The Battle of Souls , In Germany rises the majestic spirituality of Dr Martin Luther Life in the North of Europe is not as refined and leisurely as in the South The somewhat rough but very religious Germans are disappointed and angry with the Pope and the inappropriate and indulgent life stile of the Papal Court Nobles and peasants in Germany rise to protect Dr Luther from the Holy Inquisition the Pope and the Emperor Where Savonarola failed Dr Luther is victorious And the young Count of Regenstein as narrator and friend of Luther is able to escape from the easy but purposeless life in Italy and find the way to a meaningful real life in the North and to his Heaven gifted wife At the same time Albert of Sturmfeder a young knight with an old name but without fortune or family must find an honourable way to establish himself in life to be able to marry the lady of his heart The only way open to him is that of the sword In Swabia the Swabian League is fighting the Duke Ulrich of Wurttemberg for his estates If Albert chooses the losing side he must perish in the battle or share the banishment of his prince If a duke loses his dukedom he loses everything he must leave his home and family behind where could he hide And how should he come back without an army money or even a horse The National Register of Historic Places ,
