Anadelia Romo, 2022-01-18 In the early twentieth century Brazil shifted from a nation intent on whitening its population to one billing itself as a racial democracy. Anadelia Romo shows that this shift centered in Salvador Bahia where throughout the 1950s modernist artists and intellectuals forged critical alliances with Afro Brazilian religious communities of Candombl to promote their culture and their city. These efforts combined with a growing promotion of tourism to transform what had been one of the busiest slaving depots in the Americas into a popular tourist enclave celebrated for its rich Afro Brazilian culture. Vibrant illustrations and texts by the likes of Jorge Amado, Pierre Verger and others contributed to a distinctive iconography of the city with Afro Bahians at its center. But these optimistic visions of inclusion, Romo reveals, concealed deep racial inequalities. Illustrating how these visual archetypes laid the foundation for Salvador's modern racial landscape, this book unveils the ways ethnic and racial populations have been both included and excluded, not only in Brazil but in Latin America as a whole.

King of Diamonds Ronald Winston, William Stadiem, 2023-09-19 This authoritative and intimate biography written by his only living son, Ronald Winston, marries the Gilded Age glamour and romance of Edith Wharton with the ruthless family dynamics of HBO's hit series Succession. Few American success stories rival that of Harry Winston. Born Harry Weinstein, he came from humble roots; his parents were poor Jewish immigrants who left Ukraine around 1890 for New York where they settled and started a small jewelry business. His genius for spotting priceless gems emerged young. When Harry was twelve years old, he recognized a two-carat emerald in a pawn shop and bought it for 25 cents, selling it two days later for 800, a massive sum in the early 1900s. From that moment on, Harry became obsessed with gems, especially diamonds. A compact, unassuming man with no formal education but unlimited drive and ambition, Harry Weinstein transformed himself into Harry Winston, the enigmatic figure who created the world's most prestigious luxury brand. Harry Winston built his empire while the Depression raged, World War II reshaped the world, and America entered its post-war period of prosperity. In this riveting biography, readers get a bird's-eye view of the dangers of the diamond trade and the lengths men would go to get their hands on the best of the rough. There's also a glimpse into the lives of the rich and famous who clamored for Winston's gems. Although he traveled the world doing business with kings, queens, and movie stars, Winston remained a devoted family man whose chief wish was that his sons carry on the legacy he had built. Harry's older son, Ronald Winston, worked alongside his father for decades. After Harry's death, Ron grew the company into the international brand that is still revered today. He ran it expertly until he was forced to sell the company due to his younger brother's maligning litigation. This is the story of a family business that survived and thrived for more than a century until it was undone by one bitter family member KING OF DIAMONDS is at once a portrait of American ingenuity at its best and the story of sibling rivalry that is Shakespearean in its tragedy

Remapping Brazilian Film Culture in the Twenty-First Century Stephanie Dennison, 2019-10-25 Remapping Brazilian Film Culture makes a significant contribution not only to debates about Brazilian national cinema but more generally about the development of world cinema in the twenty first century This book charts the key features of Brazilian film culture of the first two decades of the twenty first century including the latest cultural debates within Brazil on film funding and distribution practices the impact of diversity politics on the Brazilian film industry the reception and circulation of Brazilian films on the international film festival circuit and the impact on cultural production of the sharp change in political direction at national level experienced post 2016 The principle of remapping here is based on a need to move on from potentially limiting concepts such as the national which can serve to unduly ghettoise a cinema film industry and audience The book argues that Brazilian film culture should be read as being part of a globally articulated film culture whose internal workings are necessarily distinctive and thus deserving of world cinema scholars attention A blend of industry studies audience reception and cultural studies Remapping Brazilian Film Culture is a dynamic volume for students and researchers in film studies particularly Brazilian Latin American and world cinema Honorary Mention Best Book in Humanities for the LASA Brazil Prize 2021 Uma ilha chamada Brasil Geraldo Cantarino, 2004
