Selected Stories of Lu Hsun □□,1972 Lu Hsun 1881 1936 chief commander of China s modern cultural revolution was not only a great thinker and political commentator but the founder of modern Chinese literature As early as in the May 1918 issue of the magazine New Youth Lu Hsun published one of his best stories A Madman s Diary This was his declaration of war against China s feudal society and the first short story in the history of modern Chinese literature Thereafter he followed up with a succession of stories such as The True Story of Ah Q and The New Year s Sacrifice which cut through and sharply attacked stark reality in the dark old society These stories were later included in the three volumes Call to Arms Wandering and Old Tales Retold and have become treasures in the Chinese people s literary heritage In his early life Lu Hsun was a revolutionary democrat who later matured into a communist His earlier works were mainly stories 18 of the more important of which plus the preface to Call to Arms his first short story collection have been selected for this volume The stories show clearly his method in this period of creative writing thoroughgoing critical realism a method closely related to the outright anti imperialist and anti feudal views which he formed in his early days In his preface to Call to Arms the author tells his motive in choosing literature as a weapon of struggle This will give readers a deeper understanding of Lu Hsun s stories
