initiative environment and the first volume to address the language education landscape through the voices of active language teachers

Extraordinarily Ordinary Erin A. Meyers, 2020-02-14 Extraordinarily Ordinary offers a critical analysis of the production of a distinct form of twenty first century celebrity constructed through the exploding coverage of reality television cast members in Us Weekly magazine Erin A Meyers connects the economic and industrial forces that helped propel Us Weekly to the top of the celebrity gossip market in the early 2000s with the ways in which reality television cast members fit neatly into the social and cultural norms that shaped the successful gossip formulas of the magazine Us Weekly s construction of the extraordinarily ordinary celebrity within its gossip narratives is a significant symptom of the broader intensification of discourses of ordinariness and the private in the production of contemporary celebrity in which fame is paradoxically grounded in just being yourself while simultaneously defining what the right sort of self is in contemporary culture

A Memoir of Creativity Piri Halasz, 2009-03-30 A Memoir of Creativity chronicles one womans life journey as she derives a theory revealing meaning in abstract painting from varied personal and professional experiences and tells how she locates this theory within a broader social context In 1966 Piri Halasz became the first woman within living memory to write a cover story for Time and not just any cover story either the notorious one on Swinging London With wit and wisdom she provides a glimpse into her red diaper childhood as well as reporting on her climb at Time from research to the writing staff Vividly she describes her controversial career as a female journalist during the sixties offering an inside view of newsweekly rivalries during that tempestuous decade Halasz then moves on to her initiation into the art world her lively interaction with some of its most distinguished denizens and her immersion in graduate school She concludes with what she has learned about art art history and history itself since the early eighties applying that knowledge to better understand the twenty first century Through sharing her life story Halasz encourages others to remain open to new experiences to try different ways of seeing and to use creativity to tackle hurdles

Home Town News Center, Kansas City, Missouri, October 20, 1960 United States. Army Department, 1960 (Un)Learning to Teach Through Intercultural Professional Development Candace Schlein, 2017-12-01 This book comprises an examination of novice teachers experiences in schools and cultures of schooling across the contexts of Hong Kong Japan and Canada Drawing on narrative inquiry and arts based approaches this study employs experience as a starting point for making sense of both professional and personal encounters in local and foreign settings This work thus sheds light on how people make sense of shifting landscapes in an era of increasing intercultural communication and interaction while addressing important curricular implications of intercultural professional development for equity and social justice Asian Popular Culture Anthony Y.H. Fung, 2013-05-29 This book examines different aspects of Asian popular culture including films TV music comedy folklore cultural icons the Internet and theme parks It raises important questions such as What are the implications of popularity of Asian popular culture for globalization Do regional forces impede the globalizing of cultures Or does the Asian popular culture flow act as a catalyst or conveying channel for cultural globalization Does the globalization of culture pose a threat to local culture It addresses two seemingly contradictory and yet parallel processes in the circulation of Asian popular culture the interconnectedness between Asian popular culture and western culture in an era of cultural globalization that turns subjects such as Pok mon Hip Hop or Cosmopolitan into truly global phenomena and the local derivatives and versions of global culture that are necessarily disconnected from their origins in order to cater for the local market It thereby presents a collective argument that whilst local social formations and patterns of consumption and participation in Asia are still very much dependent on global cultural developments and the phenomena of modernity yet such dependence is often concretized reshaped and distorted by the local media to cater for the local market Spy, 1989-10 Smart Funny Fearless It s pretty safe to say that Spy was the most influential magazine of the 1980s It might have remade New York s cultural landscape it definitely changed the whole tone of magazine journalism It was cruel brilliant beautifully written and perfectly designed and feared by all There s no magazine I know of that s so continually referenced held up as a benchmark and whose demise is so lamented Dave Eggers It s a piece of garbage Donald Trump Information Security Pierangela Samarati, Moti Yung, Fabio Martinelli, Claudio Agostino Ardagna, 2009-09-19 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 12th International Conference on Information Security Conference ISC 2009 held in Pisa Italy September 7 9 2009 The 29 revised full papers and 9 revised short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 105 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on analysis techniques hash functions database security and biometrics algebraic attacks and proxy re encryption distributed system security identity management and authentication applied cryptography access control MAC and nonces and P2P and Web services PEERS® for Young Adults Elizabeth Laugeson, 2017-01-12 Session 1 Trading information and starting conversations session 2 Trading information and maintaining conversations session 3 Finding a source of friends session 4 Electronic communication session

The CIA's Greatest Covert Operation David H. Sharp, 2012-04-04 March 1968 three miles below the stormy surface of the North Pacific a Soviet submarine lay silent as a tomb its crew dead its payload of nuclear missiles once directed toward strategic targets in Hawaii inoperable No longer a real threat the sub still presented an alluring target and it was not long before the CIA answered its siren call even at the risk of igniting World War III Project AZORIAN the monumentally audacious six year mission to recover the sub and learn its secrets has been celebrated within the CIA as its greatest covert operation and hailed by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers as the twentieth century's greatest marine engineering feat While previous accounts have offered beguiling glimpses none have had significant access to CIA personnel or documents Now David Sharp the mission's Director of Recovery Systems draws upon his own recollections and personal records ship's logs declassified documents and conversations with team members to shine a bright light on this remarkable but still little understood enterprise Sharp reveals how the CIA conceived organized and conducted AZORIAN including recruiting the legendary Howard Hughes to provide the ocean mining cover story He takes readers onto and beneath the high seas to show the problems faced by the crew during the operation including potential Soviet intervention and tense moments when the recovery ship itself was in danger of breaking up He also puts a human face on key players like Carl Duckett the head of the CIA's Science and Technology Directorate John Parangosky AZORIAN's program manager John Graham designer of the Hughes Glomar Explorer Curtis Crooke of Global Marine Development co creator of the grunt lift recovery concept and Oscar Ott Schick manager of the Lockheed built capture vehicle and submersible barge A mammoth undertaking worthy of the most dramatic and spell binding espionage fiction Project AZORIAN harnessed American imagination and ingenuity at their highest levels Featuring dozens of previously classified photos Sharp's chronicle of that amazing operation plunges readers deep into the darkest shadows of the Cold War to produce the definitive account of an amazing mission

