Carolyn L. Rosenblatt is a registered nurse and an attorney with over 40 years of combined experience. She has compiled her 9 volume series into this Complete Guide. It touches on dangerous older drivers, choosing home care workers and nursing homes, understanding assisted living, the specifics of handling money for aging parents, ways to manage sibling conflicts, about elders' advice from a lawyer about how to choose a lawyer when your parent needs one, and knowing how a care manager can help you.      Who Should Care for the Elderly? William T. Liu, 2000. This book comprises a collection of refereed and edited papers that originated from an invited conference on East West values in elderly care held in Hong Kong in 1996. Organized under Western or Eastern perspectives, the contributions reflect the belief that knowledge in the care giving field has reached a point where comparisons can shed useful insights into not only the differences between cultures but also between the perspectives of the scholars.      Setting Boundaries® with Your Aging Parents Allison Bottke, 2010-04-01. Navigating the Journey of Aging Parents Cheryl A. Kuba, 2013-05-13. Navigating the Journey of Aging Parents proposes an entirely unique approach to the field of gerontology, giving dependent care receivers a voice. Caregivers will be made aware of what care receivers truly want during life's final chapters. Exploring issues of housing, spirituality, personal care, and death, Cheryl Kuba has created a testament to the dependent elderly. This book draws on numerous interviews with aging people and discusses common caregiver mistakes and interpretations: what a caregiver should expect when an aging parent moves in and how to care for an aging parent from afar. Kuba also delves into such phenomena as guilt, role reversal, changing family dynamics, financial stress, and caring for oneself while caring for another. The 22.4 million elderly people being cared for in the United States comprises the fastest growing segment of the population, making this reference on the opinions and concerns of care receivers invaluable.      The Boomer's Guide to Aging Parents, Vol. 7, How To Handle Family Conflicts About Elders Carolyn L.
