Bread Milk And Other Stories:

Can We Talk and Other Stories Chinodya, Shimmer, 2018-04-12 Shimmer Chinodya winner of the 1989 Commonwealth Writers Prize Africa region is one of Zimbabwe's foremost fiction writers. This collection of short stories reveals his development as a writer of passionate questioning integrity. The first stories Hoffman Street and The Man who Hanged Himself capture the bewildered innocence of a child's view of the adult world where behaviour is often puzzling and contradictory stories such as Going to See Mr B V provide the transition between the world of the adult and that of the child where the latter is required to act for himself in a situation where illusions founder on a narrow reality. Among the Dead and Brothers and Sisters look wryly at the self-conscious self-centred desperately serious world of young adulthood while Playing your Cards The Waterfall Strays and Bramson introduce characters for whom ambition disillusion and disappointment jostle for attention in a world where differences of class culture race and morality come to the fore. Finally in Can we Talk we conclude with an abrasive lucid sinewy voice which explores the nature of estrangement. The charge is desolation. Can we Talk and Other Stories speaks of the unspoken and unsaid. The child who watches but does not understand the young man who observes but cannot participate the man who stands outside not sure where his desires and ambitions lead the older man estranged by his own choices. Can we Talk is not a question but a statement that insists on being heard and demands a reassessment of our dreams.

mines his experience for nuggets Playing with his doppelganger Godfrey he looks back on life in Harare and in Zimbabwe over the last decade exploring it from a familial perspective How does a father cope with a rebellious daughter or a wife he perceives as wayward How does one mediate traditional gender roles What to do when status in the form of a car undermines the stability of a marriage How does one manage a friendship with a new farmer What moral compromises are demanded by new wealth and political cronyism And what is the effect of religion on our lives Have we become more caring and compassionate or does piety provide a mask to disguise greed and ambition and justify a contempt for the poor This collection of stories will make you laugh but it will also challenge you to reconsider what it means to be Zimbabwean in the 21st century The celibates, Bachelor's establishment, and other stories Honoré de Balzac,1899 A Country Idyl and Other Stories Sarah Knowles Bolton,2020-07-26 Reproduction of the original A Country Idyl and Other Stories by Sarah Knowles Bolton

Ella's Christmas letter, and other stories William J. Forster,1896 THE ADVENTURES OF PRINCE LAZYBONES and Other Stories Mrs W. J. Hays,2021-01-22 Leo was a simple minded youth of princely blood and proud birth He knew that much was expected of him and that he was destined to rule yet he was easily satisfied with the simplest things and lay about all day basking in the sun watching with languid gaze the movements of the world about him And the world where he lived was very beautiful On a fertile plain surrounded by mountain peaks threaded by silver streams and so well watered that its vegetation was almost tropical Under Leo s father Prince Morpheus Lazybones the family thrived and was well supplied with all manner of delicacies for the servants were many and there was never a lack of corn or wine Leo was most fair to see To be sure his drooping lids half concealed his azure eyes and his golden locks sometimes hid his snowy forehead but his smile was charming his face had such an expression of calm satisfaction such a patient tranquillity that his smile was as the sudden sunshine on a placid lake It was the smile of the family an inherited feature like the blue hood of a Spanish Don And then it was given so freely the beggar would have preferred it to be accompanied with the jingle of a coin but as the coin never came and the smile did he tried to think that it warmed his heart though his wallet went empty There were those who said a smile cost nothing else it would not have been bestowed It had a peculiarity of its own which these same critics also objected to it nearly always ended in a yawn One day Leo was idling the day watching the rain drops drip out the spout when he heard a voice It turned out it was a founding member of the S P C C challenging Leo s inactivity Leo demanded that the voice show himself only to learn he would have to have his eyes anointed in order to see the voice Following instruction Leo felt a little pressure forcing down his eyelids and the pouring of a drop of cool liquid on each When he opened his eyes again there stood before him the quaintest strangest being he had ever beheld Well what happened next you may ask and what else did he see Would the smallish being lead Leo on his many adventures Well you ll have to download this most interesting book to find out for yourself 10% of the profit from the sale of this book is donated to charities
