Aging Cultural Diversity:

The Aging Experience Jennie Keith,Christine L. Fry,Anthony P. Glascock,Charlotte Ikels,Jeanette Dickerson-Putman, Henry C. Harpending,Patricia Draper,1994-09-22 In an attempt to understand the meaning of ageing and the treatment of the aged in different cultures seven anthropologists have made studies of 10 communities on four continents the results of which are presented in this book The authors use both qualitative and statistical data to examine such issues as health and well being perceptions of the life course material resources and functionality of elders A unique resource The Aging Experience provides a detailed comparative analysis of ageing worldwide Aging: Culture, Health, and Social Change David N. Weisstub,David C. Thomasma,S. Gauthier,G.F. Tomossy,2001-11-30 This is the first of three volumes on Aging conceived for the International Library of Ethics Law and the New Medicine Leading scholars from a range of disciplines contest some of the predominant paradigms on aging and critically assess modern trends in social health policy

Aging and Diversity Chandra M. Mehrotra,Lisa S. Wagner,Chandra Mehrotra,2013-03-07 This new edition has been completely rewritten and includes chapters that address key topics in diversity and aging research methods psychological aging health beliefs behaviors and services health disparities informal and formal care for older persons work and retirement religious affiliation and spirituality and death dying and bereavement Taking a broad view of diversity Mehrotra and Wagner discuss elements of diversity such as gender race or ethnicity religious affiliation social class rural urban community location and sexual orientation Including these elements allows them to convey some of the rich complexities of our diverse culture complexities that provide both challenges to meet the needs of diverse population and opportunities to learn how to live in a pluralistic society Throughout the book Mehrotra and Wagner present up to date knowledge and scholarship in a way that engages readers in active learning Rather than simply transmitting information the authors place ongoing emphasis on developing readers knowledge and skills fostering higher order thinking and encouraging exploration of personal values and attitudes Distinctive features of the book include Opening vignettes for each chapter that present a sampling of how the issues to be discussed apply to diverse elders Active learning experiences that invite readers to interview diverse elders conduct internet searches and give an analysis of a case study Quizzes at the end of the chapters help readers ascertain the extent to which they have learned the material the key for each quiz includes details about correct and incorrect responses so that additional learning can occur Aging and Diversity Online boxes interspersed throughout the book provide internet resources that readers may use to find new research and publications Suggested readings and audiovisual resources given at the end of each chapter serve as a guide to additional information on topics covered in the chapter This approach of presenting the material will help the readers understand and apply key concepts and principles in ways that will not only improve the lives of older people they serve but will also enhance their own aging experience Aging and Cultural Diversity Heather Strange,Michele Teitelbaum,1987-07-30 Aging in a Changing Society James A. Thorson,2000 This text with its friendly narrative style assumes no prior knowledge of gerontology sociology or psychology and so solidly serves its purpose as an overview of the field Cultural Diversity and Families Bahira Sherif Trask,Raeann R Hamon,2007-01-18

Cultural Diversity and Families Expanding Perspectives breaks new ground by investigating how concepts of cultural diversity have shaped the study of families from theoretical and applied perspectives Authors Bahira Sherif Trask and Raeann R Hamon move the dialogue about culturally diverse families to a new level by topically discussing the issues affecting culturally diverse families rather than organizing the information by racial and or ethnic groups Key Features Investigates the impact of cultural diversity on the study of families In order to transcend simplistic categorizations that have juxtaposed White families in opposition to families of color and vice versa this book delineates the increasing cultural diversity of American families and examines the impact of these demographic changes for the social sciences Emphasizes the full range of cultural aspects The book consciously emphasizes cultural aspects not just ethnicity but also socioeconomic status gender religion etc over racial impacts on family life so as not to reinforce the myth that race is a biological truth By sharing unique family experiences across groups the book enhances understanding directs future family research and serves these families through responsive policy and practice Offers more coverage of culturally diverse families than any other text Divided into three parts this comprehensive text first sets the stage of historical current and projected demographic trends pertaining to American families explores issues facing culturally diverse families from a thematic perspective and discusses of the impact of cultural diversity for family theory research service delivery and public policy Intended Audience This is an excellent text for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses such as Families in a Multicultural Society Ethnic Minority Families and Cultural Diversity in American Families in the departments of Human Development Family Studies Sociology and Family Social Work Aging and Diversity Lisa Wagner,Chandra M Mehrotra,Man Guo,2025-09-22 Aging and diversity intersect in important ways as individuals from different backgrounds experience aging through distinct lenses shaped by traditions values and beliefs As the older population in the United States is becoming more diverse it is important to understand the characteristics the potential and the needs of this population In this new and fully revised edition of Aging and Diversity Lisa S Wagner Chandra Mehrotra and Man Guo address key topics in diversity and aging discussing how the aging experience is affected by not only race and ethnicity but also gender religious affiliation socioeconomic status rural urban community location and sexual orientation and gender identity Taking this broad view of human diversity allows the authors to convey some of the rich complexities facing aging populations complexities that provide both challenges to meet the needs of a diverse population of elders and opportunities to learn how to live in a pluralistic society Wagner Mehrotra and Guo present up to date knowledge and scholarship about aging and diversity in a way that engages readers in active learning placing ongoing emphasis on developing readers knowledge and skills fostering higher order thinking and encouraging exploration of personal values and attitudes Encyclopedia of Applied Psychology Charles Spielberger,2004-09-02 Encompasses
