Aging And Its Discontents:

Aging and Its Discontents Kathleen M. Woodward,1991 Provides an analysis of the effect of negative cultural representations on our ideas about getting old This title argues that in the West ageism like sexism and racism is rooted in physical differences and in discrepancies in social power The Private Self Shari Benstock,1988 This collection of twelve essays discusses the principles and practices of women s autobiographical writing in the United States England and France from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries Employing feminist and poststructuralist methodologies t Aging and Its Discontents Kathleen M. Woodward,1991 Provides an analysis of the effect of negative cultural representations on our ideas about getting old This title argues that in the West ageism like sexism and racism is rooted in physical differences and in discrepancies in social power Aging by the Book Kay Heath,2009-02-19 Aging by the Book offers an innovative look at the ways in which middle age which for centuries had been considered the prime of life was transformed during the Victorian era into a period of decline Single women were nearing middle age at thirty and mothers in their forties were expected to become sexless meanwhile fortyish men anguished over whether their time for love had gone by Looking at well known novels of the period as well as advertisements cartoons and medical and advice manuals Kay Heath uncovers how this ideology of decline permeated a changing culture Aging by the Book unmask and confronts midlife anxiety by examining its origins demonstrating that our current negative attitude toward midlife springs from Victorian roots and arguing that only when we understand the culturally constructed nature of age can we expose its ubiquitous and stealthy influence Aging Moderns Scott Herring,2022-12-13 What happens when the avant garde grows old Examining a group of writers and artists who continued the modernist experiment into later life Scott Herring reveals how their radical artistic principles set out a new path for creative aging Aging Moderns provides portraits of writers and artists who sought out or employed unconventional methods and collaborations up until the early twenty first century Herring finds Djuna Barnes performing the principles of high modernism not only in poetry but also in pharmacy orders and grocery lists In mystery novels featuring Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas along with modernist souvenir collections the gay writer Samuel Steward elaborated a queer theory of aging and challenged gay male ageism The Harlem Renaissance dancer Mabel Hampton dispelled stereotypes about aging through her queer of color performances at the Lesbian Herstory Archives Herring explores Ivan Albright s magic realist portraits of elders Tillie Olsen s writings on the aging female worker and the surrealistic works made by Charles Henri Ford and his caregiver Indra Bahadur Tamang at the Dakota apartment building in New York City Showcasing previously unpublished experimental art and writing this deeply interdisciplinary book unites new modernist studies American studies disability studies and critical age studies Aging Moderns rethinks assumptions about literary creativity the depiction of old age and the boundaries of modernism The Becoming of Age Pamela H. Gravagne,2013-05-08 The Becoming of Age is an examination of the ways that aging and old age are represented in popular film Arguing that the ideas behind cinematic depictions of aging are historical and open to revision the author looks at how movies both promote negative portrayals of aging and challenge its persistent cultural devaluation Movies are a site of struggle where the representation and the reality of aging intertwine and they have the power not only to reflect but to reconstruct our understanding

Edith Wharton and the Modern Privileges of Age Melanie V. Dawson, 2020-02-17 Focusing on the works of Edith Wharton and her contemporaries Melanie Dawson discusses representations of modern American identities past early youth in twentieth century literature Dawson sets Wharton's work at the center of a vital debate about the contested privileges associated with age in contemporary culture

Ageing in Irish Writing Heather Ingman, 2018-07-18 Age is a missing category in Irish literary criticism and this book is the first to explore a range of familiar and not so familiar Irish texts through a gerontological lens Drawing on the latest writing in humanistic critical and cultural gerontology this study examines the portrayal of ageing in fiction by Elizabeth Bowen Molly Keane Deirdre Madden Anne Enright Iris Murdoch John Banville John McGahern Norah Hoult and Edna O'Brien among others The chapters follow a logical thematic progression from efforts to hold back time to resisting the decline narrative of ageing solitary ageing versus ageing in the community and dementia and the world of the bedbound and dying One chapter analyses the changing portrayal of older people in the Irish short story Recent demographic shifts in Ireland have focused attention on an increasing ageing population making this study a timely intervention in the field of literary gerontology

