Bradford Pals:

Bradford Pals David Raw,2006-06-15 In the early days of the First World War two volunteer Pals Battalions were raised in Bradford and this is their remarkable story David Raw s account is based on memoirs letters diaries contemporary newspaper reports official records and archives and it is illustrated with many maps and previously unpublished photographs He recaptures the heroism and stoical humour displayed by the Bradford Pals in the face of often terrible experiences but he also recounts the tragedy pain suffering and grief that was the dark side of war The Bradford Pals Ralph N.

Hudson,1993-01-01 Leeds Pals Laurie Milner,1990-12-31 The British Army s losses on the opening day of the Battle of the Somme 1 July 1916 amounted to some 57 000 men killed wounded or missing Few units however suffered as terribly as the famous Pals battalions raised from volunteers who had flocked to answer Lord Kitchener s Call to Arms In the North of England particularly whole cities and towns went into mourning as news of that awful first day s casualties came through What is less well known is that some of these battalions were brought up to strength with reinforcements often from the cities in which they had been raised and sent back into action again and again This is the story of one such battalion the Leeds Pals which by the war s end in 1918 was described as having been four times wiped out but fighting to the end It is a story which traces in great and fascinating detail the raising and training of the battalion in and around Leeds their service in Egypt before being sent to France in December 1915 their heavy losses in their baptism of fire on the Somme 1916 in the Battle of Arras a year later and during the German offensives of March and April 1918 Based upon the accounts of survivors private diaries letters and papers official archives contemporary newspaper accounts and a wealth of unpublished photographs it is a story of patriotism enthusiasm humor and great courage Ultimately however it is a tale of great tragedy for though the Leeds Pals took part in the final advance to victory their three years in France had cost them 733 men killed 1 861 wounded and 776 missing or captured Bradford Pals Ralph N. Bradford Pal John Broadhead,2019-04-15 In 1914 the City of Bradford was the world s leading manufacturer of fine woollen goods On the outbreak of war at the urging of the city s wealthy industrialists thousands of young men rushed to join the colours and within a matter of months two volunteer Pals Battalions were formed Author John Broadhead the son of a Bradford Pal tells the story of the battalions and the part played by his father George William Broadhead a Town Hall clerk from Batley The author s research was inspired by his father s diary of 1916 which he handed to the author shortly before his death in 1980 saying Here lad you might be interested in this Like many old soldiers he rarely spoke about the war but the diary and the author s use of official records newspaper reports and memoirs reveal the stark horror of what faced the nation s youth Few of the original Pals survived the war but George Broadhead s luck held In 1918 he married a French girl then worked for eighteen years with the Imperial War Graves Commission in France before returning to his home town to resume his earlier career This is a story of an ordinary soldier but a quite remarkable person The Bradford Pals MR Ralph N

Hudson,2014-08-13 In 1976 one of the Pals Battalions veterans said to me No one could write a book about the First World War unless he had been in it because he could not possible imagine what it was like So I did not try to write a book about the First World War I merely recorded the things that those old soldiers told me and what they wrote in their reports and in their letters to loved ones This is their story not mine Major & Mrs Holt's Battlefield Guide to the Somme Tonie

Holt,Valmai Holt,2008-06-15 Major and Mrs Holt s Battlefield Guide to the Somme is without doubt one of the best selling guide books to the battlefields of the Somme This latest updated edition includes four recommended timed itineraries representing one day s traveling Every stop on route has an accompanying description and often a tale of heroic or tragic action Memorials private and official sites of memorable conflict the resting places of personalities of note are all drawn together with sympathetic and understanding commentary that gives the reader a sensitivity towards the events of 1916

The West Yorkshire Regiment in the War 1914-1918 Vol 1 Everard Wyrall,2013-02-25 Another weighty regimental history two volumes 820 pages in all covering the record of twenty two battalions in France Flanders Italy and Gallipoli all of them served on the Western Front When war broke out the regiment consisted of two Regular battalions 1st and 2nd two Special Reserve 3rd and 4th and four Territorial battalions 5th to 8th the 1st Battalion went to France with 6th Division in September 1914 the 2nd Battalion came home from Malta to join the newly formed 8th Division Regular and went to France in November 1914 Both battalions remained in the same brigades 18th and 23rd and divisions throughout the war The four Territorial battalions each formed a 2nd and a 3rd line battalion the four original battalions made up the 146th Brigade 49th West Riding Division arriving in France in April 1915 the second line battalions combined to make the 185th Brigade 62nd 2nd West Riding Division which arrived in France in January 1917 Kitchener s call to arms resulted in eleven Service battalions being raised 9th to 18th the 17th was formed as a Bantam battalion and 21st of these only 13th and 14th did not go on active service The 21st Battalion became a Pioneer battalion in 4th Division and the 22nd was a Labour battalion which also went to France This history records events in chronological order the dates of the operations being described are shown in the margin as are the identities of the battalions involved Volume 1 x 355pp with 18 maps and 15 b w photos covers the period from the outbreak of war to the end of 1916 the close of the Somme offensive and includes the Dardanelles campaign where the 9th Battalion was in action with the 11th Northern Division On 1st July 1916 the first day of the Somme the 10th Battalion attacked at Fricourt and incurred the heaviest casualties of any battalion 710 of whom 307 were killed including the CO 2IC adjutant and two company commanders More than half of them are in in Fricourt New Military Cemetery which is in the No Man s Land across which they attacked and where they died The CO Lt Col Dickson and his adjutant Capt Shann lie side by side There is a Roll of Honour for the period covered in which the other ranks are listed alphabetically by battalions as are the Territorial battalion officers the other officers are shown in one group in alphabetical order with the battalion

number in front of the name Although the note at the head of the officer casualty list states that the theatre in which death occurred is France and Flanders unless otherwise indicated nonetheless Gallipoli is not shown against the names of the officers of the 9th Battalion who died there and so one is left with the wrong impression they died on the Western front
