Brown,1993 What Were Little Girls and Boys Made Of? Laura S. Struminger,1983-01-01 Primary School Books were vehicles by which authors in nineteenth century France hoped to shape the future These authors members of the middle class believed in reason and progress and in their own ability to ascertain what was reasonable and to enforce progress Not surprisingly they did not always get the cooperation of the people whom they were trying to lead to a civilized life Peasants who made up the largest population of those needing progress in the view of the middle class did not accept new ideas unquestionably They worked out their own compromises evasions and selections from the portrait of the good life presented to them in the village primary schools The books of Zulma Carraud are particularly interesting because they were directed specifically to socializing rural children to modern gender roles Annotated excerpts from her best selling books La Petite Jeanne ou le devior and Maurice ou le travail highlight the growing difference between women s work which is referred to as duty and is portrayed as an expansion of woman s nature and men s work which remains a duty to his family country and God but more importantly becomes a source of fulfillment provides a sense of achievement and of self worth In Carraud s books men use their skills to tame nature to create civilization in an ever expanding field of endeavors while women s work remains confined to child nurture house care care of the sick and elderly The process of inculcating new values is traced with the aid of school inspectors reports the letters and diaries of teachers and a collection of notebooks kept by rural pupils These documents provide a rare view of the dialectic nature of historical change The National Freemason ,1863 Street Noises Adrian Rifkin,1995 Street Noises combines the diverse materials of mass culture with literary and archival sources to produce an innovative and critical re reading of twentieth century Paris as the city of the people and of cultural modernity It concentrates on popular song and opera cultural theory and records of police surveillance such as the unpublished archives concerning the sexual mores of sailors in Toulon sensational weekly magazines including the weekly Detective Magazine with its remarkable photomontage and writers of the Academie Goncourt The author picks out their common realisation of the experience of the city also showing how the faits divers and the entertainment industries frame the writing of a Benjamin a Colette or a Genet Rifkin re works modern critical theory through these sources reflecting on its relation to the production of mass cultures Phallacies Kathleen M. Brian,James W. S. McDonough, 2018-09-18 he Man with the Ivory Ear is a fast paced and earthy thriller in which several plots intertwine to form an original story Woodhouse a battle scarred SIS operative is tasked to find a stealth helicopter which has been stolen from an American airbase by the psychic eponymous villain Woodhouse is hampered however by recurring headaches attempts on his life and bewildering flashbacks to traumatic childhood occurrences like Badger gate and The Birds and the Bees In a cat pottery in rural Norfolk meanwhile Cubby an overweight youth in unrequited love with a girl from a nearby bakery has accidentally created a ceramic feline with an unmistakable resemblance to Adolf Hitler This cat the Cat F hrer which may or may not be a reincarnation of the Nazi despot possesses the mind of Gruber a timid legal assistant and begins to direct his actions to increasingly disturbing ends And after the young Woodhouse s mother suffers a nervous breakdown post Badger gate and his father retreats into an invented Northern persona the boy is sent to a strict boarding school setting in motion a chain of events that will ultimately lead to tragedy The world in which The Man with the Ivory Ear takes place is as our own but the supernatural is more commonplace and the characters more used to dealing with unusual goings on Themes of love loss guilt and obsession are obliquely examined by a narrator as pleasingly fluctuant as his characters The book will be enjoyed by readers who like the unexpected and for characters to act out of turn Who did it? Or, Holmwood priory Henry Cadwallader Adams, 1882 Chevalier de Maison-Rouge Alexandre Dumas, 1894 The Countess de Charny. The Chevalier de Maison Rouge Alexandre Dumas, 1893 Dwell ,2002-02 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines
