Light from the Other Side Jay Harold Ellens, 2011-01-01 This volume presents the narrative of the author's personal spiritual journey which is marked by numerous constructive life changing paranormal experiences that can only be accounted for as special initiations of the divine spirit providing intimations and illuminations These events are set in the context of the rich literature available which reports similar events in the lives of many other persons under both normal and extreme circumstances The author a clinical psychologist and pastoral theologian interprets this broad panoply of psycho-spiritual data in terms of psychological science and biblical perspectives He concludes that the divine spirit is pervasive throughout the universe and present in all the dynamics of life forms constantly endeavoring to communicate with humans Thus the paranormal may well be more normal than the normal human experience and the veil between time and eternity between the mundane and transcendent worlds and between life and the life to come is apparently more permeable in both directions than we suppose

The Mindful Coach Douglas K. Silsbee, 2004 Drawing from modern Buddhist perspectives on mindfulness this important book skillfully integrates the key practice of self awareness with seven essential roles played by any professional charged with supporting learning growth and change With exercises sample dialogues and application models The Mindful Coach offers a systematic approach for developing yourself as a coach

Performing Consciousness Per Brask, Daniel Meyer-Dinkgrafe, 2010-02-19 Since its inaugural issue in April 2000 the journal Consciousness Literature and the Arts has regularly published essays on the intersection of theatre and consciousness Often these essays have seen theatre as a spiritual practice that for both the performer and her audience can bring about experiences that help heal the world a shift in consciousness This practice though spiritual is not ethereal but is rooted in doing in actions in breathing That is theatre is seen as an art form understood as part of a whole as taking place in total Consciousness as well as expressing consciousness es making both breathing a source of meaning and shamanic journeying part of the creative process that brings into being imaginative resources for the actor that undermines traditional understandings of character self ego All the pieces collected here then reveal a concern with consciousness and the theatre the ways that performance can be a spiritual practice a means a reaching higher levels of consciousness as well as the ways the theatre may have healing effects on audiences by engaging them in wider and deeper levels of imagination the levels where dualities disappear

A Thousand Moments of Solitude Federico Sanchez, 2006-04-10 On November 12 2002 at the age of twenty two my son Mitchell committed suicide His sudden and unexpected death sent me reeling down a path I needed to travel if I ever wanted to escape the forest of grief and loss in which I found myself This book recounts my journey to come to terms with the death of my son The path I started down to fulfill a promise I had made to my son while he was alive to find answers to the mental problems he suffered took me places I had not anticipated The path became a network of four intersecting paths and my journey took me far beyond the death of a son to the human condition where we are governed by forces both internal and external over which we have little control and little understanding Intricately connected the four paths explored in this book are 1 the autobiographical the story of my life with my son Mitchell as we struggled with the mental problems that eventually led to his suicide 2 the diagnostic the various diagnostic tools available to psychiatrists which illustrate the level of knowledge in the field and show some of the failings of our present approach to mental disorders 3 historical fiction narrative accounts of the lives and deaths by suicide of both historical and fictional characters including the son of Queen Isabela of Spain Meriwether Lewis Vincent Van Gogh Miguel a slave working at the Count of Valencianas silver mine La Boca del Infierno in 18th century Mexico and Michele a passenger on the Titanic By telling these stories sometimes in the first person I found a way to express my own anguish and pain something I could not do directly as well as a way to explore further my relationship with my son and my son's complexity and fullness as a person 4 scientific explanation of how the brain works a theory of how the brain works explaining in detail how mental images and thoughts are formed and travel through the nervous system how we live in a world of illusions and how mental illness can be explained in these terms These four paths are intricately connected and reinforce each other in the book The diagnostic explains in technical terms what the autobiographical recounts the autobiographical recounts events which help to explain the complexities and subtleties of human behavior within the context of how the brain works the historical fiction ties into the autobiographical elements and the diagnostic The book also confronts the issue of suicide itself It answers that elusive question Why do people commit suicide The book presents a personal honest biographical testimonial of the experience of the suicide of a son The book speaks from experience not some abstract philosophical point of view The organization and contents of the book are unique a weaving together of four distinct yet related subjects the suicide of a son the classification of mental illnesses narratives of historical fiction and a theory of how the brain works The most outstanding feature of this book is that it presents for the first time to my knowledge a comprehensive theory of the brain that explains mental disorders such as dementia delirium depression manic depression and schizophrenia For the first time suicide is placed in a scientific context and why and how it happens is explained In particular the brain theory here is presented in a simplified form accessible to most particularly because of the anecdotes and stories that help illustrate how the brain functions and malfunctions The book also deals with other related subjects the importance of love in our lives the possibilities of past lives how to deal with grief and loss the possible reasons for the rise of suicide rates in industrialized nations the failures of the system to cure and prevent suicide and other mental disorders and possible directions that therapies and medications might explore in the future The writing is forceful