Cognitive Processes in Comprehension Marcel A. Just, 2013-11-26 First published in 1978 Cognitive Processes in Comprehension is a look at what goes on in the mind of the listener or reader when he hears a sentence during a conversation or reads a passage in a book For most adults comprehension is rapid automatic and effortless But despite its apparent simplicity comprehension includes a myriad of subprocesses each of which by itself constitutes a formidable computational task

The Routledge Companion to Family Business Franz Kellermanns, Frank Hoy, 2016-09-13 The Routledge Companion to Family Business offers a definitive survey of a field that has seen rapid growth in research in recent years Edited by leading scholars with contributions from the top minds in family business from around the world this volume provides researchers and scholars with a comprehensive understanding of the state of the discipline Over 25 chapters address a wide variety of subjects providing readers with a thorough review of the key research themes in the modern family firm such as corporate social responsibility and bank debt rationing International examples cover a wide range of economies including China Europe and Latin America The book will appeal to undergraduates postgraduates and business instructors seeking a definitive view of the issues and solutions that affect and support family business

Bay of Pigs Albert C. Persons, 2024-12-12 The Bay of Pigs on the south coast of Cuba was the scene in 1961 of an unsuccessful attempt by an armed force of exiled Cubans which had been organized supplied and trained by the United States government Investigative journalists and chroniclers characterized this event as variously the CIA out of control a new and inexperienced president Kennedy victimized by bad advice an outcome not preventable This account by a participant proves much of the accepted information about this controversial event to be seriously flawed In sharp and dramatic prose Albert C Buck Persons relates his involvement in the Bay of Pigs from being approached to do a temporary confidential job to receiving training by the Company in Florida then on to a camp in Central America and the invasion attempt in which two of his friends were killed This is exciting history unavailable until now to correct the record

Embracing Diversity in the Learning Sciences Yasmin B. Kafai, William A. Sandoval, Noel Enyedy, Althea Scott Nixon, Francisco Herrera, 2012-10-12 More than a decade has passed since the First International Conference of the Learning Sciences ICLS was held at Northwestern University in 1991 The conference has now become an established place for researchers to gather The 2004 meeting is the first under the official sponsorship of the International Society of the Learning Sciences ISLS The theme of this conference is Embracing Diversity in the Learning Sciences As a field the learning sciences have always drawn from a diverse set of disciplines to study learning in an array of settings Psychology cognitive science anthropology and artificial intelligence have all contributed to the development of methodologies to study learning in schools museums and organizations As the field grows however it increasingly recognizes the challenges to studying and changing learning environments across levels in complex social systems This demands attention to new kinds of diversity in who what and how we study and to the issues raised to develop coherent accounts of how learning occurs Ranging from schools to families and across all levels of formal schooling from pre school through higher education this ideology can be supported in a multitude of social contexts The papers in these conference proceedings respond to the call

Self-Deception and Wholeness in Paul and Matthew Dan O. Via, 2005-10-18 Via uses the concept of self deception as a vantage point for understanding something about Paul and Matthew Employing an existential method in the broad sense Via asks about the nature of a pervasive phenomenon of human existence with some attention given to psychological aspects Nevertheless this study is primarily exegetical and interpretive aimed at theological understanding rather than intensively methodological Positing that self deception is a deformation Via undertakes to pay attention primarily to the subversion of the self and the recovery of wholeness Additionally attention is paid to self deception as a social phenomenon and some consideration is given to its social causes and implications Constructivist Instruction Sigmund Tobias, Thomas M. Duffy, 2009-05-28 Constructivist Instruction Success or Failure brings together leading thinkers from both sides of the hotly debated controversy about constructivist approaches to instruction Although constructivist theories and practice now dominate the fields of the learning sciences instructional technology curriculum and teaching and educational psychology they have also been the subject of sharp criticism regarding sparse research support and adverse research findings This volume presents the evidence for and against constructivism the challenges from information processing theorists and commentaries from leading researchers in areas such as text comprehension technology as well as math and science education who discuss the constructivist framework from their perspectives Chapters present detailed views from both sides of the controversy A distinctive feature of the book is the dialogue built into it between the different positions Each chapter concludes with discussions in which two authors with opposing views raise questions about the chapter followed by the author s responses to those questions for some chapters there are several cycles of questions and answers These discussions and concluding chapters by the editors clarify and occasionally narrow the differences between positions and identify needed research Inside CIA's Private World H. Bradford Westerfield, 1997-08-25 Presenting the most interesting articles from the CIA s Studies in Intelligence journal this book provides revealing insights into CIA strategies and into events in which the organisation was involved