Cultural Narratives of Old Age in the Lives, Work, and Reception of Old Musicians Joseph Straus, 2024-08-23 Operating largely within the world of European American classical music this book discusses the creative work of old musicians composers performers listeners and scholars and how those forms of music making are received and understood Like everything else about old age music making is usually understood as a decline from a former height a deficiency with respect to a youthful standard Against this ageist mythology this book argues that composing oldly performing oldly and listening oldly are distinctive and valuable ways of making music a difference not a deficit to be celebrated not ignored or condemned Instead of the usual biomedical or gerontological understanding of old age with its focus on bodily cognitive and sensory decline this book follows Age Studies in seeing old age through a cultural lens as something created and understood in culture This book seeks to identify the ways that old musicians composers performers listeners and scholars accept resist adapt and transform the cultural scripts for the performance of old age Musicking oldly making music in old age often represents an attempt to rewrite ageist cultural scripts and to find ways of flourishing musically in a largely hostile landscape

Shame and the Aging Woman J. Brooks Bouson, 2016-08-19 This book brings together the research findings of contemporary feminist age studies scholars shame theorists and feminist gerontologists in order to unfurl the affective dynamics of gendered ageism In her analysis of what she calls embodied shame J Brooks Bouson describes older women's shame about the visible signs of aging and the health and appearance of their bodies as they undergo the normal processes of bodily aging Examining both fictional and nonfiction works by contemporary North American and British women authors this book offers a sustained analysis of the various ways that ageism devalues and damages the identities of otherwise psychologically healthy women in our graying culture Shame theory as Bouson shows astutely explains why gendered ageism is so deeply entrenched in our culture and why even aging feminists may succumb to this distressing but sometimes hidden cultural affliction The Ages of Life Ulla Kriebner, Roberta Maierhofer, 2014-03-15 The binary construction of young and old which is based on a biogerontological model of aging as decline can be redefined as the ambiguity of aging from a cultural studies perspective This concept enables an analysis of the social functions of images of aging with the aim of providing a basis for interdisciplinary exchange on gerontological research The articles in this publication conceive the relationship between living and aging as a productive antagonism which focuses on the interplay between continuity and change as a marker of life course identity aging and growing older are processes which cannot be reduced to the chronology of years but which are shaped by the individual's interaction with the changing circumstances of life Age Rage and Going Gently Oliver Davis, 2006 This wide ranging study looks at how the ageing process has alternately been figured in and excluded from twentieth century French literature philosophy and psychoanalysis It espouses a critical interdisciplinarity and calls into question the assumptions underlying much research into ageing in the social sciences work in which the negative aspects of growing older are almost invariably suppressed It offers a major reappraisal of Simone de Beauvoir's great but neglected late treatise La Vieillesse and presents the first substantial discussion of a lost documentary film about old age in which Beauvoir appears and which she helped to write PROMENADE AU PAYS DE LA VIEILLESSE Questioning Beauvoir's own rather reductive reading of Gide's work on old age this study analyses the way in which his Journal and Ainsi soit-il experiment with a range of representational models for the senescent subject The encounter between psychoanalysis and ageing is framed by a reading of Violette Leduc's autobiographical trilogy in which she suggests that psychoanalysis to its detriment simply cannot allow ageing to signify This claim is tested in a critical survey of recent theoretical and clinical work by psychoanalysts interested in ageing in France the UK and the US Lastly Herv Guibert's recently republished photo novel about his elderly great aunts Suzanne et Louise is examined as a work of intergenerational empathy and is found in addition to be an important statement of his photographic aesthetic Navigating between the extremes of fury age rage and serene acceptance going gently this study aims throughout to examine the role which ageing plays in formal as well as thematic terms in writing the life of the subject Literature and Ageing Elizabeth Barry, Margery Vibe Skagen, 2020 New approaches to the topics of old age and becoming old depicted in a range of texts from modern literature The central focus of this book is the experience of growing old as represented in literature from the mid nineteenth century to the present day an experience shaped by changes in longevity a new science of senescence the availability of state pensions and other phenomena of recent history The collection considers the increasing prominence of stories of ageing challenging the idea that old age is an uneventful time outside of the parameters of literary narrative Instead age increasingly is the story As the older population swells political crises are construed as the old stealing from the young and the rights of older people are sacrificed to the economics of care it becomes ever more important to think about and question as literature does the symbolic aspects of ageing the cultural imaginary that determines the way that society sees old age The work in this volume explores age stories in relation to futurity precarity and climate change It brings to light narratives of resistance to colonial imperialism and reproductive futurism framed in terms of age and tests the lived experience of growing old and the challenge it offers to individualistic conceptions of selfhood work and care The literary works examined hailing from England North America Japan and the Caribbean and including texts by Margaret Drabble Samuel Beckett and Matthew Thomas ask how we feel about ageing so often the determinant of how we think about it

