questions regarding the gendered nature of religious reform are ripe for further examination This book brings together innovative research from a range of disciplines to re evaluate and enlarge our knowledge of women s involvement in spiritual and institutional change in female monastic communities over the period c 1000 c 1500 Contributors revise conventional narratives about women and monastic reform and earlier assumptions of reform as negative or irrelevant for women Drawing on a diverse array of visual material and textual sources it presents snapshots of reform from western Europe stretching from Ireland to Iberia Case studies focussing on a number of different topics from tenth century female saints lives to fifteenth century liturgical books from the tenth century Leominster prayerbook to archaeological remains in Ireland from embroideries and tapestries to the rebellious nuns of Sainte Croix in Poitiers offer a critical reappraisal of how monastic women and their male associates reflected individually and collectively on their spiritual ideals and institutional forms
