Bread And Freedom Understanding And Acting On Human Rights:

Bread and Freedom Ron O'Grady,1977 Negotiating Peace Shimreingam L. Shimray,2020-09-29 In Negotiating Peace Shimreingam L. Shimray argues that peace cannot be derived from outside forces but that it must instead be created from within the local context by the local people adopting their own cultural and historical system and using their own intellectual and material resources The author uses a deeply contextual reading of his own setting resulting in a work whose value rests in revealing how the tribal people of North East India have used their own resources to work for a culture of peace amidst tension and difficulty Negotiating Peace grows from an ongoing commitment on the part of Fortress Press to bring creative theological reflection from the Global South to the conversations taking place around the world It will be of interest not only to scholars of Christianity in North East India but to scholars students and those interested in peace studies Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller,Theo Sundermeier,Stephen B. Bevans,Richard H. Bliese,2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe s most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword Human Rights in Domestic Law and Development Claus Gulmann,Lars Adam Rehof,2021-11-15 The International Dimensions of Human Rights Philip Alston,1982 International Christian Literature Documentation Project Douglas W. Geyer,1993 Our Responsibilities Towards Future Generations Salvino Busuttil,1990 The Christian Tradition William H. Brackney,2005 Human Rights in Cultural and Religious Traditions Alf Tergel,1998 Social Action ,1980 Reviews social trends of the Country each issue deals with a relevant social theme review of recent publications and looks at issues with a social activist and social scientist concern from p 3 of cover v 53 no 4 Religion Index One ,1979 Human Rights and the Reinvention of Freedom Nick Stevenson,2016-10-04 This volume seeks to propose a reinvention of freedom under contemporary conditions of globalization cross border mobility and neo liberal dominance There are currently two predominant myths circulating about freedom The first is that in a global age growing numbers of citizens are less concerned with freedom than they are with security Secondly there is the presumption that freedom only refers to market freedom and consumerism implying that the ideas of choice and consumption are interchangeable with ideas of freedom Stevenson argues that while these arguments are significant they are deeply misleading More authentic ideas of freedom such as self realisation participating in politics and seeking a meaningful life of self reflection have not been entirely displaced but have instead become reinvented in our global times The cries of freedom can still be heard in a multitude of places from the Arab Spring to the Occupy Movement and from the protests against European austerity to the current popularity of human rights Stevenson also argues that the idea of freedom has become increasingly mobile in our interconnected and transnational society The spaces and places of civil society are more complex in this global age pushing ideas of freedom far beyond the usual arena of national politics This volume brings together a diverse range of cultural interpretations in respect of freedom related to the idea of the commons cosmopolitanism contemporary documentary cinema and the history of jazz music Exploring the ways in which notions of freedom are being re made within the context of the present and looking more precisely at the current threats to freedom it will be of interest to students and scholars of globalization human rights and cultural sociology Subject Catalog, 1982 Library of Congress,1982 Subject Catalog Library of Congress,

Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,1997 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1959 Crucible of Freedom Eric Leif Davin,2012-07-10 This book explores the relation between democracy and industrialization in United States history Over the course of the 1930s the political center almost disappeared as the Democratic New Deal became the litmus test of class with blue collar workers providing its bedrock of support while white collar workers and those in the upper income levels opposed it By 1948 the class cleavage in American politics was as pronounced as in many of the Western European countries such as France Italy Germany or Britain with which we usually associate class politics Working people created a new America in the 1930s and 1940s which was a fundamental departure from the feudalistic and hierarchical America that existed before They won the political rights of American citizenship which had been previously denied them They democratized labor capital relations and gained more economic security than they had ever known They obtained more economic opportunity for them and their children than they had ever known and they created a respect for ethnic workers which had not previously existed In the process class politics re defined the political agenda of America as for the first time in American history the political universe polarized along class lines Eric Leif Davin explores the meaning of the New Deal political mobilization by ordinary people by examining the changes it brought to the local county and state levels in Pittsburgh Allegheny County and Pennsylvania as a whole The Emergence of Human Rights in Europe Jean Carpentier,Council of Europe. Council for Cultural Co-operation,2001-01-01 The aim of this anthology is to identify the key texts from sixteen contributing countries which have influenced the conception and development of human rights The selection illustrates the great diversity of national circumstances systems of government and historical situations involved and also shows that in spite of different starting points the routes taken all lead to similar destinations The contributing countries are Bulgaria Croatia Finland France Germany Italy Latvia Liechtenstein Norway Poland Romania Holy See Slovakia Spain Switzerland and Ukraine The appendices include the text of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen 1789 Freedom of Information Act Guide & Privacy Act Overview ,1993 Dignity in the Egyptian Revolution Zaynab El Bernoussi,2021-07-01 Dignity or karama in Arabic is a nebulous concept that challenges us to reflect on issues such as identity human rights and faith During the Arab uprisings of 2010 and 2011 Egyptians that participated in these uprisings frequently used the concept of dignity as a way to underscore their opposition to the Mubarak regime Protesting against the indignity of the poverty lack of freedom and social justice the idea of karama gained salience in Egyptian cinema popular literature street art music social media and protest banners slogans and literature Based on interviews with participants in the 2011 protests and analysis of the art forms that emerged during protests Zaynab El Bernoussi explores understandings of the concept of dignity showing how protestors conceived of this concept in their organisation of protest and uprising and their memories of karama in the aftermath of the protests revisiting these claims in the years subsequent to the uprising
