Agrarian Transformation:

Beyond the Sociology of Agrarian Transformation Nelson-Richards, 2023-07-31 Land and Agrarian Transformation in Zimbabwe Grasian Mkodzongi, 2020-06-05 This book examines the dynamics underpinning the implementation of Zimbabwe's fast track land reforms. By utilising ethnographic data gathered in central Zimbabwe, the book goes beyond the polarised debates which dominated scholarship in the earlier period to highlight the changing livelihoods occasioned by the land reform. The book argues that despite the challenges faced by the newly resettled farmers, the land reform has allowed landless and land short peasants access to land and other natural resources which were previously enclosed to them under a bi-modal agrarian structure inherited from colonialism. Agrarian Reform and Social Transformation Rehman Sobhan, 1993 Agrarian Transformation in Egypt Nicholas S. Hopkins, 2019-04-08 This book reflects the argument on agrarian transformation in Egypt. It focuses on the role of agricultural mechanization in the labor process in rural Egypt. The book emphasizes the changing role of the household and the relations between households, particularly the role of women and children. Agrarian Reform & Economic Growth in Developing Countries, 1962

Agrarian Transformation in Western India B. B. Mohanty, 2018-10-11 This book examines the economic gains and social costs of agrarian transformation in India. The author looks at three phases of agrarian transformation: colonial, post-colonial, and neoliberal. This work combines macro and micro economic data, economic and noneconomic phenomena, and quantitative and qualitative aspects while exploring the context of historical and contemporary changes with special reference to Maharashtra in western India. It discusses regional disparities in agricultural development, issues of modernisation and social inequality, land owning among scheduled castes and tribes, women in agriculture, pattern of labour migration and farmer suicides, and documents the experiences and conditions of the rural poor and socially weaker sections to provide a comprehensive understanding of the significant changes in agrarian rural economy of western India. It also discusses contemporary development policy and practices and their consequences. Lucid and topical, this volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of agrarian studies, rural sociology, social history, agricultural economics, development studies, political economy, political studies, and public policy, as well as planning and policy experts. El Salvador Project Paper : Agrarian Reform Organization, 1980 Lectures on Agrarian Transformation in Pakistan Mahmood Hasan Khan, 1985 Living Under Contract Peter D. Little, Michael Watts, 1994 Wracked by poverty, famine, and drought, Africa is typically represented as agriculturally stagnant, backward, and crisis-prone. Living Under Contract however highlights the dynamic, changing character of sub-Saharan agrarian systems by focusing on contract farming. A relatively new and increasingly widespread way of organizing peasant agriculture, contract farming promotes production of a wide variety of crops from flowers to cocoa, from fresh vegetables to rice, under contract to agribusinesses, exporters, and processors. The proliferation of African growers producing under contract is in fact part of broader changes in the global agro-food system. In this examination of agricultural restructuring and its effect upon various African societies editors Peter Little and Michael Watts bring together anthropologists economists geographers political scientists and sociologists to explore the origins forms and consequences of contract production in several African countries particularly Kenya the Gambia Zimbabwe and the Ivory Coast Documenting how contract production links farmers agribusiness and the state the contributors examine problematic aspects of this method of agrarian reform Their case studies based on long term field work and analysis on the village and household level chart the complex effects of contract production on the organization of work and the labor process rural inequality gender relations labor markets local accumulation strategies and regional development Living Under Contract reveals that contract farming represents a distinctive form in which African growers are incorporated into national and world markets Contract production which has been a central feature of the agricultural landscape in the advanced capitalist states is an emerging strategy for capturing peasants and for confronting the agrarian question in the late twentieth century

Critical Perspectives on Agrarian Transition B. B. Mohanty, 2016-01-29 This book evaluates the relevance of classical debates on agrarian transition and extends the horizon of contemporary debates in the Indian context linking national trends with regional experiences It identifies new dynamics in agrarian political economy and presents a comprehensive account of diverse aspects of capitalist transition both at theoretical and empirical levels The essays discuss several neglected domains in agricultural economics such as discursive dimensions of agrarian relations and limitations of stereotypical binaries between capital and non capital rural and urban sectors agriculture and industry and accumulation and subsistence With contributions from major scholars in the field this volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of agriculture economics political economy sociology rural development and development studies

