Perspectives on Contemporary Spanish American Theatre Frank N. Dauster, 1996 The essays in this volume reflect a pattern of interests rapidly becoming dominant among scholars Several of them deal with questions of genre or focus on metatheatrical and parody theatrical techniques widespread in Latin America The majority treat these topics in conjunction with their social context Understanding Octavio Paz Jose Quiroga, 1999 In this comprehensive examination of the work of Octavio Paz winner of the 1990 Nobel Prize for Literature and Mexico's important literary and cultural figure Jose Quiroga presents an analysis of Paz's writings in light of works by and about him Combining broad erudition with scholarly attention to detail Quiroga views Paz's work as an open narrative that explores the relationships between the poet his readers and his time La Malinche in Mexican Literature Sandra Messinger Cypess, 2010-07-05 Of all the historical characters known from the time of the Spanish conquest of the New World none has proved more pervasive or controversial than that of the Indian interpreter guide mistress and confidante of Hernán Cortés Doña Marina La Malinche Malintzin The mother of Cortés's son she becomes not only the mother of the mestizo but also the Mexican Eve the symbol of national betrayal Very little documented evidence is available about Doña Marina This is the first serious study tracing La Malinche in texts from the conquest period to the present day It is also the first study to delineate the transformation of this historical figure into a literary sign with multiple manifestations Cypess includes such seldom analyzed texts as Ireneo Paz's Amor y suplicio and Doña Marina as well as new readings of well known texts like Octavio Paz's El laberinto de la soledad Using a feminist perspective she convincingly demonstrates how the literary depiction and presentation of La Malinche is tied to the political agenda of the moment She also shows how the symbol of La Malinche has changed over time through the impact of sociopolitical events on the literary expression Aguila o sol? Heriberto Frías, 1923 The New Dramatists of Mexico, 1967-1985 Ronald D. Burgess, 1991-01-01 In 1967 a group of young Mexican dramatists most of them studying with Emilio Carballido began staging plays primarily in small out of the way theaters and publishing them mostly in university magazines with limited distribution Burgess Spanish Gettysburg College examines this generation of social dramatists in the context of contemporary Mexican society and literature Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Encyclopedia of Contemporary Latin American and Caribbean Cultures Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, Ana M. the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1990 eight years before his death in 1998 The Writing in the Stars explores Paz's life and ideas by establishing a dialogue between the structure and recurring images of his major poems and the ideas of Carl Jung. Although other literary critics have pointed to Jungian concepts in Paz, a comprehensive study on the subject has yet to be undertaken. Rodney Williamson takes up this challenge adopting a Jungian perspective to explore successive phases of Paz's poetry. Williamson illustrates how archetypal images infuse Paz's early poetry and his surrealist period and shows how the circular structure of Paz's longer poems such as Piedra de sol and Blanco are based on the Eastern sacred circle or mandala, a major archetype of psychic wholeness in Jung. He argues that a grasp of the psychological importance of Jung's archetypes is essential to understanding the various syntheses of creative truth and existence sought by Paz at different defining moments of his career as a poet. The Writing in the Stars will prove fascinating to anyone interested in Latin American literature, Jungian psychology, or critical theory.