Aging, Society, and the Life Course, Fifth Edition Leslie A. Morgan, PhD, Suzanne Kunkel, 2015-07-20 Print CourseSmart

The Psychology of Ageing Ian Stuart-Hamilton, 2006-08-15

This well established and accessible text has now been completely revised in an expanded fourth edition Each chapter has been updated to reflect current thinking The chapters about personality and lifestyle have been significantly expanded This new edition is essential reading for all those working with older people as well as a key text for students This new edition replaces The Psychology of Ageing An Introduction 3rd Edition ISBN 1 85302 771 5 published by Jessica Kingsley Publishers in 2000

Handbook of Communication and Aging Research Jon F. Nussbaum, Justine Coupland, 2004-04-12 This second edition of the Handbook of Communication and Aging Research captures the ever changing and expanding domain of aging research Since it was first recognized that there is more to social aging than demography gerontology has needed a communication perspective Like the first edition this handbook sets out to demonstrate that aging is not only an individual process but an interactive one The study of communication can lead to an understanding of what it means to grow old We may age physiologically and chronologically but our social aging how we behave as social actors toward others and even how we align ourselves with or come to understand the signs of difference or change as we age are phenomena achieved primarily through communication experiences Synthesizing the vast amount of research that has been published on communication and aging in numerous international outlets over the last three decades the book's contributors include scholars from North America and the United Kingdom who are active researchers in the perspectives covered in their particular chapter Many of the chapters work to deny earlier images of aging as involving normative decrement to provide a picture of aging as a process of development involving positive choices and providing new opportunities A recurring theme in many chapters is that of the heterogeneity of the group of people who are variously categorized as older aged elderly or over

65 The contributors review the literature analytically in a way that reveals not only current theoretical and methodological approaches to communication and aging research but also sets the future agenda This handbook will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in gerontology developmental psychology and communication and in this updated edition will continue to play a key role in the study of communication and aging Gerontology Kenneth Ferraro, Janet Wilmoth, 2006-09-11 Designated a Doody's Core Title THE GROUNDBREAKING TEXT ON GERONTOLOGY UPDATED TO ADDRESS THE INTERDISCIPLINARY NATURE OF THE STUDY OF AGING What is Gerontology How Does Aging Affect the Mind and the Body How Does Social Context Influence Aging and Life Course Development What are the Needs and Interests of an Older Population These questions are sparking the most important research in gerontology and this third edition of the perennial text brings the research and its resulting theories from across the various disciplines into one broad overview of gerontology This interdisciplinary approach is key to developing a strong gerontological imagination a necessary base for the study of gerontology Use this volume to discover the cellular realities of aging alongside the social forces that play a role in developing Alzheimer's Study the effects of nutrition and exercise in older lives and learn how the demographics of aging affect them By combining knowledge from different disciplines Wilmoth and Ferraro have created a comprehensive picture of gerontology today that will enhance any course instruction and provide a new window into the future of the discipline Springer Publishing Serving the Healthcare and Helping Professions for More Than 55 Years 'Rock On': Women, Ageing and Popular Music Abigail Gardner, 2016-03-16 For female pop stars whose star bodies and star performances are undisputedly the objects of a sexualized external gaze the process of ageing in public poses particular challenges Taking a broadly feminist perspective Rock On women ageing and popular music shifts popular music studies in a new direction Focussing on British American and Latina women performers and ageing the collection investigates the cultural work performed by artists such as Shirley Bassey Petula Clark Madonna Celia Cruz Grace Jones and Courtney Love The study crosses generations of performers and audiences enabling an examination of changing socio historical contexts and an exploration of the relationships at play between performance strategies star persona and the popular music press For instance the strategies employed by Madonna and Grace Jones to engage with the processes and issues related to public ageing are not the same as those employed by Courtney Love or Celia Cruz The essays in this insightful collection reflect on the ways that artists and fans destabilise both the linear trajectories and the compelling weight of expectations regarding ageing by employing different modalities of resistance through persona reinvention nostalgia postmodern intertextuality and even early death as the ultimate denial of age