Agrarian Reform in the Philippines Jeffrey M. Riedinger, 1995 This book evaluates the capacity of new democratic regimes to promote redistributive agrarian reform an issue of contemporary concern in countries throughout the world Agrarian reform is particularly complex and difficult for new democracies because it curtails the power and privileges of influential elements of society The author analyzes the problems attendant on political liberalization and social and economic reform by examining in detail the formulation and implementation of agrarian reform in the Philippines under the governments of Corazon Aquino and her successor Fidel Ramos The book explores how the interaction between state and society shapes reform policy decisions paying close attention to the role of cultural variables and social organizations It shows that what is needed for successful agrarian reform is a combination of sustained forceful leadership from a disciplined reform oriented political party and grassroots agitation by peasant organizations Agricultural Transformation in Nepal Ganesh Thapa, Anjani Kumar, P.K. Joshi, 2019-11-25 This book addresses some key strategic questions related to agriculture in the context of major contemporary developments and emerging challenges in Nepal such as the changing role of agriculture with economic growth structural transformation in reducing poverty improving nutritional outcomes and addressing the challenges of climate change The book also suggests policy measures to improve the delivery of critical inputs and services and ensure the participation of marginal and smallholders in high value chains Further it discusses how the new federal system and governance structure will affect the delivery of agricultural technology and services The book is divided into five parts Part I discusses macro issues in the agriculture sector while Part II focuses on agricultural productivity growth and its main drivers The third part explores diversification in the agricultural and non agricultural sectors by farmers and other rural people for livelihood improvement while the fourth part deals with agricultural trade and marketing issues highlighting policy implications and recommendations in the areas of immediate focus and further research Lastly Part V addresses institutions and governance issues which are vital for agricultural development In the final chapter the editors summarize and synthesize the book s main findings and develop a policy agenda for addressing the many challenges faced by the agriculture sector in Nepal so as to make it more productive competitive sustainable and inclusive The book offers a rich source of analytical information on various aspects of agricultural development in Nepal and will be of immense value to policymakers development partners civil society students and those interested in the economic and agricultural development of not only Nepal but also other developing countries

Agricultural transformation in Sri Lanka: policy implications and way forward Joshi, Pramod Kumar, Weerahewa, Jeevika, Babu, Suresh Chandra, Rao, P. Parthasarathy, 2017-06-26 Sri Lanka continues to experience strong economic growth over the recent years In the food and agriculture sector however there are several conspicuous policy changes that require attentive analysis Also since 2008 agriculture growth slowed down due to drought and weak global demand which affected exports and trade This brief takes stock of key food and agricultural indicators and provides key recommendations to further expedite the transformation of the sector Sri Lanka has come a long way in terms of agricultural transformation moving from subsistence based agrarian economy towards early integration stage But further progress towards market oriented industrialized agriculture will crucially depend on the policy institutional and technological innovations that are designed and implemented by the Government The government of Sri Lanka has been pursuing large scale reconstruction and development projects to achieve higher growth by developing small and medium enterprises and to increase agricultural productivity Perspectives on Agricultural Transformation Thomas S. Jayne, 2002 Perspectives on Agricultural Transformation A View From Africa International Journal of Management and Transformation , BRICS and MICs: Implications for Global Agrarian Transformation Ben Cousins, Saturnino M. Borras Jr., Sérgio Sauer, Jingzhong Ye, 2020-05-21 The economic and political rise of the BRICS countries Brazil Russia India China and South Africa and powerful middle income countries MICs such as Argentina Indonesia and Turkey has far reaching implications for global agrarian transformation These countries are key sites of agricultural commodity production distribution circulation and consumption and are contributing to major shifts in the character of agro food systems This comprehensive collection explores these issues through the lens of critical agrarian studies which examine fundamental social change in and in relation to rural worlds The authors explore key themes such as the processes of agrarian change associated with individual countries within the grouping the role and impact of BRICS countries within their respective regions the role of other MICs within these regions and the rising importance of MICs within global and regional agro food systems The book encompasses a wide variety of case studies including the expansion of South African agrarian capital within Africa Brazil as a regional agro food power and its complex relationship with China which has been investing heavily in Brazil the role of BRICS and MICs in Bolivia s soy complex crop booms within China China s role in land deals in Southeast Asia and Vietnamese investment in Cambodia This book will be of interest to students and researchers of critical agrarian studies with a focus on BRICS and MICs It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Globalizations

Agricultural transformation in Asia Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2021-06-11 Over the past few decades some countries in Asia have been more successful than others in addressing poverty and malnutrition The key question is what policies strategies legislation and institutional arrangements have led to a transformed agricultural sector effectively contributing to poverty alleviation and addressing malnutrition The great majority of national policymakers within and outside the Asia Pacific region are keen to understand the causes of agricultural development and transformation in successful countries in Asia A large number of studies have been conducted and some of them link specific public policies and interventions to successful agricultural transformation However there seems to be lack of focus on the policy legislative and institutional environments that have enabled or impeded agricultural transformation in Asia National policymakers are likely to benefit significantly from adequate and convincing information on successful and relevant experiences in successful transformation Countries are interested in what their neighbours and peers have done and why some have achieved impressive results The main purpose of this study is to take stock of public sector experiences in facilitating and enabling agricultural transformation in selected countries in Asia The study focuses on key public sector interventions in particular policies legislation and institutional innovations because these areas have so far not been adequately researched