Death of Life Stanley Shostak,2016-07-27 The Death of Life dissects biology's claim to be the Cinderella science that rose above its station Early attempts to study life through observation experiment and theory are exposed as the skeleton of ideas for controlling life ideas which were only fleshed out by the biotech and genomic industries Physicists and chemists turned biologists in alliance with biology's own eugenicists are shown to have abandoned the study of life and suppressed poststructuralist approaches ranging from neoLamarckism to biogeological Gaia theory

Partners in Pleasure Paul Pearsall, Ph.D.,2001-03-27 Paul Pearsall's research shows that individual success and the solitary pursuit of happiness may be hazardous to one's health Although many self help books champion the singular approach to success and personal power as the path to well being Partners in Pleasure challenges this singularity by presenting new research and ancient cultural lessons regarding collective and connective ways to fulfillment and wellness Drawing in part on 2 000 year old Polynesian wisdom this book shows how to go beyond self fulfillment to shared pleasure

Transforming Madness Jay Neugeboren,2001-05-16 In Imagining Robert Jay Neugeboren told the sad deeply personal often harrowing story of one man and one family's struggle with chronic mental illness Now he presents an overview of the entire field a clear eyed articulate comprehensive survey of our mental health care system's shortcomings and of new effective proven approaches that make real differences in the lives of millions of Americans afflicted with severe mental illness A book for general readers and professionals alike Transforming Madness is at once a critique a message of hope and recovery and a call to action Filled with dramatic stories it shows us the many ways in which people who have suffered the long term ravages of psychiatric disorders have reclaimed full and viable lives

Changing Minds Michele Marie Desmarais,2008-01-01 This book by Dr Desmarais is by all means a positive contribution in the field of Yoga Indology and cognitive neurosciences It covers Eastern and Western ancient and modern religion and metaphysics psychology and epistemology as well as the cultural heritage for these The book is arranged in six chapters using our common concept of show as a metaphysical stage getting ready for the show entering the theatre taking the stage all the world as stage following the plot thickening of the plot and finally the lights come up This has its source in the Samkhya metaphor of prakrti as analogous to a divine actor on the world stage and in a cosmic drama Another symbolic metaphor that comes before our mind is that of Ardhanarinesvara of Lord Siva depicted as the Cosmic divine Supreme actor endowed with half female in his person The reader the spectator or audience member symbolizes the Purusa of Samkhya and yoga

Monkeybrain Johnny Oye,2014-09-12 MonkeyBrain evolved from many years of working with hundreds of clients in the wellness industry as a lifestyle fitness coach helping others improve their health and physiques Over time I began to see that emotional well being also had a direct affect on our physical health For many years I recognized undeniable emotional patterns among many of my clients Upon reflection I also noticed these patterns in myself One pattern that became apparent time and again was that most of us tend to spiral into negative thinking when we are stressed I could see that we all react to imbalances and stress in much the same way It almost seemed that we had an addiction to stress and we were always looking for the worst case scenario thinking of the problem instead of the solution I wanted to know why we do this and more importantly how we can change these faulty patterns My questions were Why do we tend to relive memories of stress fear and drama more often than those of love and joy Why does it feel like a compulsion to share our bad day our physical pain or our daily drama And why does the brain recall memories without our permission I began to call this way of thinking MonkeyBrain My search to find the MonkeyBrain Fix led me to study the latest neuroscience and mind body medicine What I discovered was not only surprising but also life changing MonkeyBrain shares years of discovery that began when I started exploring the relationships between our brain our body and our spirit It connects all the dots with mental physical and spiritual connections that make sense and includes worthy projects for improving all areas of life Also included is a template and journal for everyone to use It is a twenty one day challenge The Philosophy of Human Nature Howard P.
